TICKET INFORMATION

For the third-consecutive season, all available K-State football season tickets have been sold as department officials announced that public season sales for the 2015 season at Bill Snyder Family Stadium have surpassed the 36,000 mark in mid-June. Fans who ordered season tickets but did not receive a ticket location during the priority seating process will be refunded and placed on a waiting list for the 2016 season, which currently sits at more than 250 accounts with 1,000 tickets requested. With a full season sellout anticipated by the start of the season, K-State is expected to extend its sellout streak to 27 games.

16 GOALS FOR SUCCESS

Bill Snyder has been a constant to the Kansas State football program from 1989 through 2005, and again from 2009 to the present. But within that constant have come 16 other principles that have formed the foundation of the K-State football family, and the life beyond those years of eligibility.

The 16 goals form the foundation for success, and create the work ethic and discipline that go with them. With players and coaches from all backgrounds, having a single set of core values unifies them under one vision. If each adheres to the goals as individuals, then team success will follow.

Snyder believes the 16 goals are not only critical to success on the field, but also in everyday life. Once someone has dedicated themselves to doing things the right way, the chance of success both on and off the field is dramatically increased.

1 COMMITMENT

To common goals and to be successful.

2 UNSELFISHNESS

There is no "I" in TEAM.

3 UNITY

Come together as never before.

4 IMPROVE

Everyday... as a player, person and student.

5 BE TOUGH

Mentally and physically.

6 SELF-DISCIPLINE

Do it right, don't accept less.

7 GREAT EFFORT

Every time.

9 ELIMINATE MISTAKES

10 NEVER GIVE UP

11 DON'T ACCEPT LOSING

If you do one time, it will be easy for the rest of your life.

12 NO SELF-LIMITATIONS

13 EXPECT TO WIN

And truly believe we will.

14 CONSISTENCY

Your very, very best every time.

15 LEADERSHIP

Everyone can set the example.

16 RESPONSIBILITY

You are responsible for your own performance.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

Kansas State student-athletes have regularly been among the most decorated and publicized in all of college football with multiple national award winners and weekly nationally televised games. In fact, K-State has had all 52 games over the last four years shown to a national or global audience, including 10 on ESPN and six on FOX.

The 2012 season saw increased exposure as quarterback Collin Klein was a Heisman Trophy finalist and winner of the prestigious Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, while linebacker Arthur Brown was a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and former Wildcat great Mark Simoneau was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Consensus All-American Tyler Lockett was featured in New York City as a National Scholar-Athlete in 2014, and the program from the Little Apple will be prominently displayed in the Big Apple once again when head coach Bill Snyder will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2015.

K-STATEHD.TV

K-StateHD.TV is the most-watched subscription platform in college athletics. In addition to nearly 200 other live games and events, the Wildcats' season opener against South Dakota will be televised globally on K-StateHD.TV.

The national spotlight will be on K-State and Manhattan on Thursday, November 5, as the Wildcats host 2014 top-10 team Baylor in a national telecast on FOX Sports 1.

RING OF HONOR

DISTINGUISHING THEMSELVES ON AND OFF THE FIELD

K-State started a new tradition in 2002 as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field at the highest level.

The inaugural class in 2002 consisted of six players, while four more were inducted in 2008. This season, K-State will put four more players into the Ring of Honor prior to the home opener against South Dakota.

Selection into the Ring of Honor is at the discretion of the Director of Athletics upon recommendations of the Head Football Coach and with final approval from the K-State Athletics, Inc. Board.

In determining candidates, the Head Football Coach and Director of Athletics shall consider categories such as quality of character, whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at Kansas State University or performed at a program-transformational level that warrants consideration. The student-athlete also has to be at least five year out of school.

EXCEPTIONAL COACHING

IT'S MORE THAN JUST A JOB...

At K-State, players are coached and taught life lessons by people that are not just there for the job... it is a place they call home. For a community and institution that is as tight-knit as Manhattan and Kansas State, it's no surprise that K-State is at the top of the list for graduates coaching at their schools. Half of K-State's 10 full-time coaches played at and graduated from Kansas State, a figure that is tops among programs in Power 5 Conferences. A span of 30 years of graduates, from Mo Latimore in 1976 to Blake Seiler in 2006 and Dana Dimel, Sean Snyder and Andre Coleman in between, these five coaches take extra pride in the success of K-State Football.

In addition to the five full-time coaches that are K-State graduates, three graduate assistants - Zach Hanson, Ben Kall and Collin Klein - also obtained their degrees from Kansas State. Hanson was an All-Big 12 offensive tackle for the Wildcats' in 2011, Kall was a member of the 2012 Big 12 Championship team, while Klein was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2012.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

MAXIMIZING ON-FIELD PERFORMANCE

Under the guidance of Director of Strength and Conditioning Chris Dawson (left) and assistant strength coaches Darren Honeycutt, Corey Meredith, Kevin Schadt and Joe Cronn, the K-State strength and conditioning program is committed to maximizing the on-field performance of every student-athlete. The program, designed by Dawson, combines weight training, plyometrics, stretching and flexibility exercises, running and proper nutrition to enhance each student-athlete's ability to compete. Dawson is a 20-year veteran of the strength training and conditioning field and in 2007 was named the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

PROPER NUTRITION

Maximizing on-field potential is more than just lifting weights and running; it's also ensuring that each student-athlete is benefitting from a nutritional and dietary program specific to their needs. Under the direction of K-State's first full-time sports nutritionist, Scott Trausch, K-State football players receive performance fueling strategies, team and individual nutrition education, hydration and body composition testing. Trausch works with Chef Pedro Lozada at the new Ahearn Fund Student-Athlete Performance Table in the West Stadium Center to coordinate nutritious meals for all K-State student-athletes.

TOOLS FOR ACADEMIC SUCCESS

At Kansas State, being a champion is more than winning trophies on the field; it's about providing student-athletes a world-class experience which includes being a champion in the classroom and, most importantly, becoming a champion in life.

K-State's program of Academic Student Services for Athletics assists, directs, supports and promotes student development, academic achievement, academic athletic eligibility and progress toward graduation. The unit provides the following services through its superior academic facility for student-athletes, the Student-Athlete Enhancement Center:

- student orientation program
- academic counseling skills training
- develop class schedules
- develop graduations timelines
- tracks academic progress
- tutoring and mentoring services

TOP-NOTCH FACILITIES

The 250,00 square foot West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium opened in Fall 2013 and is a first-class facility that impacts the daily experience of 450 student-athletes in 16 sports who proudly represent K-State. The West Stadium Center also enhances the gameday experience for all 50,000 K-State fans as we cheer for another Wildcat Victory.

The West Stadium Center features amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms and ticket offices replaced the previous west side facilities, which were originally built in 1968. Additionally, a new Fan Store and Hall of Honor is included on the main Concourse Level.

In addition to being a first-class facility for K-State student-athletes and fans, the West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium also serves as the north-west gateway to campus and a rallying point for the University's visionary "K-State 2025" plan. The structure makes a statement to the Big 12 Conference, the nation and prospective student-athletes that K-State is committed to competing at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics.

The Terrace Level features the Ahearn Fund Student-Athlete Performance Table to serve the daily dietary needs of all K-State student-athletes. The Tailgate Terrace is a great place to enjoy the unique tailgating atmosphere of a K-State gameday.

K-State Football is housed in an all-in-one facility known as the Vanier Football Complex, which was demolished and rebuilt prior to the 2015 season. The new facility - Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium Master Plan - is more than double the amount of space for student-athletes and coaches, providing access to world-class resources, equipment and facilities, and creating a more efficient experience to train, study and compete.

The new complex, attached to the stadium, will include expansive spaces, bold graphics and state-of-the-art equipment. A grand four-story atrium will leave a memorable first impression and be accessible from all levels.

CATS IN THE COMMUNITY

A HELPING HAND

A lot more goes into being a student-athlete at Kansas State than just working out and going to class.

K-State's Life Skills program focuses on encouraging student-athletes to become strong leaders and positive role models. K-State players are also encouraged to get involved in their community and annually participate in a number of service projects throughout the region.

The goal of these programs is not only to enhance the student-athlete experience but also to expand character and provide leadership opportunities. By getting involved, K-State players gain a strong sense of self-worth, while experiencing the personal satisfaction that comes from volunteering.

Two examples of these opportunities are Senior Kats and Junior Kats. Through the Senior Kats program, players visit the assisted living facilities in Manhattan, introduce themselves, and spend time with every resident in the facility and sign posters. In Junior Kats, players travel to various middle schools in the Manhattan area and speak to kids about staying in school, the importance of remaining drug free, as well as talking about working together as a team.

A WINNING TEAM

Since 2006, K-State Football has partnered with units at nearby Fort Riley, located just 20 minutes away from Bill Snyder Family Stadium. Beginning in March, K-State is now partnered with the 1-16 Infantry Division of the U.S. Army, known as the Iron Rangers.

From 2006-14, K-State was partnered with the 1-28 Black Lions. The team has made several trips to Fort Riley, including a pair of trips last summer when they went through an exercise at the firing range and another to go through Physical Training (PT).

Many Fort Riley soldiers travel to Manhattan each year for the annual Fort Riley Day game during the season. In 2015, the contest against Baylor on November 5 will serve as Fort Riley Day.

CLASSIC COLLEGE TOWN

WELCOME TO THE LITTLE APPLE

When it comes to classic college towns, the Little Apple ranks among the best. Although considerably smaller than its New York namesake, Manhattan has blossomed into a diversified city with urban amenities while retaining its small-town appeal.

CNNMoney.com rates the area as one of the 10 best places in America to retire young. Men's Journal selected Manhattan as one of the 50 best places to live in America, while Manhattan also checked in at No. 74 in Sporting News' annual Best Sports Cities rankings. American Airlines now offers daily round-trip flights between Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, Chicago O'Hare International Airport and Manhattan Regional Airport, so flights out of an to Manhattan now connect to anywhere in the world.

Manhattan also has many appealing places to shop, eat and socialize. An award-winning shopping mall is located in the heart of the downtown region, and Aggieville continues to be particularly popular with students. Around the holidays, Manhattan bustles with activity as approximately 15,000 revelers each year take to the streets of Aggieville to celebrate the Little Apple at the annual New Year's Eve ball drop.

In addition, Manhattan ranks at or near the top nationally in nearly every measure of economic growth:

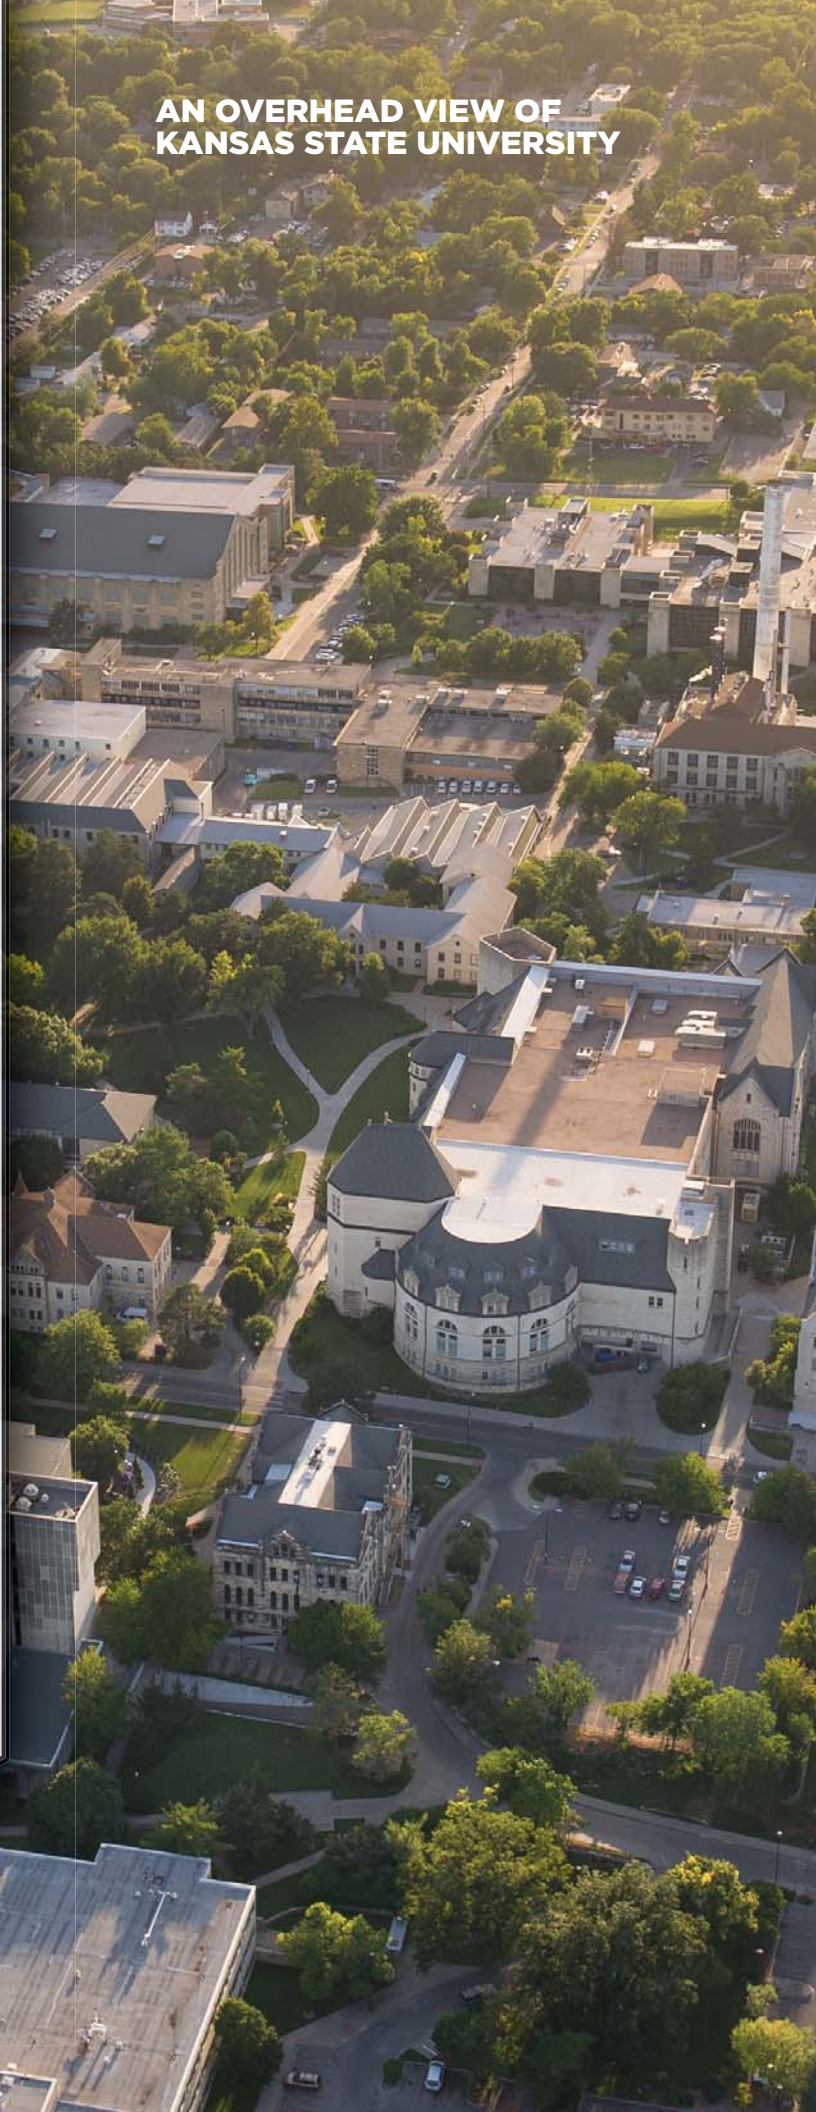

- Top 10 Per Capita Income Growth
- Least Economically Stressed County in US
- #2 US Metro in Economic Growth Potential
- Top 1% in US Fastest Personal Income Growth
- Top 5% Nationally in Job Growth

RECHARGE AND RELOAD

With key contributors from last year lost but many suitable options waiting in the wings, the "re" word of choice for the 2015 Wildcats is not "rebuild."

The loss of sheer numbers was not significant... the loss of impact was.

Kansas State rode one of the most prolific aerial attacks in school history to a nine-win season, top-20 ranking for the third time in the last four years and fifth-consecutive bowl game.

In search of its second conference title in a three-year span, K-State started the 2014 season 7-1, which included a perfect 5-0 mark in Big 12 play and a narrow six-point loss to No. 4 Auburn. But losses on the road to eventual Big 12 co-Champions TCU and Baylor dropped K-State to third place, its third top-three finish since the conference went to a full round-robin in 2011.

Trying to replace a record-setting quarterback and two 1,000-yard wide receivers might be difficult. But the beauty of K-State's philosophy is that it adapts to its personnel, which this year will be a stout offensive line with a pair of All-Big 12 performers and nearly the entire defense remaining intact, featuring three returning starters in the secondary and nine defenders overall that made at least two starts.

What's returning, not what was lost, has put the Cats in high spirits entering the 2015 season.

In all, K-State brings back 44 letterwinners, including 16 starters - seven of whom earned All-Big 12 honors last season - and a Hall of Fame head coach in Bill Snyder, giving many in Manhattan belief there is no such thing as rebuilding.

 • One of the top wide receivers and all-purpose players in school history who is K-State's first four-year All-American... Set 17 school records, including career marks for receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns... Drafted in third round of 2015 NFL Draft by Seattle.

RB DeMarcus Robinson 2L 5-7, 209
 • A 12-game starter in 2014... Finished third on the team with 437 rushing yards and five touchdowns, including a career-best 66 yards in a win at Oklahoma.

WR Curry Sexton 4L 5-11, 183
 • A role player his first three years before breaking out as a senior... Finished career ranked seventh in catches and 100-yard games, while he is 13th in receiving yards.

TE Zach Trujillo 4L 6-5, 256
 • An athletic, yet physical player who was the primary tight end over the final two years of his career... Played in 50 career games and made 11 starts.

QB Jake Waters 2L 6-10, 210
 • Started every game in 2013 and 2014, compiling a 17-9 record... Broke the school's career records for completion percentage, passing efficiency and total offensive yards per game, while setting single-season passing yardage and total offense records.

OFFENSE

With the loss of dynamic playmakers in quarterback Jake Waters and wide receivers Tyler Lockett and Curry Sexton, it appears from the outside that the offense will need a complete overhaul. However, if there's one position to have experience returning and build an offense around, it's the offensive line; and that's exactly what the Wildcats have going for them to start 2015 as four of the five starters from last year return, as well as its primary fullback from the last two seasons.

A three-headed race for the starting quarterback job turned to four in June with the signing of a community-college player, while players with limited experience at receiver return to try to pick up where two 1,000-yard receivers left off.

An inexperienced position last year, two running backs return for 2015, while many others will push the returners as K-State looks to get back to a solid ground game this season.

QUARTERBACK

K-State will be in search of a new quarterback for the first time in two seasons due to the departure of two-year starter Jake Waters, an All-Big 12 performer as a senior in 2014. Three quarterbacks — Joe Hubener, Jesse Ertz and Alex Delton — fought throughout spring practices for the starting honor with no clear-cut winner determined. Needing to give the competition a boost, a community-college prospect, Jonathan Banks, signed with K-State in early June and will seriously challenge the trio for the spot this fall.

Hubener was the primary backup last season as he played in seven games, throwing for 235 yards and one touchdown, while he rushed 27 times for 142 yards. A high school wide receiver, he came to K-State originally as a walk-on but was awarded a scholarship last season. Ertz saw time in four games, rushing seven times for 46 yards, but he did not attempt a pass. He was the Red Raider Award winner in 2013 as the top contributor on the squad team.

Delton, an in-state product, graduated high school a semester early and enrolled at K-State in January, while Banks was his conference's offensive player of the year after accounting for 2,692 offensive yards and 28 touchdowns in just 10 games as a freshman at Contra Costa College.

A Look at the Quarterbacks:

Joe Hubener (6-5, 211, Jr.-1L)
 Jesse Ertz (6-3, 205, So.-1L)
 Alex Delton (6-0, 201, Fr.-HS)
 Jonathan Banks (6-2, 205, So.-TR)

RUNNING BACKS/FULLBACKS

Although 12-game starter DeMarcus Robinson graduated, the cupboard is not bare at running back as K-State returns its leading rusher in Charles Jones. Jones totaled 540 yards and 13 touchdowns in 2014, finishing third in the Big 12 and 26th nationally in rushing scores. Another junior, Jarvis Leverett, Jr., could be poised for a breakout season after seeing time in four games last season.

The pair of juniors will be pushed by a trio of freshmen, two redshirt and one true. The redshirt freshmen both impressed during practices in 2014, including Dalvin Warmack, who won the team's Red Raider Award last year as the top contributor on scout team. Warmack was one of the top prep running backs in the nation in 2013 at Blue Springs (Mo.) High School after rushing for 2,223 yards and 45 touchdowns. Justin Silmon, a product of Tulsa, Oklahoma, walked on prior to last season after seeing a heralded prep career cut short due to injury.

True freshman Alex Barnes, an in-state product from Pittsburg, graduated high school early and joined the team for spring practices just months after breaking his league's single-season (2,361 yards, 38 touchdowns) and career (4,835 yards, 83 touchdowns) records.

Two-time All-Big 12 fullback Glenn Gronkowski returns to continue to pave the way for the running backs and serve as a formidable threat as a receiver. The junior has hauled in 10 career passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns. K-State may be able to utilize Gronkowski's receiving talents even more with Winston Dimel looking to gain playing time as a blocking back after redshirting the 2014 season.

A Look at the Running Backs/Fullbacks:

Charles Jones (5-10, 206, Jr.-1)
 Jarvis Leverett, Jr. (5-11, 211, Jr.-1L)
 Justin Silmon (5-10, 191, Fr.-RS)
 Dalvin Warmack (5-8, 187, Fr.-RS)
 Alex Barnes (6-1, 226, Fr.-HS)
 Glenn Gronkowski [FB] (6-3, 234, Jr.-2L)
 Winston Dimel [FB] (6-1, 235, Fr.-RS)

WIDE RECEIVERS/TIGHT ENDS

The position group that took the biggest hit from graduating seniors was wide receiver with the loss of two All-Big 12 performers in Tyler Lockett and Curry Sexton, the former being an All-American. The duo each topped the 1,000-yard barrier as they accounted for 69-percent of the receiving yards in 2014.

The Wildcats are not void of players to try to fill those roles, beginning with seniors Kody Cook, Andre Davis and Kyle Klein, along with junior Deante Burton. Cook, a former community-college walk-on, is the top returner with 251 yards and a touchdown on 20 receptions, while Burton hauled in 17 receptions for 171 yards. Davis saw limited playing time as a former community-college transfer, while Klein is looking to bounce back this year after an injury cost him his junior season of 2014. In 2013, Klein came away with five receptions for 59 yards, over half of which came in one game.

Others looking to make an impact at receiver are a pair of special teams standouts — senior Stanton Weber and junior Colin Sexton — along with junior Steven West, redshirt freshman Dominique Heath and true freshman Zach Reuter. Reuter, a product of Columbia, Missouri, originally signed with K-State in 2014 but deferred his enrollment to January.

The Wildcats also lost their regular tight end from the last two seasons in Zach Trujillo, but sophomore Cody Small saw action a year ago and Dayton Valentine is a solid balance of athleticism and physicality to be a viable option.

A Look at the Wide Receivers/Tight Ends:

Kody Cook (6-1, 200, Sr.-1L)
 Andre Davis (6-0, 203, Sr.-1L)
 Kyle Klein (6-4, 210, Sr.-2L)
 Stanton Weber (6-1, 194, Sr.-3L)
 Deante Burton (6-2, 205, Jr.-2L)
 Colin Sexton (5-11, 184, Jr.-1L)
 Steven West (6-1, 200, Jr.-1L)
 Dominique Heath (5-9, 175, Fr.-RS)
 Zach Reuter (6-3, 190, Fr.-HS)
 Cody Small [TE] (6-5, 241, So.-1L)
 Dayton Valentine [TE] (6-4, 262, Fr.-RS)

OFFENSIVE LINE

One area on the 2015 Wildcats that is not void of experience is the offensive line as the group returns 51 of a possible 65 total starts. Three 13-game starters — left tackle Cody Whitehair, left guard Boston Stiverson and right tackle Matt Kleinsorge — are back, while 12-game starter Luke Hayes returns at right guard.

Whitehair is a three-time All-Big 12 performer and was on the watch list for the 2014 Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award. A product of Abilene, Kansas, Whitehair is a 2015 Preseason All-America pick, while Lindy's named him the eighth-best offensive tackle in the nation entering 2015.

Stiverson picked up honorable mention accolades last year and 2015 Preseason All-Big 12 honors after appearing to be fully healed from an injury in the Alamo Bowl.

The Wildcats must replace All-American center B.J. Finney, but they have multiple options beginning with senior Reed Bergstrom, the primary back in 2014, and a pair of underclassmen in sophomore Reid Najvar and redshirt freshman Dalton Risner.

Junior Will Ash will continue to earn playing time at both guard and on special teams, while both Risner and Najvar will also add depth to the guard position. Providing depth and battling for playing time at tackle are senior Aaron Bennett, junior A.J. Allen, sophomore Ajahne Brager and redshirt freshmen Bryce Fitzner and Alec Ruth.

Others in Camp:

Cody Whitehair (6-4, 305, Sr.-3L)
 Boston Stiverson (6-4, 316, Sr.-3L)
 Matt Kleinsorge (6-5, 310, Sr.-3L)
 Luke Hayes (6-6, 295, Sr.-1L)
 Will Ash (6-3, 325, Jr.-2L)
 Reed Bergstrom (6-2, 305, Sr.-1L)
 Reid Najvar (6-4, 290, So.-SQ)
 Dalton Risner (6-5, 300, Fr.-RS)
 Aaron Bennett (6-7, 290, Sr.-1L)
 A.J. Allen (6-6, 300, Jr.-RS)
 Ajahne Brager (6-3, 303, So.-1L)
 Bryce Fitzner (6-7, 292, Fr.-RS)
 Alec Ruth (6-7, 300, Fr.-RS)

DEFENSE

The Wildcats are hopeful to have one of their better defenses in some time thanks to six returning regular starters and three others that made at least two starts in 2014.

Of the six returning starters, three reside in the secondary, including two with All-Big 12 honors a year ago. A group of young, talented players will vie for the starting spot alongside Dante Barnett at safety, while others will fill the void left by All-Big 12 nickelback Randall Evans.

Two experienced linebackers, including one with starts in 2014, are back, but the Cats must replace 2014 leading tackler Jonathan Truman. In addition to the two experienced linebackers, a host of others — including multiple underclassmen — will compete for playing time at the second level.

Half of the defensive line starters return in addition to another rising underclassman, but Kansas State will look for a replacement for 2013 All-American and two-time First Team All-Big 12 performer Ryan Mueller.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The anchor of the defensive line and one of the three returning starters is senior tackle Travis Britz, a two-time All-Big 12 performer. The Harrisonville, Missouri, product has 23 starts over the past two seasons, including last year when he had 27 tackles and the first three sacks of his career. A five-game starter last year, Will Geary, returns for his sophomore season as the former walk-on totaled 30 tackles — the most among all K-State defensive tackles — to go along with a pair of sacks. Junior Demonte Hood will challenge for the starting nod after seeing time in seven games in 2014, while sophomore Matt Seiwert will look to have a breakout year. Another name thrown into the mix after signing in May is community-college transfer Craig Settles, Jr.

At defensive end, 13-game starter Jordan Willis, is back on one side a year after recording 6.5 tackles for loss and four sacks. Senior Marquel Bryant will look to make an impact after playing in 25 games over the last two years, including two starts in 2013. Bryant will look to continue the momentum he showed at the end of last year as he had four tackles for loss and three sacks over the final four games. Sophomore Tanner Wood, who played mainly on special teams in every game last year, and true freshman Joshua Little — who graduated high school early and participated in spring practices — will also battle for time in the playing rotation.

A Look at the Defensive Line:

Travis Britz [DT] (6-4, 293, Sr.-3L)
 Will Geary [DT] (6-0, 297, So.-1L)
 Demonte Hood [DT] (6-0, 310, Jr.-2L)
 Matt Seiwert [DT] (6-3, 285, So.-SQ)
 Craig Settles, Jr. [DT] (6-5, 310, Jr.-TR)
 Jordan Willis [DE] (6-5, 250, Jr.-2L)
 Marquel Bryant [DE] (6-3, 254, Sr.-3L)
 Tanner Wood [DE] (6-5, 263, So.-1L)
 Joshua Little [DE] (6-4, 233, Fr.-HS)

LINEBACKERS

Despite the loss of an All-Big 12 performer and leading tackler in Truman, the Wildcats return experience at linebacker beginning with junior Will Davis, who made six starts in 2014, including the TCU game when he made a career-high eight tackles. The Wildcats also bring back Charmeachealle Moore, who played in the opener but missed the rest of the year due to injury. Moore played in every game in 2013, totaling seven tackles and two sacks.

Special teams stalwart Colborn Couchman, who has a team-best 19 career special teams tackles, will look to contribute more on defense, while a pair of sophomores, Elijah Lee and Trent Tanking, will attempt to take a step forward in their second seasons on the field. Lee was a true freshman last year who performed well enough to earn 2015 Preseason All-Big 12 honors from Athlon and Phil Steele. Lee played primarily at rush end on third downs and came away with 4.5 sacks, the most by a true freshman in school history. Tanking excelled on special teams but also shined in late-game duty when he had two tackles for loss against Oklahoma State.

The final of three late community-college signees was a linebacker in Jayd Kirby, who comes to K-State after one season at Navarro College in which he had 70 tackles and 10 sacks.

Others in the mix for playing time will be red-shirt freshman Sam Sizelove and true freshman Justin Hughes, who originally signed in 2014 but deferred his enrollment to this January.

A Look at the Linebackers:

Will Davis (6-0, 224, Jr.-2L)
 Charmeachealle Moore (6-0, 221, Jr.-2L)
 Colborn Couchman (6-2, 218, Jr.-2L)
 Elijah Lee (6-3, 218, So.-1L)
 Trent Tanking (6-2, 220, So.-1L)
 Jayd Kirby (6-2, 220, So.-TR)
 Sam Sizelove (6-3, 217, Fr.-RS)
 Justin Hughes (6-1, 210, Fr.-HS)

SECONDARY

The back end of the defense will be led by Barnett, a career 28-game starter, as well as full-time starters at cornerback in Danzel McDaniel and Morgan Burns. Barnett and McDaniel were both Second Team All-Big 12 performers in 2014 and have earned Preseason All-Big 12 honors this year. Barnett has a team-best 176 career tackles, including totals of 75 and 77 the last two seasons, while he had 11 passes defended in 2014. McDaniel was one of the hardest-hitting defensive backs in the nation last year as he came away with 59 tackles on the year and a pick-six at Oklahoma.

Burns picked off three passes last season and had 55 tackles last season.

A new nickelback must be found with the departure of three-year starter Randall Evans, but senior Nate Jackson and junior Donnie Starks may fill that hole. Jackson could also fill the other safety spot with sophomores Sean Newlan and Kaleb Prewett also competing for that spot. Both players made significant contributions on special teams in 2014.

Junior Jesse Mack and sophomore Cre Moore played sparingly in 2014 but will look to take a step forward, while redshirt freshmen Kendall Adams and Colby Moore will try to contribute on both defense and special teams.

A Look at the Defensive Backs:

Dante Barnett (6-1, 193, Sr.-3L)
 Danzel McDaniel (6-1, 205, Sr.-1L)
 Morgan Burns (5-11, 201, Sr.-3L)
 Nate Jackson (5-11, 185, Sr.-1L)
 Donnie Starks (6-0, 180, Jr.-1L)
 Sean Newlan (6-2, 204, So.-1L)
 Kaleb Prewett (6-1, 204, So.-1L)
 Jesse Mack (6-0, 180, Jr.-SQ)
 Cre Moore (6-0, 175, So.-1L)
 Kendall Adams (6-1, 213, Fr.-RS)
 Colby Moore (6-1, 197, Fr.-RS)

SPECIALISTS

The Wildcats special teams should be in good hands over the next few years as place kicker Matthew McCrane and punter Nick Walsh return for their sophomore seasons. Neither started last season atop the depth chart but both were called on early in the year and ran away with the jobs.

McCrane made 18-of-19 field goals on the year and led the nation with a 94.7 field goal percentage en route to Honorable Mention All-America honors, while he earned 2015 Preseason All-Big 12 honors from Athlon and Phil Steele. His starting job won't come easy, as Jack Cantele will look to retain his spot from two years ago. Kickoff duties will likely go to junior Ian Patterson, who has 129 career kickoffs.

Walsh appeared in the second game of the season and took a hold of the primary punter spot by averaging 41.3 yards per punt with nine traveling at least 50 yards and 15 landing inside the 20-yard line. He will be challenged again by another sophomore, Mitch Lochbihler.

Senior Dalton Converse and sophomore Drew Scott will continue to battle for long snapper duties in 2015, a year after both snapped throughout the year.

In the return game, Morgan Burns returns for his senior year after averaging 30.7 yards on kickoff returns last year. Redshirt freshman Dominique Heath made such an impact in the 2015 spring game with 374 return yards that some publications named him to their Preseason All-Big 12 teams despite not yet playing in a regular-season game.

A Look at the Specialists:

Matthew McCrane (PK) (5-10, 165, So.-1L)
 Jack Cantele (PK) (6-0, 175, Sr.-2L)
 Ian Patterson (PK) (6-0, 211, Jr.-2L)
 Nick Walsh (PJ) (5-11, 212, So.-1L)
 Mitch Lochbihler (P) (6-7, 240, So.-SQ)
 Dalton Converse (LS) (5-11, 215, Sr.-2L)
 Drew Scott (LS) (6-2, 212, So.-SQ)

SCHEDULE

The 2015 schedule is highlighted by seven games in front of one of the best home crowds in the nation. In fact, the Wildcats are on pace for 27-straight sellouts after the 2015 season, while K-State has ranked second in the nation in percentage of capacity filled each of the last two years.

A rare road game highlights the non-conference schedule as K-State heads back to the Alamodome — the site of the 2015 Alamo Bowl — to take on UTSA a week after hosting South Dakota in the season opener.

Following a game against Louisiana Tech and a bye, K-State enters a tough five-game stretch against some of the favorites in the 2015 Big 12 race, featuring home games against TCU (Oct. 10), Oklahoma (Oct. 17) and a Thursday-night game against Baylor (Nov. 5).

The Wildcats trade off home games during the final four contests of the season, but three are in the Sunflower State as K-State hosts Iowa State (Nov. 21) and West Virginia (Dec. 5), while it travels to Texas Tech (Nov. 14) and Kansas (Nov. 28).

HEAD COACH

BILL SNYDER*24TH YEAR16 BOWL GAMES
TWO BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIPS

College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2015

Five-Time National Coach of the Year

Precise. Intense. Tireless. Accomplished. Dedicated. Caring. Hall of Famer. Kansas State head coach Bill Snyder is all of these and much more.

To understand the full picture of Snyder, it is necessary to acknowledge his values, sincerity and warmth, along with the concern he shows for the people around him — all qualities that solidify his reputation as an innovator and mentor in college athletics.

The architect of the “greatest turnaround in college football history” returned to the sidelines in 2009 with hopes of revitalizing a program that he once built, piece by piece, into a national force. And, after six seasons back in charge, he has done just that — and then some.

Over the past six years under Snyder, K-State has totaled 51 victories — an average of 8.5 wins per year — advanced to five-straight bowl games, won a conference championship in 2012 and finished third or better in the ultra-competitive Big 12 Conference in three of the last four seasons. Additionally, the Wildcats have more Big 12 wins since 2011 — 27 — than any other team in the conference.

However, the recent success should come as no surprise as Snyder took over a program in 1989 that was in the midst of a 27-game winless streak and turned it into a national contender that advanced to 11-straight bowl games and tallied six 11-win seasons over a seven-year stretch.

Turning around a program not only once, but twice, is one of the biggest reasons why Snyder became just the fourth person all-time to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach. The man who said, “No,” to those who said it couldn’t be done in Manhattan, Kansas, will be enshrined in the hall in December 2015.

The latest chapter in the career of the legendary coach was in 2014, Snyder’s 23rd year at the helm of the program, which saw the Wildcats collect their 13th season with nine or more wins and top-20 finish in the Associated Press poll. The Cats reached the top 10 during the season with a 7-1 start as K-State’s lone early-season loss come at the hands of No. 5 Auburn. Led by Consensus All-American wide receiver Tyler Lockett, who became the school’s first four-time All-American and school record holder for career catches, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns, the Cats played for a Big 12 Championship in the final weekend of the regular season.

A total of 14 players earned All-Big 12 honors in 2014 while Lockett was named Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season and four-year starter B.J. Finney was Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. Finney joined Lockett by earning All-America honors at center, while redshirt freshman place kicker Matthew McCrane was an honorable mention All-American.

Act Two of the renowned career started in 2009 when the Wildcats went 6-6 prior to a 7-5 campaign in 2010 and a berth in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl.

K-State’s climb back into the nation picture continued in 2011 as the Cats went 10-3, finished No. 8 in the BCS standings and earned their first Cotton Bowl invitation since 2001.

The bar was raised again in 2012 as Snyder led the Cats to their third conference championship in school history and first since 2003. Kansas State, which won its first 10 games of the season and finished the regular season at 11-1 with an 8-1 mark in Big 12 play, tied the school record for overall wins and conference victories while also ascending to No. 1 in the BCS rankings following its 10-0 start. Snyder went on to win the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award as well as top Big 12 coach honors for the second straight season following the Cats’ memorable 2012 season that culminated with a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Quarterback Collin Klein became just the second player in school history to be named a Heisman Trophy finalist, while a school-record 20 Wildcats earned 2012 All-Big 12 honors including Klein (Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year), Arthur Brown (Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year) and Meshak Williams (Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year).

In 2013, K-State opened the year 2-4 with all four defeats being by 10 points or less. But Snyder’s charges continued to improve each week and went on to become just the fourth team in Big 12 history to bounce back from the slow start to become bowl-eligible. And, with a victory over Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, the 2013 Wildcats became just the eighth FBS team in the BCS era to earn eight wins after starting a season 2-4 or worse.

In 2011, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 7-0 start — the best in 12 years — which included big wins at Miami, against 15th-ranked Baylor and at Texas Tech. Following a two-game skid to a pair of nationally-ranked teams, the Wildcats got back into the win column with a thrilling four-overtime victory over Texas A&M — the longest conference game in Big 12 history — before ending the year with wins at Texas and against Iowa State.

For his efforts in 2011, Snyder was named the Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year, as well as picking up national coaching honors from Sporting News, Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, and the Big 12 Coach of the Year by the AP and league's coaches. He also tutored 11 players to All-Big 12 honors, including the Defensive Newcomer of the Year in Brown and the Offensive Freshman of the Year in Lockett, who, along with Nigel Malone, was named a Walter Camp All-American.

In 2010, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 5-1 start, which included big wins over UCLA, Conference USA Champion UCF and Iowa State, behind All-Big 12 running back Daniel Thomas, who became the fastest Wildcat in school history (in terms of games) to rush for 1,000 yards.

In his first season back as the head man of the Wildcat program, Snyder led the Wildcats to a 6-6 record in 2009 and a second-place finish in the Big 12 North. In fact, K-State was just one win away from advancing to the Big 12 Championship game as the Wildcats played at Nebraska in the regular-season finale with a championship game berth on the line.

K-State claimed more First Team All-Big 12 selections on offense than any other school with four. Thomas, the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, led the league in rushing, while Nick Stringer, Jeron Mastrud and Brandon Banks also garnered First Team All-Big 12 accolades.

Named the 32nd head football coach at K-State on Nov. 30, 1988, and again as the 34th on Nov. 24, 2008, Snyder has amassed a 187-94-1 (.665) record during his tenure with the Wildcats, including a 109-71-1 (.605) mark in Big 8/12 games. His 187 victories are more than four times the man in second place on K-State's all-time coaching victories list and rank 32nd in FBS history. But to fully understand the turnaround ushered in by Snyder at Kansas State one must only consider that the Wildcats had not won a game in the two previous seasons prior to his arrival. It also took K-State 51 seasons (1938-1988) to total just 130 wins, while the 12 head coaches prior to Snyder's arrival in Manhattan combined to win just 116 games from 1945-1988.

Snyder led Kansas State to 11-straight bowl berths between the 1993 and 2003 seasons, making K-State one of only seven programs in the nation to appear in the postseason every year during that stretch. During that span, Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories — a staggering average of nearly 10 wins per season — and making Kansas State the nation's second-winningest program over that period.

And Snyder continued to break new ground with the Wildcats. Kansas State's 35-7 victory over top-ranked Oklahoma in the 2003 Big 12 Championship game lifted K-State to its first conference championship since Pappy Waldorf's 1934 squad and secured the school's first BCS bowl berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

With an 11-4 record in 2003, K-State was the only team in the country to win 11 games in six of the previous seven years and just the second program in the history of college football to win 11 games six times in a seven-year stretch.

Snyder's unprecedented success in 23 years at Kansas State has not gone unnoticed. He has been named the National Coach of the Year on five occasions (1991, 1994, 1998, 2011 and 2012). He has been a finalist for the prestigious Bear Bryant/FWAA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993, 1995, 2011 and 2012, while winning the award in 1998; a finalist for the Football News National Coach of the Year Award in 1995 and 1998; and a finalist for the AFCA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993 and 1998.

In 1993, he joined legendary Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney as the only head coaches in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year three times in a four-year period (1990, 1991 and 1993).

Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference, Snyder's Wildcats truly have been a dominant force in the league, ranking in the top three in overall Big 12 wins. Kansas State also won more Big 12 road games than any team in the league during Snyder's first tenure and advanced to the championship game three times.

Those facts alone demonstrate the continuing evolution of a power in the Big 12 and with it the recognition that Snyder is truly one of the finest coaches ever in college football.

The list of accomplishments Snyder has amassed in his 23 years is as endless as the time most people thought it would take for the Wildcats to be a consistent threat in the Big Eight, and now, Big 12 Conference.

Like so many in recent history, the 2003 campaign was a dramatically successful one for K-State, which ended the regular season with seven straight wins, a fourth Big 12 North title, its first Big 12 Championship and another top-20 finish.

But the 2003 season was not without its bumps in the road as the Wildcats overcame their share of adversity to produce perhaps the greatest season in school history. Ranked as high as No. 6 nationally in the early going, a key injury to quarterback Ell Roberson precipitated a three-game slide that threatened to wipe out a promising season.

The three losses all but erased K-State from the national consciousness, as the Wildcats slipped out of the both polls for the first time since the second game of the 2002 season. But Snyder was not about to allow the year to spiral out of control. He constantly reminded his players that they still controlled their own destiny, and if they could just go 1-0 each week, the season would take care of itself and the team would ultimately achieve its goals.

And like everything Snyder seems to touch, this strategy too worked, as the Wildcats rode their 1-0 mantra week after week all the way to a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Along the way, five different Wildcats were lauded for their efforts with All-America honors, including K-State's first Associated Press first team All-American running back, Darren Sproles, who finished fifth in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the Doak Walker Award runner-up and finished third on the AP's Player of the Year ballot.

But Sproles was the lone player with star power that returned for 2004. And though the little tank produced yet another record-breaking season capped by his third straight All-Big 12 selection, the lack of experience was one reason K-State struggled through a 4-7 rebuilding campaign.

The 2002 season was one of the best in Kansas State history, witnessed by the Wildcats' five-victory turnaround from the previous year's 6-6 team to a win in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl and an 11-2 overall record.

In addition, the 2002 Wildcats set or tied 45 school records, including tying the mark for wins in a season.

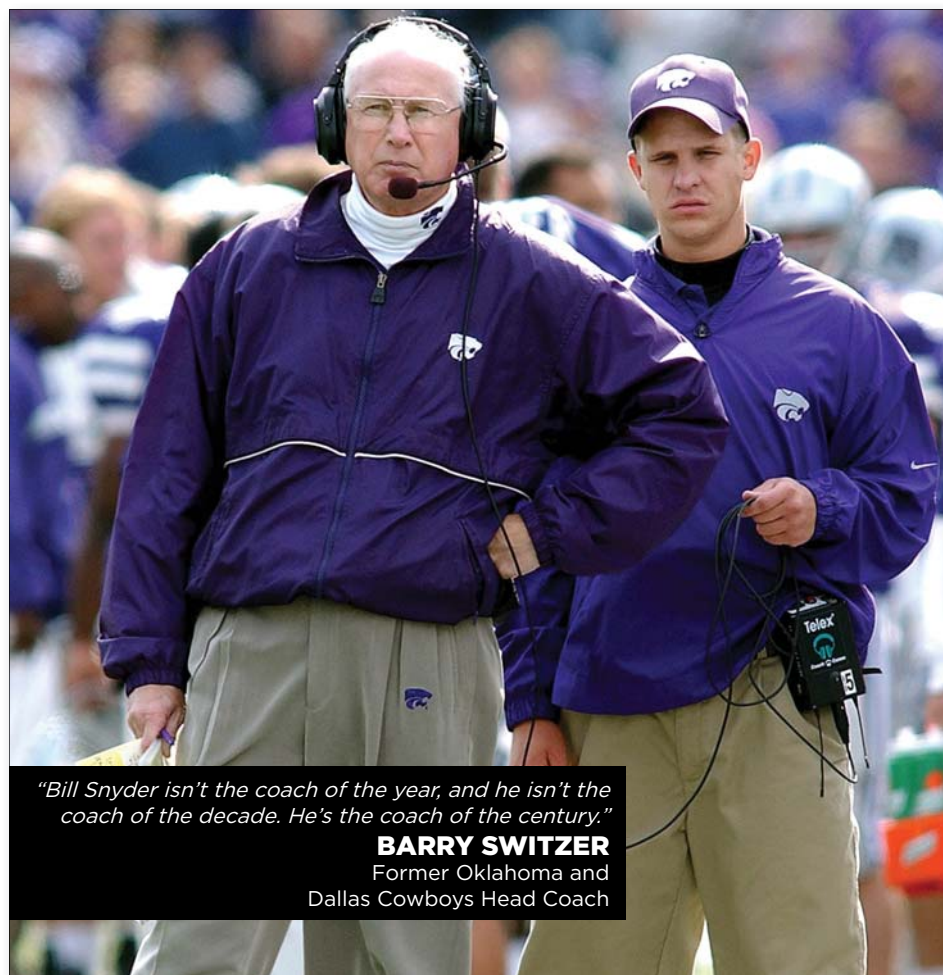

Snyder's Wildcats finished the season with six consecutive victories, including the biggest wins in the history of the series in each of a three-week span against Kansas, Iowa State and Nebraska.

The Wildcats' dominant play down the stretch of the 2002 season earned Snyder the recognition of his peers as the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

In 2001, Snyder directed one of the best in-season turnarounds in school history. Despite losing four straight in the middle of the year and facing the fourth-toughest schedule in the nation, the Wildcats recovered to win four of their last five games to end the regular season with a 6-5 record and a berth in the Insight.com Bowl.

Despite the record, the quality of players produced by the Snyder-led coaching staff continued to attract national attention from those who best know the game.

Six K-State players were selected in the 2002 NFL Draft, the most of any team in the Big 12 Conference, with only six schools in the country having more players picked in the draft. Thanks to that draft, and many others before and after it, the Wildcats currently lead the Big 12 Conference by having a player selected in the NFL Draft each of the last 21 seasons.

"Bill Snyder isn't the coach of the year, and he isn't the coach of the decade. He's the coach of the century."

The Wildcats started the 2000 season ranked in the top 10 for just the second time in school history and made a four-week run into the top five that saw K-State climb as high as No. 2. K-State won the Big 12 North Division for the second time in three years and earned at least a share of the title for the third consecutive season. K-State had six players named First Team All-Big 12 by the coaches, and Jamie Rheem, Mario Fatafehi and Quincy Morgan were All-Americans.

The 1999 season saw the Wildcats climb from No. 20 in the preseason poll to finish at No. 6 after starting the season with nine straight victories, and win 11 games for the third straight year. K-State tied Nebraska for the Wildcats' second consecutive Big 12 North Division Championship. All this came in what many thought would be a rebuilding season. K-State led the conference in first-team picks with seven.

In 1998, Snyder led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final polls. In November, K-State occupied a No. 1 ranking in a national poll for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won the Big 12 North and advanced to a bowl game for the sixth year in a row. K-State won its first 11 games of the season and ran its winning streak to a school-record 20 games before falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first Wildcat to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, and a total of six players earned All-America honors.

Snyder earned National Coach of the Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation, the Associated Press, the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Schutt Sports Group.

In 1997, Snyder led the Wildcats to their first 11-win season in school history, a No. 7 final ranking and the first 10-win regular season since 1910. It was just the third 10-win season in 102 years of K-State football. Kansas State won a school-record seven conference games, finishing second in the North to undefeated and eventual national champion Nebraska.

The Wildcats defeated South Division champion Texas A&M, 36-17. The season ended with a 35-18 win over Big East Conference champion Syracuse in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, with an estimated 50,000 K-State fans attending K-State's first-ever Alliance Bowl.

The 1996 season saw K-State finish with a 9-3 record, while more than 45,000 Wildcat fans painted Dallas purple for the Cotton Bowl, K-State's first-ever New Year's Day Bowl. Despite a 19-15 loss to No. 5 BYU, the support and respect for the K-State program grew to unprecedented heights.

In 1995, Snyder guided K-State to a 10-2 record, including a 5-2 Big Eight mark to tie for second behind national champion Nebraska. Following a 54-21 blitzing of WAC champion Colorado State in the Holiday Bowl, the Wildcats finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/CNN coaches' poll and seventh in the AP poll. Both rankings were the highest ever attained by a Kansas State football team to that point.

In 1993, Snyder guided K-State to its first bowl win in school history and, in 1994, the Wildcats cracked the top 10 for the first time in school history. In 1998, the K-State achieved a No. 1 national ranking in one of the major polls for the first time in the program's history.

Individually, Snyder has produced 54 different All-Americans during his 24 years as head coach, including eight consensus All-Americans: punter Sean Snyder (1992), free safety Jaime Mendez (1993), cornerback Chris Canty (1995 and 1996), place kicker Martin Gramatica (1997), punt returner David Allen (1998), linebacker Mark Simoneau (1999), cornerback Terence Newman (2002) and all-purpose player Tyler Lockett (2014).

Newman became the third Wildcat to win a national award when he was voted the 2002 Thorpe Award, given to the top collegiate defensive back. Gramatica was the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner, the first major award winner in Kansas State history. Bishop became the first K-State player to be named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy (finishing as runner-up) while winning the 1998 Davey O'Brien Award.

The foundation for K-State's turnaround was laid in 1989 during Snyder's first season in Manhattan. Although the season yielded just a 1-10 record, it became evident to everyone involved in the program that something special was happening. Most important, Snyder instilled a winning attitude and a healthy dose of self-respect and enthusiasm to a program that had been given up for dead.

In 1990, K-State was one of just four teams in the country to improve its record by four games with a 5-6 mark, including its first Big Eight Conference wins in four seasons with victories over Oklahoma State and Iowa State. Snyder again beat those two schools in 1991, while adding Kansas and Missouri to the list of his Big Eight victims to finish at 7-4 for K-State's first winning season since the Independence Bowl season of 1982. Heavy graduation losses on the offensive side of the ball resulted in a 5-6 mark in 1992, but the Cats were still able to hang their hats on their first perfect home season since 1934.

Of course, it should come as no surprise that Snyder would be this kind of architect for a building program. At Iowa, he played a key role in the renaissance of a Hawkeye program that went from 17 consecutive losing seasons to eight straight bowls. Snyder was the mind behind Iowa's potent offensive attack. The Hawkeye offense ranked first in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage nationally in Snyder's last five years of direction. In his final Iowa season, the Peach Bowl team led the Big Ten, and ranked seventh nationally, with 277 passing yards per game. Snyder also served as quarterback coach at Iowa and helped develop some of the best quarterbacks in NCAA history, including NFL players Chuck Long (second in Heisman voting), Mark Vlasic and Chuck Hartlieb, who wrapped up his career as the first Hawkeye to throw for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Snyder began his full-time coaching career in 1964 as an assistant at Indio High School in California. In 1966 he served as a GA at USC under John McKay before becoming head coach at Indio High in 1967. He accepted the same position at Santa Ana Foothill High School in 1969, where he stayed until 1973.

In 1974, Snyder became the offensive coordinator and swimming coach at Austin College in Sherman, Texas. He joined the North Texas staff in 1976 and helped author an impressive turnaround with a three-year record of 26-7.

During his three-year hiatus, Snyder remained involved with the university and is currently a member of several halls of fame that are listed below. The long-time mentor also involved in many organizations that are listed below.

Snyder was awarded the 2015 Excellence in Mentoring Award by MENTOR: The National Mentoring Partnership in recognition of his longstanding commitment to meeting the mentoring needs of young people in Kansas.

Snyder, 75, received his B.A. from William Jewell in 1963. He earned his M.A. from Eastern New Mexico in 1965. As a player, he was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at William Jewell. Snyder and his wife, Sharon, have two sons — Sean and Ross — and three daughters — Shannon, Meredith and Whitney. They also have eight grandchildren — Sydney, Katherine, Tate, Matthew, Alexis, Gavin, Kadin and Tylin — and one great-grandson, D.J.

Former All-American punter and long-time staff member Sean Snyder is in his fifth season as the Wildcats' Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator and Director of Football Operations.

The former Consensus All-American enters his 21st overall year as a member of the Kansas State staff as he continues his role as Director of Football Operations, a position he has held the past 19 years.

Due to the success of the Wildcat special teams over the past few years, Snyder has been named a finalist for FootballScoop's Special Teams Coordinator of the Year award each of the last three seasons.

The 2014 season was another banner year for the Wildcat special teams as the Snyder-led units ranked third nationally and tops in the Big 12 in punt-return average (18.0) and 16th in the country in kickoff-return defense (17.97). Individually, Tyler Lockett earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honors for a second-straight season as he led the nation with a 19.1-yard punt return average in addition to ranking third nationally in all-purpose yards (176.62 per game) and punt-return touchdowns (2). Lockett was also a Consensus All-American as an all-purpose player, earning numerous First Team All-America honors as a kick returner.

Thanks to Snyder's scheming in the return game, Lockett left K-State holding the school record for kickoff-return yards (2,196) and set the Big 12 record for career kickoff-return average (28.5).

In the kicking game, Matthew McCrane was an honorable mention All-American in addition to earning Freshman All-America honors after leading the nation with a 94.7-percent field goal conversion rate. Due in part to McCrane, Snyder's kickers broke the school record with 23 made field goals during the 2014 season. McCrane became the first freshman in school history to connect on two field goals of 50 yards or greater, while he shattered the K-State freshman record for points scored (95), nearly 40 more than former Lou Groza Award winner Martin Gramatica.

Snyder's kickoff-return unit also pushed the nation's longest kickoff-return touchdown streak to 10 years when Morgan Burns raced 86 yards for a score against Oklahoma State.

The 2014 season was a continuation of a three-year run of unprecedented success for K-State's specialty units. The 2012 Wildcats led the nation in kickoff-return average at 29.24 yards per return as they shattered both the school and Big 12 records. Additionally, the average was the best mark in NCAA history among teams with 35 or more returns in a season. K-State also ranked second in the NCAA with an 18.95 punt-return average, while its punt return defense average of two yards tied for fourth.

Individually, Lockett, who earned All-America honors, ranked third nationally in kickoff-return average at 32.76 yards per return. Tramaine Thompson claimed the top spot in punt-return average at 19.75, which ranked third in school and Big 12 history.

In 2013, Snyder's units ranked fifth nationally with five blocked kicks, including four from national leader Travis Britz. The punt-return unit averaged 12.5 yards per return to rank 17th in the nation, while the Wildcats ranked 26th nationally with a 23.4-yard average per kickoff return.

Snyder tutored Lockett to Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year accolades, while he was also named a First Team All-Big 12 kick returner. Thompson left Kansas State ranked fourth in school history in career punt-return yards (718) as he was named an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 performer as a kick returner in 2013.

In his first year as a full-time coach in 2011, K-State was among the nation's best in kickoff returns as Lockett, a true freshman, earned Walter Camp All-America honors after leading the nation with his 35.2-yard average. Punter Ryan Doerr was also a candidate for the Ray Guy Award, while place-kicker Anthony Cantele was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2012 and was an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 pick in 2011.

Snyder received his start as a part-time assistant coach with the Wildcats in 1994 and served in that capacity until 1996 when he began focusing his efforts on the administrative side of the program as the Director of Football Operations.

In 1999, Snyder was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations. He was named Associate Athletics Director in 2001 and Senior Associate Athletics Director in 2010.

A member of Kansas State's inaugural Ring of Honor Class in 2002, Snyder was one of the program's most prolific punters during his playing days at K-State from 1991-92. As a senior, Snyder earned First Team All-America honors from the Associated Press, Kodak and Athlon after averaging a school-record 44.7-yards per punt. In 1991 he was tabbed as the Big Eight Defensive Newcomer of the Year after averaging 40.5 yards in his junior season.

A First Team All-Big Eight selection in 1992 after earning honorable-mention honors in 1991, Snyder was selected to play in the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

Snyder, K-State's Special Teams MVP in 1991 and 1992, held the school record for career punting average (43.0) before having it broken by James Garcia in 1998, while his 3,572 punting yardage in 1992 still remains a school record.

Following his collegiate career, Snyder signed a free agent contract with the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993 and the San Diego Chargers in 1994.

Snyder earned his bachelor's degree from K-State in money and banking in 1994. Married to the former Wanda Boyett, the couple has three children, daughter Katherine, and sons Tate and Matthew, and one grandchild, D.J.

18TH YEAR

10 BOWL GAMES

2012 BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

Dana Dimel, a 1986 Kansas State graduate, serves as the co-offensive coordinator and running backs/tight ends coach for head coach Bill Snyder. Dimel began his third tour of duty with the Wildcats in 2009 after serving three seasons at Arizona.

Dimel has co-coordinated an offense that has been a major reason why the Wildcats have advanced to five-straight bowl games and recorded four-straight seasons with at least eight wins. In addition, the Wildcats have more Big 12 Conference wins — 27 — since 2011 than any other team in the league.

The latest chapter came in 2014 when Dimel helped direct an offense that led the nation in scoring efficiency (scoring drives/total drives), while the Wildcats lead the Big 12 with 5.14 points per red zone possession over the last three years. In 2014, K-State also ranked 11th nationally in team passing efficiency, 14th in red zone offense, 16th in passing offense and 24th in scoring offense. The Cats were also 25th in third-down conversions and 12th in fourth-down conversions. Thanks to the direction of Dimel, K-State broke the school record for total passing yards (3,736) and completion percentage (65.30) in 2014, while the Wildcats totaled 5,481 offensive yards to rank fourth and scored 465 total points to rank sixth.

Dimel's play calling helped wide receiver Tyler Lockett leave K-State with the school's career receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdown records, while quarterback Jake Waters broke the school marks for single-season passing yards (3,501) and total offensive yards (3,985).

The 2012 season perhaps was Dimel's best at K-State as he co-coordinated an offense that finished in the top 25 nationally in nearly 10 categories, including a ninth-place ranking in yards per attempt, 11th in scoring offense and 13th in yards per completion. K-State was led on the ground by running back and All-Big 12 selection John Hubert as the second-year starter finished fourth in the Big 12 at 72.8 yards per game and placed second in the league with 15 rushing touchdowns. Quarterback Collin Klein, a Heisman Trophy finalist, also placed in the top 10 as he finished sixth at 70.88 yards per game.

Dimel's units found success again in 2013 as the K-State offense ranked eighth nationally in yards per completion, 13th in passing efficiency, while the Wildcats ranked fifth and third in school history in those categories, respectively. One of the best offenses in the nation on third downs (No. 13) and inside the red zone (No. 27), K-State ranked in the top 10 in school history in yards per play (second), total yards (fifth), passing yards (fifth) and points (eighth).

Under Dimel's tutelage, Hubert broke through after 900-plus yard seasons in 2011 and 2012 as he produced the 14th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history in 2013. Hubert earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors, while he was also a candidate for the Doak Walker, Maxwell and Walter Camp Player of the Year awards. Dimel guided Hubert to the No. 2 spot on K-State's career rushing yardage list, while Hubert's main blocking back, Glenn Gronkowski, also garnered All-Big 12 accolades and repeated the feat again in 2014.

In 2011, Dimel led a rushing offense that saw Klein set a new Big 12 record and NCAA record by a quarterback with 27 rushing touchdowns while surpassing the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the season. K-State maintained one of the top rushing offenses in the Big 12 in 2011 en route to a 10-3 record and a berth in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

In 2010, the Wildcat offense ranked third in the Big 12 and among the top 25 nationally at 33.6 points per game. K-State was also ranked among the top 10 teams in the country in total red zone efficiency and No. 1 nationally in touchdown percentage in the red zone. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were the least penalized offense in the Big 12.

In 2009 and 2010, Dimel had the charge of grooming a former community-college quarterback and molding him into a physical running back in the always tough Big 12 Conference. That player was Daniel Thomas, and 2,850 yards and 30 touchdowns later, Thomas left Kansas State as a two-time Big 12 rushing champion, an All-American and one of the most decorated running backs in school history. Thomas ranks third in K-State history for career rushing yards, a feat he accomplished in just two seasons, fifth in rushing touchdowns and also second in single-season school history with 1,585 rushing yards in 2010. Thomas burst onto the scene in 2009 as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark five times in a game and finished the year with 1,265 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns en route to Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors.

Dimel came to K-State from Arizona, where he coached from 2006-08. The Wildcats' top scoring threat in 2008 was Rob Gronkowski, a tight end tutored by Dimel who was a unanimous First Team All-Pac-10 selection. The older brother of the current K-State fullback, Gronkowski was drafted by New England in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft and has become one of the top tight ends in the NFL, helping the Patriots win Super Bowl XLIX.

In 1997, Dimel became the youngest head coach in NCAA Division I when he took the reins at the University of Wyoming at the age of 34. Dimel spent three years at Wyoming, leading the Cowboys to eight-win seasons in both 1997 and 1998 before being named head coach at the University of Houston, where he guided the Cougars' football program from 2000-02.

A K-State alumnus who lettered for the Wildcats in 1985 and 1986 as an offensive lineman, Dimel spent 10 years on the K-State staff from 1987 to 1996. Kansas State's offensive line coach for much of his tenure, Dimel also served as offensive coordinator during the 1995 and 1996 campaigns. In 1995, his first at the controls of the Wildcat offense, Kansas State set school records for both touchdowns and total points as well as total offense. He mentored 11 offensive linemen who went on to sign NFL contracts, while he was also instrumental in developing All-Americans Barrett Brooks, Jim Hmielewski and Quentin Neujahr along with all-conference selections Jason Johnson, Todd Weiner and Ryan Young.

During his career as a head or assistant coach, Dimel has coached 34 players who have gone on to play in the NFL. A native of Columbus, Ohio, Dimel and his wife, Julie, have a son, Winston, and a daughter, Josey. Winston is a redshirt freshman fullback for the Wildcats.

Tom Hayes, a 32-year coaching veteran with previous coordinator experience at three BCS institutions, enters his fourth season as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator in 2015 and his fifth year overall at Kansas State. Hayes was instrumental in the Wildcats' resurgence on defense in 2011, while he directed a defense that helped the Wildcats produce a Big 12 Championship in 2012 and five-straight bowl berths.

A University of Iowa graduate with extensive Big Eight and Big 12 coaching ties, Hayes completed his 26th year of coaching experience at the collegiate level in 2014 and participated in his 17th career bowl game when the Wildcats earned a spot in the 2015 Alamo Bowl.

Focusing his positional work on defensive backs, Hayes has taught a distinct ballhawking mindset as the Wildcats have combined for 68 interceptions over the last four years, the second most of any Big 12 team during that time.

The ballhawking trend continued in 2014 as the Wildcats picked off 15 passes to rank 23rd nationally and second in the Big 12. Additionally, K-State extended its streak to four seasons with at least one interception-return touchdown when Danzel McDaniel returned a pick five yards for a score at Oklahoma.

The 2014 Wildcat defense also ranked second in the conference in scoring defense and third in both total and red zone defense. Hayes tutored hybrid defensive back Randall Evans to First Team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, McDaniel and safety Dante Barnett were named to the second team. In all, six Wildcat defenders pulled in All-Big 12 accolades.

The defense was a major reason for K-State's historic in-season turnaround in 2013 when the Wildcats went from 2-4 to an eight-win team. The defense surrendered only 20.1 points per game in the final seven contests, six of which were victories, and over that seven-game stretch, Hayes' unit intercepted 13 passes and totaled 17 on the year to rank 23rd nationally. The Wildcats were efficient with their interceptions as well as they set the school record for return yards (401) and ranked fifth in school history with three returns for touchdowns.

Individually, Hayes helped guide four defenders to All-Big 12 honors, including Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Ryan Mueller and Ty Zimmerman, who became the first four-year all-conference player in school history. The safety also earned numerous All-America honors, was an honorable mention pick for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and a candidate for the Bednarik Award and Nagurski Trophy. Thanks to Hayes' coaching, Zimmerman left K-State third in career interceptions, second in career interception-return yards and fourth in career interception-return touchdowns.

In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2012, Hayes directed the Wildcats to the top mark in the Big 12 in scoring defense as Kansas State yielded only 22.1 points per game – a six-point improvement from the year before – thanks to a stout rush defense that placed second in the league by yielding only 128.0 rushing yards per game. The Wildcats also pulled in 18 interceptions for a second-straight year to tie for 10th in school history, while Kansas State's plus-19 mark in turnover differential ranked third nationally.

Hayes helped tutor a pair of All-Americans in linebacker Arthur Brown and Zimmerman, while Brown was the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches and Meshak Williams picked up Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year honors. The Wildcat defenders totaled 11 All-Big 12 selections under Hayes' guidance.

Tutoring the K-State secondary and serving as the pass game coordinator in 2011, Hayes helped Nigel Malone become an instant playmaker at cornerback as the junior was named a Walter Camp All-American after leading the Big 12 with seven interceptions. David Garrett, Tysyn Hartman and Zimmerman all earned All-Big 12 honors in 2011 from their positions in the defensive backfield, while the Wildcat defense overall ranked fifth in the Big 12 in total defense, second in interceptions (18) and second in turnover margin (+12) in 2011.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Hayes spent the 2010 season on Bob Toledo's staff at Tulane after serving on the New Orleans Saints staff as a defensive backs coach for two seasons in 2006 and 2007.

During his career, Hayes has served as defensive coordinator at Power 5 institutions Stanford, UCLA, Oklahoma and Kansas and also coached the defensive backs for the Washington Redskins for five years. He has been a part of teams that have compiled an 11-6 record in bowl games throughout his career – including three Rose Bowl victories – and has coached 26 defensive backs who moved on to NFL rosters, including five first-round draft picks.

Prior to arriving at Stanford in 2005, Hayes spent the 2001 season at Kansas. He was the Jayhawks' defensive coordinator and secondary coach and was interim head coach for the final three games of the season.

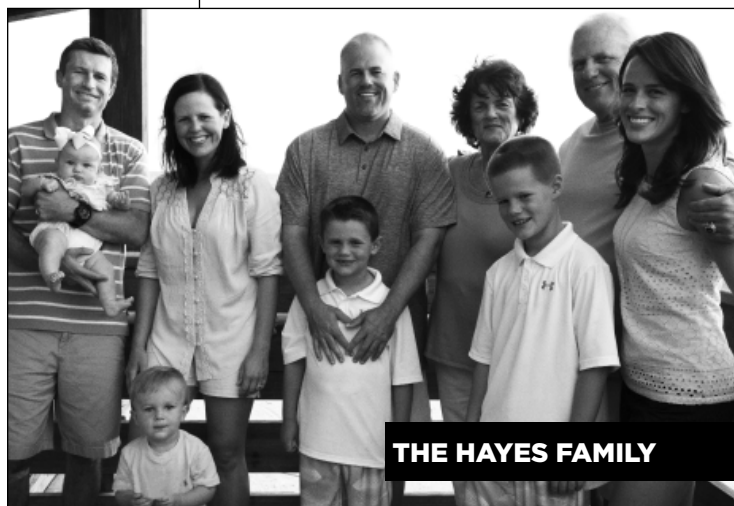

Hayes spent the 1995-99 seasons coaching the secondary for the Redskins under Norv Turner, while he coached under Gary Gibbs at the University of Oklahoma for four years (1991-94), under R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for two years (1989-90) and under Terry Donahue at UCLA for nine seasons (1980-88).

Hayes worked for nine years as an assistant coach under Donahue at UCLA, helping the Bruin program win four Pac-10 Championships, appear in three Rose Bowls and eight bowl games overall. The Bruins never won less than seven games during Hayes' nine-year tenure.

Hayes was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1979 and was the secondary coach at his alma mater, Iowa, in 1977-78. He coached for five years on the high school level and one year at Coe College in Iowa before getting his first Division I job at Iowa in 1977.

Hayes was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back for the Hawkeyes from 1967-71, and earned his degree from Iowa in Finance/Insurance in 1971. Born in Keokuk, Iowa, he and his wife Cindy have three children, Andy, Lindsay and Sarah.

DEL MILLER

19TH YEAR

18 BOWL GAMES

FOUR CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Del Miller, who has worked with some of the most prolific offenses in school history, is entering his 19th season overall at K-State in 2015, which includes four different tours of duty in Manhattan under head coach Bill Snyder. Miller, who returned with Snyder in 2009, serves as the Wildcats' co-offensive coordinator while also tutoring the quarterbacks.

Due in part to Miller's co-directing of an offense and tutelage of quarterbacks, K-State has won at least eight games each of the last four years and earned five-consecutive bowl berths, while the Wildcats lead the Big 12 with 5.14 points per red zone possession over the last three years.

The latest Miller protégé at K-State was Jake Waters, a community-college transfer prior to the 2013 season that turned into one of the best quarterbacks in program history. The 2014 season saw Waters break the school records for total offense (3,985) and passing yards (3,501) as he ranked 13th and 15th nationally in those categories, respectively. Waters went on to earn All-Big 12 honors while being named a semifinalist for the Maxwell and Davey O'Brien awards.

Waters also set the K-State records for season (65.99) and career (64.08) completion percentage, career yards per attempt (9.09) and career passing efficiency (155.6). He also ranks second in school history in career passing touchdowns (40) and yards (5,970) despite playing in just 26 games over his two-year career.

Thanks to Miller's guidance of Waters, K-State ranked in the top 25 nationally in several categories during the 2014 season including passing efficiency (11th), completion percentage (12th), red zone offense (14th) and passing offense (16th).

In 2012, Miller tutored Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein as the signal caller guided K-State to an 11-2 record and the school's second BCS Bowl berth. Klein was also the 2013 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner, a finalist for the Maxwell and Manning awards and Walter Camp Player of the Year, while he was named an All-American by numerous organizations. Under Miller's guidance, Klein improved upon or established 34 career, season or single-game top-10 marks in K-State history, including eight school records. He also became the only quarterback from a BCS automatic qualifying school in the BCS era to rush for at least 20 touchdowns and pass for at least 10 scores in multiple seasons, while he broke the FBS record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in consecutive seasons.

Miller led a 2012 offense that saw Klein set a new Big 12 record and NCAA record by a quarterback with 27 rushing touchdowns. Klein surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the season as well, and became one of the nation's top players in 2011 under Miller's guidance. K-State maintained one of the top offenses in the Big 12 in 2011 en route to a 10-3 record and a berth in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

With K-State needing to break in a new starter for the 2013 season, the transition was seamless due to Miller's guidance of K-State's 1-2 punch of Waters and Daniel Sams, which combined to rank eighth nationally in yards per completion (14.83) and 13th in passing efficiency (155.72). Additionally, K-State was fine-tuned on third downs by leading the Big 12 and ranking 13th nationally at 48.8 percent.

Waters started all 13 games and played especially well when K-State won six of its final seven games as he went 83-of-138 for 1,433 yards and 14 touchdowns while only throwing four interceptions down the stretch. His 2,469 yards on the year ranked 10th in school history, and he ranked sixth in K-State history with 18 touchdown passes. Waters, who was a Second Team All-Big 12 selection by Phil Steele, was also one of the most efficient quarterbacks in the country as his 15.53 yards per completion ranked fourth in the NCAA and his 156.84 quarterback rating was 14th. Sams earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors as he rushed for 807 yards and a team-high 11 touchdowns.

In 2010, Miller helped the Wildcat offense average 33.6 points per game en route to the program's first bowl appearance since 2006. K-

State was also ranked among the top 10 teams in the country in total red zone efficiency and No. 1 nationally in touchdown percentage in the red zone. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12. Quarterback Carson Coffman recorded the fifth-highest efficiency rating in school history in 2010 after completing 65-percent of his passes for a passing efficiency rating of 143.1.

In 2009, Miller ushered in a new quarterback as Grant Gregory took over the offense and led the Cats to a second-place finish in the Big 12 North. Behind Gregory's leadership, K-State was one win away in the final game from advancing to the Big 12 Championship.

Prior to coming back to K-State in 2009, Miller was the offensive coordinator at San Diego State from 2006-08.

One of the first hires made by Snyder when he first came to K-State in 1989, Miller returned to Manhattan in 2001 as offensive coordinator for his third stint on the staff after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma State for the 2000 season.

Miller has played a major role in the building of two major college programs, first at Iowa under the legendary Hayden Fry from 1978-88 before becoming a member of Snyder's original Kansas State coaching staff. He has coached in 18 bowl games, including 10 at Kansas State.

Miller began his second stint as the school's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2003. He helped the Wildcats rank ninth nationally in both scoring and rushing offense and 17th in total offense en route to capturing their first conference championship in nearly 70 years. The offense was one of just seven in the country to average over 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Miller was instrumental in developing quarterback Eli Roberson, who at one time was the school's all-time leader in total offense and passing touchdowns.

With the opportunity to run his own program, Miller left K-State in 1995 to be the head coach at Southwest Missouri State.

Miller followed Snyder to K-State in 1989, serving as the program's offensive coordinator as well as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. After two years, he was elevated to assistant head coach.

A native of Marengo, Iowa, Miller played and graduated from Central College in Pella, Iowa. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education. Miller and his wife, Jan, have three sons, Troy, Todd and Tad, a daughter-in-law, Maria (Tad's wife), and two grandsons, Gabriel and Benjamin.

Former Kansas State standout Andre Coleman returned to his alma mater prior to the 2013 season to tutor the Wildcat wide receivers, and he hasn't wasted any time making an impact.

A four-year letterwinner at wide receiver under Bill Snyder from 1990-93, Coleman has coached a position group that recorded the most receptions and yards ever by a Snyder-coached team in 2013 before shattering both those marks in 2014 with 230 receptions for 3,097 yards.

The effort in 2014 was buoyed by a 1-2 punch of All-American Tyler Lockett and All-Big 12 performer Curry Sexton, the first duo in school history to go over 1,000 yards in the same season and the top receiving duo nationally last season. Lockett, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, finished third in the country and tops in the Big 12 with 1,515 receiving yards to go along with 11 touchdowns, another top mark in the league. Lockett also hauled in the second-most receptions in a season in school history with 106.

Thanks in large part to Coleman's tutelage, Lockett left K-State as the all-time leader in career receptions (249), yards (3,710) and touchdowns (29), just three of the 17 school records he set in his four-year career. Lockett also earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honors for a second-straight season and was a Consensus All-American as a returner due to the coaching of Coleman, an All-American returner at K-State by his own right. A mastered kickoff returner, Lockett excelled in punt-return duties as a senior by leading the nation with a 19.1-yard average, while he returned two for touchdowns.

Sexton ranked 25th nationally and fourth in the conference with 1,059 yards. He recorded the two best seasons of his career under Coleman as he had a three-year total of just 564 yards entering his senior season, 446 of which came as a junior, Coleman's first season on staff. Sexton teamed with Lockett to record five of the school's double 100-yard games while he finished fourth in school history in single-season receptions (79) and seventh in yards.

The 2013 group was paced by Lockett, who ranked 11th nationally with 105.2 receiving yards per game and 19th in the NCAA with 11 touchdown receptions en route to All-America honors. Lockett, who was a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award, set the school's single-game receiving yardage record at Texas (237) before smashing his own mark later in the season against Oklahoma (278). He also tied the single-game school record with three receiving touchdowns on three occasions. The 2013 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year thanks in part to Coleman, Lockett obliterated the school's single-game all-purpose yardage record with 440 against Oklahoma, a mark that ranked as the fifth-most in FBS history.

Although Lockett was the driving force behind Coleman's successful receiving corps in 2013, he was hardly the lone threat as Sexton and senior Tramaine Thompson gave the Wildcats solid No. 2 and 3 options for Coleman. Thompson, who left K-State No. 12 on the all-time receiving list, was an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 kick returner thanks to Coleman's tutelage.

Prior to returning to K-State, Coleman spent the previous three seasons on head coach and former K-State offensive lineman Eric Wolford's staff at Youngstown State. In 2011 and 2012 at Youngstown State, Coleman worked with no seniors and only one junior as he coached multiple freshmen and sophomores who were called into action early in their careers to the tune of 109 total receptions by underclassmen. He helped YSU post a 7-4 record, including a 31-17 victory at Pittsburgh, which served as the school's first-ever victory over a BCS opponent.

During his first season as the receivers coach in 2011, Coleman guided a group that caught 22 of a school-record 27 touchdown passes, while the Penguins' 227.5 passing yards per game were the second most in school history and the highest since 1972. Christian Bryan set school freshman records in receptions (46) and yards (722) under Coleman's watch, while his yardage total was the most by a freshman at the FCS level that season. Coaching the tight ends in his first season on the staff in 2010, Coleman's group hauled in 17 receptions and two touchdowns, helping YSU's offense set a then-school record at 412.0 yards per game.

A 1993 All-America and All-Big Eight performer, Coleman left his mark at K-State during his four years by accumulating 3,443 all-purpose yards, including 1,556 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns on 95 receptions and 1,458 kickoff-return yards on 60 returns. He still sits in K-State's top 10 in 13 offensive or return categories, including top marks in both single-game all-purpose yards per play (27.0 vs. Missouri in 1993) and career all-purpose yards per play (18.2), and third-place rankings in career kickoff-return attempts and kickoff-return yards.

The Hermitage, Pennsylvania, product was drafted in the third round of the 1994 NFL Draft by San Diego and put together a solid five-year professional career playing for the Chargers, Seattle Seahawks and Pittsburgh Steelers. A two-time Pro Bowler and 1994 NFL All-Rookie squad honoree, Coleman helped the Chargers win the 1994 AFC Championship and earn a trip to Super Bowl XXIX in which he established eight Super Bowl records at the time, including a then-record 98-yard kickoff return touchdown as he became the first Wildcat football player to score a touchdown in a Super Bowl.

Coleman completed his degree in social sciences from Kansas State in the summer of 2011. He and his wife, Brandi, have three daughters, Shyla, Kyla and Brielle.

THE COLEMAN FAMILY

MIKE COX

Assistant Coach
Linebackers
Idaho, 1989

FOURTH YEAR

12 BOWL GAMES

10 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

A 27-year coaching veteran who has been influential in preparing many players for the NFL, Mike Cox is entering his fourth season as K-State's linebackers coach under Hall of Fame head coach Bill Snyder.

In just three seasons in Manhattan, Cox has tutored four linebackers that have earned All-Big 12 honors, headlined by 2012 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year Arthur Brown, who went on to become a second-round draft pick by Baltimore in 2013.

The latest All-Big 12 linebacker was Jonathan Truman in 2014. A 13-game starter, Truman carded 128 tackles to finish season third in the Big 12 and 18th in school history. He tallied the most stops by a Wildcat since 2003, while his total was carried by 79 unassisted tackles, the third most in school history and 14th most nationally during the season. Thanks to Cox's guidance, Truman, a former walk-on, carded seven double-digit tackle games, including a career high 17 in a win at No. 11 Oklahoma, which were the most by a K-State defender in 11 years. Truman was also a semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, presented to the nation's top walk-on.

With the coaching of Cox and leadership of Truman, the K-State defense ranked second in the Big 12 in scoring defense and third in both total and red zone defense.

Cox made an instant impact on the Wildcat linebackers in 2012 as he tutored two All-Big 12 performers and an All-American in Brown. Under Cox's tutelage, Brown was named a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. He also helped K-State finish first in the Big 12 in scoring defense as the Wildcats yielded 22.1 points per game. The Wildcat defense also finished second in the conference and 10th in school history in fewest rushing yards allowed per game. In addition, Kansas State's 376.5 yards allowed per game were the third-fewest in the conference.

In 2013, All-Big 12 linebacker Blake Slaughter led a Wildcat defense that ranked third in the Big 12 in rushing, scoring and total defense. Slaughter's 110 tackles on the season ranked sixth in the Big 12, including third among linebackers. Truman, in his first year as a starter, also had 89 tackles.

A 1989 graduate of the University of Idaho, Cox came to K-State from Washington where he served as linebackers coach for three seasons. Prior to joining the Huskies, Cox worked two seasons (2007-08) for the St. Louis Rams, coaching the secondary and linebackers.

Cox was vital to the success at Washington in his three years as he tutored Cort Dennison to All-Pac-12 honors in 2011 before coaching one of the conference's top linebacker groups in 2010. Senior Mason

Foster led the league and finished second in the nation with 163 total tackles, the most by a Pac-10 player since 1989. Foster went on to earn First Team All-Pac-10 and First Team All-America honors. Meanwhile, Victor Aiyewa finished first in the conference and seventh in the nation in tackles for loss, while Dennison was seventh in the league in total tackles.

In his first season as the UW linebackers coach in 2009, Cox helped oversee one of the Huskies' strongest units. Washington's 2009 linebacker corps was led by a pair of veterans in Foster and Donald Butler. Those two combined for 193 tackles, including 94 from Butler, who was a Second Team All-Pac-10 selection. Cox also helped coach a defense that made vast improvements over the previous season as opponents' total offense was reduced by an average of 62 yards per game and opponents scored 12 fewer points per game than in 2008.

A native of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Cox joined the UW staff from the St. Louis Rams where he worked for two seasons. In 2007, he was a defensive quality control/defensive line coach before moving to assistant secondary coach in 2008. After a mid-season coaching change, he became linebackers coach for the Rams. Before his time in the NFL, Cox spent four seasons as linebackers coach at Michigan State, where he was also the recruiting coordinator in 2006.

Much of Cox's coaching career has been spent on the various coaching staffs of John L. Smith. In all, Cox served 17 seasons for Smith at Michigan State, Louisville, Utah State and Idaho.

Cox coached the linebackers for five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002), helping the Cardinals to consecutive Conference USA championships in 2000 and 2001. He coached three All-CUSA selections and, in 2000, was part of a defense that forced an NCAA-best 37 turnovers. The 2002 Louisville team was 17th in the nation in rushing defense and 22nd in total defense.

From 1995-97, he was on the staff at Utah State where he coached a pair of All-Big West linebackers, David Gill and Tony D'Amato. In 1995, Gill broke Utah State's season record for tackles with 168. Utah State won back-to-back Big West Conference championships in 1996 and 1997.

As an assistant at Idaho from 1987-94 coaching linebackers and defensive line, Cox helped his alma mater to a combined record of 73-26 (.733) during that time, capturing four Big Sky Conference championships and finishing in the top 10 five times. In 1994, the Vandals led the Big Sky in rushing defense, allowing only 65.3 yards per game.

Cox was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker for Idaho from 1983-86, starting for three seasons. He played for head coaches Dennis Erickson and Keith Gilbertson. He still ranks among the Vandals' all-time leaders with 252 career tackles. For his efforts in both high school and college, Cox was inducted into the Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2014.

Cox earned a bachelor's degree in general studies from Idaho in 1989. He and his wife, Jill, have three children, Zac, Jake and Addison.

CHARLIE DICKEY

Assistant Coach
 Offensive Line
 Arizona, 1987

SEVENTH YEAR

14 BOWL GAMES

THREE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Charlie Dickey enters his seventh season at K-State tutoring the offensive line as he joined Bill Snyder's staff upon his return in 2009.

Since his first season in Manhattan, Dickey has tutored offensive linemen to 16 All-Big 12 honors, including seven first-team accolades. His offensive lines have been an integral part in the Wildcats advancing to five-straight bowl games and recording more Big 12 wins than any other team in the league since 2011 (27).

The anchor of the line over the last four years, center B.J. Finney, finished his illustrious career in 2014. Under the watchful eye of Dickey, Finney became one of just three four-year all-conference players in school history, was the 2014 Big 12 co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and earned All-America honors as a senior. Finney was a three-time candidate for the Rimington Trophy, including a finalist as a senior, while he started all 52 games during his four-year career. Finney was also a two-time candidate for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy.

Aside from Finney, Dickey tutored two other All-Big 12 linemen in 2014, Cody Whitehair (second team) and Boston Stiverson (honorable mention), as the trio helped K-State rank in the top 25 nationally in nine offensive categories, including second-place marks in the Big 12 in third-down conversions and red zone offense. K-State also led the conference and ranked 13th nationally in time of possession, while the Wildcat offensive line paved the way for 30 rushing touchdowns, the fourth most in the conference and 10th most in school history.

Four of Dickey's five starters in 2013 earned All-Big 12 honors, including senior tackle Cornelius Lucas, who was an undrafted free agent signee by the Detroit Lions and ended up the starter at right tackle by the end of his rookie year, which ended in the playoffs. The veteran unit — led by Lucas, Finney and 2014 NFL Draftee Tavon Rooks — helped K-State earn its first bowl victory in 11 years and did so by helping the Wildcats be one of the most effective offenses down the stretch. During the final seven games of the year when K-State went 6-1, the Wildcats averaged 35.9 points and 404.7 yards per game, including an average of 172.7 yards on the ground.

The Wildcats finished the season ranked 13th nationally and first in the Big 12 in third-down conversions, which was due in large part to the offensive line helping Kansas State convert 61.5-percent of its third downs when needing six or fewer yards. Additionally, the 2013 Wildcats ranked 10th in school history in average yards per rush (4.5) and rushing touchdowns (29).

In 2012, Dickey guided an offensive line that helped Kansas State win a Big 12 Championship thanks to finishing fourth in the conference in rushing offense and yielding the second-fewest sacks in the league with 14. Dickey's linemen helped K-State place in the top 10 of school history in yards per carry (third; 4.79), rushing touchdowns (fourth; 41), yards per game (fifth; 411.2) and total offense (sixth; 4,935). He saw four of his five regular starters earn all-conference accolades, including Finney, who was a semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, given to the nation's top walk-on player. The group paved the way for Collin Klein in both the running and passing game as they helped the quarterback become an All-American and Heisman Trophy finalist.

In 2011, K-State remained one of the most physical offenses in the Big 12, led by an offensive line that blocked for Klein. Three Wildcat linemen led the group as seniors Clyde Aufner and Zach Hanson earned All-Big 12 honors from their tackle positions, while Finney came on strong in his first year on the field and earned both Freshman All-Big 12 and All-America honors. The Wildcats were again the least penalized team in the league, while the offensive line helped the Cats average 31 points a game and total 34 rushing touchdowns on the year.

In 2010, Dickey tutored an experienced K-State line that included three seniors in the middle, headlined by All-Big 12 guard Zach Kendall and Rimington Award candidate Wade Weibert at center. The group blocked for Daniel Thomas, who paced the Big 12 in rushing in both 2009 and 2010. K-State averaged 33.6 points per game in 2010 en route to the program's first bowl appearance since 2006. Additionally, the Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12.

The 2009 group, led by senior All-Big 12 tackle Nick Stringer, proved to be one of the most improved units on the team as the Wildcats' averaged 180 yards rushing per game, a figure that ranked 36th nationally and fourth in the Big 12 Conference.

Dickey came to K-State after capping his fourth year at Utah with an undefeated 13-0 campaign and a win over No. 4 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. He coached in the Pac-10 for 13 years before heading to Utah, spending 12 years at his alma mater, Arizona, and one year at Washington.

He began his coaching career after playing one season for the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1987 NFL strike. In 1988, he worked at Arizona as a GA before tutoring the offensive line at Scottsdale Community College in 1989 and at Northern Arizona from 1990-91.

In his playing days, Dickey started at offensive guard at Arizona from 1983-84 — compiling a streak of 1,230 consecutive offensive plays, including all 840 offensive plays of the 1983 season. He was named a Second Team All-Pac-10 performer in 1984 and was Arizona's Offensive Most Valuable Player.

Dickey, who earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Arizona in 1987, is married to the former Lisa Bradshaw, a native of Jetmore, Kansas, and a member of the Arizona women's basketball team from 1983-85. The couple has five children, daughters Jazmin Wagner, Tasha and Shyanne, son Charles Jr., and son-in-law Alan Wagner. A daughter, Chanel, passed away at the age of three. Tasha played basketball at K-State during the 2011-12 season and is the current Director of Video Services for the women's basketball program.

A former All-American lineman for the Wildcats in the 1970s, interior defensive line coach Mo Latimore is the longest tenured assistant coach in the Big 12 Conference and second-longest tenured assistant in the country as he enters his 32nd season at Kansas State in 2015.

Latimore has been a fixture at Kansas State since returning to his alma mater in 1994 following a five-year stint at Missouri. He has played an integral role in Kansas State's ascent to one of the nation's elite programs, helping the Wildcats to 12 seasons of nine or more wins and 16 bowl games. He has also been a big reason for K-State's strong presence on defense and has mentored lines that helped the Wildcats rank among the nation's top 10 in total defense several times, including seven top-five rankings (1995, 1997-2002).

During the last 20 seasons, Latimore has helped coach four All-Americans, including first-team honorees Tim Colston (1995) and Mario Fatafahi (2000), two conference Defensive Newcomers of the Year (Fatafahi in 1999 and Tank Reese in 2001) and one conference Defensive Player of the Year (Colston; 1995).

Latimore has tutored an All-Big 12 defensive tackle each of the last four seasons, including two-time selection Travis Britz in 2013 and 2014. Britz started 10 games as a junior in 2014 before an injury sidelined him the rest of the year, but he still managed to come away with 27 tackles, including a career-high tying three sacks. Needing to replace Britz, Latimore tutored and plugged in former walk-on Will Geary, and the line didn't skip a beat as it helped the Wildcat defense rank second in the conference in scoring defense and third in both total and red zone defense.

In addition to Britz, six other Wildcat defenders have earned all-conference honors under Latimore in the last seven seasons, including Vai Lutui, Ray Kibble, Jeffrey Fitzgerald, Ian Campbell, Eric Childs and Brandon Harold.

Britz was a 13-game starter in 2013 that made 37 tackles, and he was the national leader with four blocked kicks. Britz followed in Lutui's footsteps, who was also a 13-game starter the year prior that helped K-State rank first in the Big 12 in scoring defense, second in rushing defense and win the Big 12 title for the second time in school history.

Kibble was a mainstay in the middle in 2011 and a big part of K-State's 10-win season and berth in the Cotton Bowl. Defensive tackle Raphael Guidry also made a lasting impact on special teams that season by setting a new K-State record with five blocked kicks.

Campbell earned three straight all-conference awards and left Kansas State as one of the program's best defensive ends. Harold was one of the top freshmen defenders in the country in 2008 and led the nation in sacks and tackles for loss among freshmen defensive linemen.

In 2005, protégé Alphonso Moran received Big 12 All-Freshman honors as well as Honorable Mention Freshman All-America accolades from Sporting News, and, in 2006, Campbell was selected as a consensus First Team All-Big 12 performer as well as the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Houston Chronicle. Campbell again added first-team honors in 2007, while defensive end Rob Jackson also garnered all-league accolades in 2008.

In his first season back at his alma mater, Latimore helped guide the Wildcats to the nation's top ranking in total defense, while also coaching Colston to Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press. In 1995, Latimore helped Colston become the first defensive lineman in school history to earn First Team All-America accolades and Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Beginning in 1997, Latimore coached at least one all-conference lineman for six consecutive seasons, including three first-team honorees. Fatafahi became the first of two Latimore protégés to earn Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors. In 2000, he coached a defensive line that saw three of its four starters (Monty Beisel, Chris Johnson and Fatafahi) earn All-Big 12 honors, while Fatafahi was Latimore's second First Team All-American in six seasons. Also, the line recorded 39 sacks and helped the Cats finish fourth nationally in total defense. Latimore saw his second player, Reese, earn Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors in 2001, as well as first team all-league recognition in both 2001 and 2002.

The 2006 campaign brought even more success as Latimore's unit was at the forefront of a defense that led the Big 12 in sacks and ranked sixth nationally with 40, including a school-record 11.5 by Campbell. The 2007 line ranked second in the Big 12 in sacks, again led by Campbell.

Latimore began his coaching career at K-State in 1976 under Ellis Rainsberger as a graduate assistant. After 10 years in various roles on the Kansas State staff, Latimore moved to UTEP in 1986 under Bob Stull, where he coached the defensive line for three seasons. He helped the Miners to the school's first 10-win season in 1988, which cumulated in the school's first bowl game in 21 years – the 1988 Independence Bowl. In 1989, Latimore moved with Stull to Missouri, where he coached until 1993.

One of the top linemen in K-State history, Latimore earned Third Team All-America honors and First Team All-Big Eight accolades while also serving as team captain in 1971. Following his collegiate career, he played in the Senior Bowl and North-South Bowl before being drafted in the seventh round by the New York Jets. He went on to play four years in the Canadian Football League with Calgary, Saskatchewan and Hamilton. Latimore transferred to K-State prior to the 1970 season after two years at Hutchinson Junior College. In 2013, Latimore was inducted into the Hutchinson Quarterback Club Hall of Fame.

A native of Byron, Georgia, Latimore, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1976. He is married to the former D'Anne Mitchell. The couple has two children, M.L. and Mallory, a daughter-in-law Christy and grandsons Talor and Camden.

A former defensive end for Kansas State under head coach Bill Snyder, Blake Seiler enters his seventh season on the K-State staff and his third as a full-time assistant coach tutoring the defensive ends.

It hasn't taken long for Seiler to make an impact, and one has to look no further than former walk-on Ryan Mueller. Seiler coached Mueller to two-straight First Team All-Big 12 honors as a junior and senior, while he was the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2013 and a Second Team All-American that season. Mueller carded 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks as a senior in 2014, helping Seiler's group total over half of the team's sack total in 2014.

Mueller was also a two-time candidate for the Ted Hendricks Award, while, in 2014, he was a candidate for the Bednarik, Nagurski and Lombardi awards. Thanks to the teachings of Seiler, Mueller tied the school record with 11.5 sacks in 2013, a mark that ranked eighth nationally, and he left K-State tied for fifth in school history with 20.5 in his career.

A letterman at K-State from 2004-06, Seiler returned to his alma mater in 2009 as a quality control assistant for defense for two years. He then spent two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant coach where he assisted with the secondary, ran the scout team offense and broke down film. Prior to coaching, Seiler spent two years working as a structural engineer at Cessna Aircraft Company in Wichita, Kansas.

Prior to the 2003 football season, Seiler transferred to K-State from Oklahoma State where he was a member of the Cowboys 2003 National Championship wrestling team. The Goddard, Kansas, product earned First Team Academic All-Big 12 honors during his final three years in Manhattan while becoming one of the biggest contributors on defense.

As a senior in 2006, Seiler was voted team captain and named the Kansas State Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He made 21 tackles that season, including four sacks, as he registered at least one tackle in 11-of-13 games. He had multiple stops in six games as he helped the Wildcats earn a trip to the 2006 Texas Bowl.

THE SEILER FAMILY

During an 11-game 2005 season, Seiler carded a career-best 34 tackles, including a season-high seven against Texas A&M. That season, Seiler was honored with the program's Nancy Bennett Award, representing fight, spirit and a positive nature. Seiler saw action in all 11 games in 2004 as a sophomore, being credited with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. He earned the Kansas State Purple Pride Award as the walk-on that displayed quality play, leadership and work ethic.

Seiler graduated from Kansas State in 2007 with a degree in mechanical engineering. He also holds a master's degree in Business Administration from Wichita State University. He is married to the former Inge Jorgensen.

ZACH HANSON

Kansas State, 2010

A former standout at Kansas State along the offensive line, Zach Hanson is in his fourth season on the staff and his third as an Offensive Graduate Assistant. In his role, Hanson assists offensive line coach Charlie Dickey and helps run the scout team. Hanson served as an Offensive Quality Control coach in 2012 as he assisted in film breakdown and scouting reports among other duties.

Hanson, who played in 37 games as a Wildcat from 2009-11, earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors from the league's coaches in 2011, while he was an honorable mention pick by the Associated Press and a Second Team Academic All-Big 12 honoree. He started the final 11 games of 2011 at left tackle, helping K-State earn a 10-3 record and an appearance in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Hanson also started four games in 2010. While as a member of the staff, Hanson has helped the Wildcats to a pair of bowl appearances, including the Big 12 Championship season of 2012.

A native of Linden, California, Hanson originally signed with Nevada out of high school but opted to attend Sacramento City College prior to K-State. He obtained a degree in social sciences from Kansas State in 2010 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in sociology.

CHRIS DAWSON

Director of Strength and Conditioning

SIXTH YEAR

13 BOWL GAMES

TWO CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Oklahoma, 1995

Chris Dawson, a veteran of more than 15 years in the field of strength training, is in his sixth season as Kansas State's Director of Strength and Conditioning.

Dawson manages the department's total strength program, overseeing six full-time assistant coaches, while providing daily leadership for the Wildcats' football strength and conditioning program. The Houston, Texas, native spent the previous seven seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas before coming to Manhattan. Under Dawson's tutelage, 36 players have been drafted by NFL teams including nine that were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his tenure at K-State - which has included four bowl appearances - Dawson was a part of four bowl teams from 2003-2008 at Kansas, including a 2008 BCS appearance in the Orange Bowl. Following the successful 2007 campaign, Dawson was awarded the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Dawson worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota after serving five-year stint at Oklahoma, his alma mater. While with the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams.

Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Dawson credits his success in the strength field to his mentors at Oklahoma. He learned under Joe Juraszek, who was the strength coach at OU during his playing days and was the head strength coach for the Dallas Cowboys for 14 years. He also received valuable guidance from Blair Prince, Pete Martinelli and Jerry Schmidt, the current strength coach at Oklahoma.

Dawson played linebacker for the Sooners from 1992-94 and participated in a pair of postseason contests - the 1993 John Hancock Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business management in 1995 and his master's degree in business administration in 1999, both from Oklahoma.

Dawson and his wife, Dawn, have three children, Macey, and twins Madison and Meyer.

THE DAWSON FAMILY

CLINT DOWDLE

Assoc. A.D. for Admin./
Chief of Staff
Third Season

Clint Dowdle is in his third year at K-State as Associate A.D. for Administration/Chief of Staff. In his role, Dowdle is a member of the senior staff and serves as the daily sport liaison for the football program. In addition, he is the sport administrator for the tennis and rowing programs, oversees the equipment operations, supervises special projects, manages the K-State Nike contract and coordinates department communication with the KSA Board of Directors.

Dowdle is also heavily involved with the strategic planning of the athletic department and capital projects, including the new Vanier Football Complex. He also supervised the completions of the Mike Goss Tennis Stadium and Intercollegiate Rowing Facility. In addition to identifying and hiring numerous key staff members in the department, Dowdle managed the search and hiring process for the women's basketball, men's golf, women's tennis and women's soccer coaches.

Prior to his arrival in Manhattan, Dowdle spent four years at Bowling Green State. There, he served as the Director of Football Operations and Player Personnel and spent his final three years as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations and External Relations. At BGSU, Dowdle oversaw external and internal operations for the football program and was a member of the department's senior staff. He spear-headed the Locker Room Renovation Project in 2012 and established the Gridiron Classic, which proved to be the largest fundraising event for the athletic department. During his tenure, Dowdle was a member of a development team that increased annual giving by 300-percent under A.D. Greg Christopher.

Prior to arriving at Bowling Green, Dowdle spent four years on the football staff at Tennessee under Phillip Fulmer. He served as a Graduate Assistant before being hired as the Assistant Director of Football Operations. Dowdle's position working with the offense and football operations helped Tennessee to the SEC East Division title in 2007 and Outback Bowl appearances in 2006 and 2007. While at Tennessee, he earned his master's degree in Sport Management.

The Memphis, Tennessee, native earned his business management degree in 2005 from Christian Brothers University, where he was a four-year basketball starter and three year captain. He led the team in minutes, assists and steals all four years and twice was named Academic All-Gulf South Conference. He and his wife, Catherine, reside in Manhattan.

KACEY HARPER

Assistant Director of Football Operations
Eighth Season

Kacey Harper is entering her eighth season at Kansas State and her second as the assistant director of football operations. Harper assists with much of the daily operations of the football program including coordinating team travel, camps & clinics, and overseeing K-State's Golden Cats alumni program.

Harper began working with the football program in 2005, serving three years as a student assistant and one year as a graduate assistant before being hired on full time in 2009. Prior to her current position, Harper served as the Assistant Director of Recruiting Operations.

A native of Emporia, Kansas, Harper earned her bachelor's degree in Family Studies and Human Services from Kansas State University in 2008 and obtained a master's degree in Counseling and Student Development from Kansas State University in 2011.

BILL BANKS

Program Director for Football Academics
Seventh Season

Bill Banks enters his seventh year at Kansas State and third as the Program Director for Football Academics. In his current role, Banks monitors student-athlete course work, degree progress and eligibility, while he is also responsible for study table supervision and tutorial development.

A former college football player himself, Banks came to K-State in 2009 to serve as a graduate assistant in football academics before earning a full-time job as an academic advisor for the College of Education in 2011. Banks was an academic counselor for football before being promoted.

Banks, a native of Houghton Lake, Michigan, played football at Alma College in Alma, Michigan, and earned his degree in exercise and health science in 2007. He obtained his master's degree in College Student Personnel from Kansas State in 2011.

TAYLOR BRAET

Dir. of Recruiting/Spec.
Teams Quality Control
10th Season

Taylor Braet enters his 10th year at Kansas State, his fifth as a quality control assistant for special teams and his third as the Director of Recruiting Operations.

Braet came to K-State as a student assistant coach in 2006 working with the defense and special teams and continues to help in those areas as a quality control assistant.

Prior to his stint in Manhattan, Braet was a student assistant at Butler Community College under his father, associate head coach Steve Braet, and head coach Troy Morrell. Braet worked with the linebackers during the Grizzlies' 2003 National Championship run, while he helped with the defensive ends in 2004 and 2005 as Butler won conference championships all three seasons.

Born and raised in Wichita, Kansas, Braet graduated from Wichita Heights High School in 2003 and went through spring practices at Butler until an injury ended his career and he began his coaching career. He is married to the former Leah Ost.

NORM BURGE

Senior Video
Engineer
27th Season

Norm Burge is in his 27th year working with the K-State video department and his 31st overall at Kansas State.

In his role, Burge provides technical and engineering support of all K-State video productions, including K-State video board, K-StateHD.TV, and K-StateHD.TV on Fox Sports live events. He also serves as technical support for on-demand programming, including the Bill Snyder, Bruce Weber, and Jeff Mittie TV Shows. He also serves as the departmental liaison to on-campus departments and outside entities for technical and engineering support in all audio/video matters related to K-State Athletics.

A native of Medicine Lodge, Kansas, Burge is married to the former Cindy Cejda.

AL CERBE

Head Football
Equipment Manager
Ninth Season

Al Cerbe is in his ninth season at K-State and his fifth as the equipment manager for the Wildcat football program.

Cerbe, who received his accreditation from the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) in the summer of 2011, oversees all aspects of equipment and apparel distribution and maintenance. He also helps oversee the operations of K-State's student equipment managers.

Cerbe came to K-State from the University of Memphis, where he served as a student equipment manager. In addition to his work at Memphis, Cerbe has also served equipment manager internships with the Baltimore Ravens, the Las Vegas Gladiators and the Memphis Xplorers before becoming the Head Equipment Manager for the Xplorers in 2006.

A product of Horn Lake, Mississippi, Cerbe began his career in 2004 as the head equipment manager at Northeast Mississippi Community College and graduated from Kansas State in 2010. He was married to the former Danielle Young in March.

IAN CONNOLLE

Director of Sport Psychology
Third Season

Ian Connolle, Ph.D., began working at Kansas State in January 2014 and coordinates sport psychology services for K-State Athletics. In his role, Connolle helps the Wildcat student-athletes, coaches and teams to develop a psychological edge in training, competition and life. He views sport psychology as the science of performance excellence and is committed to understanding and applying the mind in ways that maximize human potential.

Connolle understands the demands of NCAA DI athletics and works with student-athletes to achieve success and reach their personal goals in this world of high expectations. He knows that all student-athletes have the ability to grow and develop personally, athletically and academically; his job is to help them tap into that capacity and discover the most effective ways of thinking, acting and responding in order to enhance their performance and overall college experience. Since his arrival, Connolle has co-founded the K-State Student-Athlete Leadership Academy to train future leaders for all K-State teams and established a state of the art Mental Training Lab that is equipped with vision and reaction training, biofeedback, as well as imagery and visualization services.

Connolle discovered his passion for the sport psychology while studying and playing basketball at Skidmore College. Since then, he has studied sport psychology, worked with student-athletes and received degrees at Cal State Fullerton (M.S. in Sport Psychology/Performance Enhancement) and West Virginia University (M.A. in Counseling and Ph.D. in Sport and Exercise Psychology). Connolle is a Certified Consultant through the Association of Applied Sport Psychology (AASP) and a member of the United States Olympic Committee's Sport Psychology and Mental Training Registry.

SCOTT EILERT

Director of Video Services
24th Season

Scott Eilert is in his 24th season overseeing the football program's state-of-the-art video editing system as Kansas State's senior video coordinator.

Eilert coordinates and implements the use of video technology for practices and games, while he manages statistical analysis tools for the coaching staff which are both used in preparing materials to create game strategies. Eilert also produces weekly highlights and manages all content for the annual K-State Football awards ceremony.

A founding member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA) and former executive officer of CSVA, Eilert has been named Big 12 Video Coordinator of the Year four times by the organization - including in 2014-15 - and in 1998 was selected as the CSVA National Video Coordinator of the Year. In 2001 and again in 2003, Eilert won Savvy Awards for best motivational video. More recently, his 2010 submission in the "highlight" category placed second.

A 1991 K-State graduate, Eilert spent three years as K-State's assistant video director while an undergraduate student. He also spent one year as a video assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs as well as working for the Kansas City ABC affiliate, KMBC.

A native of Overland Park, Kansas, Eilert is married to the former Meggan Luke. The couple has two daughters, MaKenna and Hailey.

TAYLOR GODINET

Asst. Dir. of Recruiting/
Def. Quality Control
First Season

A member of the football team over the past five years, Taylor Godinet joined the K-State staff in the spring of 2015 as an Assistant Director of Recruiting/Defensive Quality Control.

Godinet, a former walk-on, played in 14 career games, helping the 2014 season class finish with a combined 38-14 record, including a Big 12-best 27-9 conference mark and a 2012 Big 12 Championship. He served on field goal protection in all 13 games as a senior in 2014, while also seeing time as a defensive end. For his efforts as a senior, he was given the program's Nancy Bennett Memorial Award, which represents fight, spirit and positive nature.

A product of Wamego (Kan.) High School and native of Oceanside, California, Godinet graduated from K-State with a degree in sociology in December 2014.

MINDY HOFFMAN

Associate Athletic Trainer
10th Season

Mindy Hoffman is in her 10th year overall at Kansas State and her ninth working with the football program. Hoffman, who was promoted to associate athletic trainer in 2013, also serves as the athletic trainer for the men's and women's golf programs in addition to football.

Prior to her arrival at K-State, Hoffman spent two years at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center where she received her master's of athletic training in May 2006. While at Tech, she worked primarily with the football team for two years and the women's basketball team for one season. She also spent time assisting an orthopedic surgeon while working on her master's degree.

Hoffman received her bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue University in May 1999. She spent four years as a teacher and coach before pursuing a career in athletic training.

Hoffman, a native of Royal Center, Indiana, is a certified athletic trainer, member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

JOAN FRIEDERICH

Head Coaches'
Secretary
44th Season

Joan Friederich is in her 44th year with the Kansas State athletics department, including her 42nd with the Wildcat football program. After working with the assistant coaches for more than eight years, she has been the secretary to the head football coach since 1980.

Following the 1998 football season, the Joan Friederich Award was established to honor the individual who, through his unselfishness, leadership and commitment to K-State football, best represents the team concept.

Friederich was presented with the Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp Trophy at the 1999 Culligan Holiday Bowl for the person who best exemplifies the spirit of unselfish dedication and teamwork which resulted in little recognition or acclaim for him or herself, but contributed significantly to an outstanding season for the team.

A native of Leonardville, Kansas, Friederich has three children - Rick, Nancy and Janet - three grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

ADAM HOLSTE

Director of Ticket Operations
Sixth Season

Adam Holste will begin his sixth year at K-State in 2015-16 and his third as the Director of Ticket Services. In his role, Holste oversees the day-to-day operations for the K-State Athletics Ticket Office and is the direct contact for football and men's basketball.

A K-State graduate, Holste originally came back to Manhattan in 2010 as an assistant director before being promoted to director in June of 2013. Prior to that, he served one year in the Air Force Academy ticket office, originally going to the Colorado Springs, Colorado, campus as an intern before leaving as an assistant ticket manager. He also worked as a graduate assistant at Wichita State, earning his Master's in Sport Management from WSU in 2009.

Holste obtained his undergraduate degree in journalism and mass communications from K-State in 2008. A native of Ludell, Kansas, Holste and his wife, Chelsie, have one daughter, Hadley.

DARREN HONEYCUTT

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
Ninth Season

Darren Honeycutt is in his ninth season at K-State as the assistant strength coach for football and assists Chris Dawson in all aspects of the team's strength and conditioning training. Prior to arriving at K-State, Honeycutt served as the assistant strength coach at the University of Pittsburgh. Honeycutt received his start as a strength and conditioning coach and worked as an assistant on the staff at Appalachian State from 1991-94.

Honeycutt's background also includes plenty of Big 12 history. From 1994-96 he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas Tech working with the Red Raiders' football program. Honeycutt also worked in a similar position at Baylor from 1996-2000 before eventually heading to Louisville, where he worked with the Cardinals from 2000-2003.

Honeycutt, who played collegiately at Lenoir-Rhyne College, earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1991 and later added a master's degree from Appalachian State in 1994.

► Game Notes

• A capacity crowd of 52,830 attended tonight's game... The sellout crowd was the fifth-straight for a season opener, the 14th consecutive sellout dating back to 2012 and its 22nd sellout since the 2009 season... It was also the eighth-largest crowd in school history.

• The Wildcats took a 28-10 lead into the locker room at halftime as they pushed their streak of consecutive games won when leading at the half to 40 games... Since 1990, the Cats have protected a halftime lead in 166 of their 171 (.971) games when leading at the half.

• The Wildcats were 7-for-7 in the red zone Saturday evening... Dating back to the 2011 season, Kansas State is 163-for-186 in the red zone with 125 of those scores being touchdowns... During the 2013 season, the Wildcats were perfect on four or more red zone trips in four games, while they were just 1-for-1 in last season's opener against North Dakota State.

• Quarterback Jake Waters moved into 13th place all-time at K-State with 2,692 passing yards, passing Dan Manucci, who threw for 2,505 yards from 1977-78.

• DeMarcus Robinson earned his first career start, rushing 11 times for 49 yards... Robinson became the first running back since at least 1993 that made his first-career start in a season opener of his senior year.

• Tyler Lockett recorded one reception, a nine-yard touchdown in the first quarter... He is now one touchdown shy of tying for third in school history.

WATERS' FOUR TDs LIFTS K-STATE PAST SFA

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Backed by a dominant performance by Wildcat signal-caller Jake Waters, K-State rolled Stephen F. Austin, 55-16, in front of 52,830 faithful at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Finding success both through the air and on the ground, Waters finished the day accounting for 278 of the Wildcats' 478 total yards with four scores in a little over three quarters of play. He was an efficient 19-of-28 for 223 yards and two touchdowns, completing passes to eight different receivers on the night, and picked up another 55 yards and two scores via the ground game on a team-high 17 carries.

The 55 points were the most scored by the Wildcats in a home-opener since Sept. 22, 2001, when K-State rung up 64 points in a shutout over New Mexico State.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- K-State promptly marched down the field to score their first of four TD's in the first half. Keyed by DeMarcus Robinson, who accounted for 40 of the drive's 69 yards, the Wildcats' early 7-0 lead came via Waters connecting with Tyler Lockett for a 9-yard score.
- The Wildcat defense stifled the Lumberjacks' offense early on, holding them to 21 yards on 12 plays in their first three drives.
- K-State extended its lead to 14-0 thanks to a Waters 5-yard run that capped off a 12-play, 60-yard drive in 6:40. The Wildcats would then make it three-straight scoring drives and 21-0 soon after a Lumberjacks' three-and-out, as Charles Jones took it to the house from 15-yards out.
- Scoring a TD for the fourth-consecutive drive, Waters picked up his second rushing touchdown with a one-yard goal line plunge. The 28-7 K-State lead would be cut down to 28-10 after the Lumberjacks picked up a 28-yard field goal in their final drive of the half.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- Waters picked up his fourth touchdown of the night by connecting with wideout Kody Cook for a 22-yard score – the redshirt junior's first career TD to go along with three receptions and 44 yards on the night – the Wildcats extended their lead to 35-10.
- The Wildcats would regain possession only a play later at the Lumberjacks' 22-yard line, as Randall Evans forced a fumble for the first turnover of the game for either side. Jones took over from there, running the ball three-consecutive times to the tune of 22 yards and his second touchdown run of the night – this one from four yards out to make the score 42-10.
- Forcing a turnover of their own after Collin Garrett picked off a tipped Waters' pass, Stephen F. Austin closed the gap to 42-16 as Johnson scampered in for a 30-yard score.
- The fourth quarter saw two Jack Cantele field goals and a Joe Hubener to Steven West 15-yard connection – first career visits to pay dirt for both Wildcats.

► Game Notes

• The Wildcats have now won seven-straight games in the series, their longest winning streak since winning 10 straight from 1994-2003... The Wildcats have won five of their last six Big 12 openers.

• Iowa State took a 28-20 lead into the locker room at halftime... It was the first time the Wildcats allowed at least 28 points in a half to the Cyclones since the second half of the 2005 contest... K-State turned things around defensively as it shut out the Cyclones in the second half, keeping them off the board for a half in a second straight year (first half in 2013).

• This was K-State's first come-from-behind win since a 53-50, four-overtime win against Texas A&M in 2011 (trailed 31-21 in the fourth quarter)... It was the first double-digit comeback win on the road since overcoming a 20-7 deficit at North Texas in 2010, a 49-41 victory.

• Senior quarterback Jake Waters made his 15th career start under center for the Wildcats, rushing 20 times for a career-best 138 yards and two touchdowns... He bettered his previous career best in rushing by 64 yards as his previous high was 74 yards in last year's West Virginia game... He tied his career high with two rushing touchdowns, while he had a career-long 25-yard rush... Waters went 16-of-29 for 239 yards through the air.

• Senior wide receiver Tyler Lockett hauled in six receptions for 136 yards... It was his 10th career 100-yard game, which ties the school record held by Jordy Nelson (2005-07) and Quincy Morgan (1999-2000).

WATERS' LATE TD COMPLETES COMEBACK

AMES, Iowa (AP) -- Jake Waters ran for an 8-yard touchdown with 1:30 left to push 20th-ranked Kansas State past host Iowa State 32-28.

Waters threw for 239 yards and ran for a career-high 138 yards for the Wildcats (2-0, 1-0 Big 12). They trailed by as much as 28-13 late in the first half before Waters rescued them on a game-winning drive.

Waters followed a key 23-yard completion to Tyler Lockett with a 25-yard run with just under two minutes left. Waters then capped an 80-yard drive that took just 1:31 with his second touchdown run of the day.

Jarvis West caught and threw touchdown passes and ran a punt back for a third TD for Iowa State (0-2, 0-1), which was held scoreless in the second half.

It was a tough loss for the Cyclones: They nearly knocked off a ranked opponent just a week after losing by 20 to FCS school North Dakota State.

Kansas State's Randall Evans ripped the ball away from West for an interception with 9:15 left. The Wildcats went 54 yards in 74 seconds, moving within 28-26 on a 4-yard TD run by Charles Jones.

Waters looked like he had more than enough space to tie the game on a 2-point conversion run. But Kamari Cotton-Moya -- who was ejected from last week's loss for targeting -- sprinted to the hole, turned Waters sideways at the goal line and preserved Iowa State's lead.

That seemed like it would be the game's key play. But Lockett's crucial reception, which held up upon review, set the athletic Waters up to close the game out with his feet.

Jones added 75 yards rushing for the Wildcats.

Iowa State was in need of a decent showing after allowing 506 yards and getting shut out for the final 44 minutes last week.

The Wildcats made it look way too easy way too soon.

Lockett went 57 yards off a short catch just four plays in, and Jones walked in untouched from four yards out for a quick 7-0 lead.

The Wildcats tacked on a pair of field goals before Iowa State finally woke up.

The Cyclones flipped things around by relying on West's versatility. West kicked off his career day with a leaping 17-yard TD catch. He then took a punt 82 yards for a touchdown and a 14-13 lead early in the second quarter.

West capped a brilliant first half with a perfectly thrown 29-yard TD pass to Allen Lazard off a double reverse. That made it 28-13 Iowa State, thrilling a capacity crowd that once seemed resigned to defeat.

West is just the fourth player since 1996 with a passing, receiving and punt return touchdown in the same game, according to STATS LCC.

But Kansas State pulled within 28-20 just before halftime on a plunge from Waters, and the Wildcats defense stuffed Iowa State on a fourth-and-1 to open the second half.

Iowa State answered by stuffing Waters on a fourth and inches early in the fourth quarter, prompting Cyclones coach Paul Rhoads to run onto the field while furiously pumping his fists.

It was a short-lived celebration for Rhoads, who fell to 0-6 against Kansas State.

► Game Notes

• A capacity crowd of 53,046 attended tonight's game, which marked the fifth-largest crowd in stadium history and the 15th-consecutive sellout at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

• K-State extended its scoring streak to 219 consecutive games on a 3-yard touchdown run by DeMarcus Robinson. It is the 11th-longest active streak in the nation and the second-longest in the Big 12... The score was the first of Robinson's career.

• The Wildcats were only 2-for-5 in the red zone Thursday after starting the season 12-of-12 with 10 touchdowns... The Wildcats came up empty in the red zone for the first time this season when K-State threw an interception from the two-yard line in the first quarter.

• Quarterback Jake Waters became the 10th quarterback in school history to record 200 completions, 3,000 passing yards and 20 passing touchdowns, but the quickest ever in terms of games played (16)... He also became the second-fastest QB in school history to 3,000 career passing yards when he hit the mark on career pass attempt No. 331.

• Curry Sexton hauled in a career-high 11 catches for a career-best 121 yards... His 11 catches tied for the 10th most in a single game in school history, while it was his second career 100-yard game.

• Linebacker Dakorey Johnson registered a career-high six tackles, including two tackles for loss, and intercepted his second-career pass.

K-STATE FALLS SHORT TO NO. 5 AUBURN

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- In a back-and-forth defensive game that saw both teams average less than five yards a play on offense, No. 20 K-State came up just short against No. 5 Auburn, falling to the Tigers 20-14. Taking in the primetime affair were 53,046 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium -- the fifth-largest attendance in program history.

For the Wildcats, they kept the contest close thanks to a stellar performance by their defense unit. The collective effort saw the Tigers get held to a season-low output in rushing yards, as Auburn managed 128 yards on 45 attempts, which ended the program's FBS-leading streak of 13-straight games of at least 200 yards rushing. The Tigers would finish the game with 359 total yards and one turnover.

On offense, K-State struggled to find any room on the ground, relying mostly on the arm of Jake Waters, who finished the contest with 245 yards passing on 24-of-40 attempts. Curry Sexton and Tyler Lockett finished the evening with 121 yards and 45 yards receiving, respectively, with the former hauling in a game- and career-high 11 receptions.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- K-State's defense came out rolling on all cylinders, holding the Auburn attack to 38 total yards in its first three drives. Despite the strong start, K-State trailed 3-0 after the first quarter.
- Auburn's first points of the evening came as result of a Waters fumble that ended with the Tigers recovering the ball on the Wildcats' 21-yard line. From there, Auburn failed to move the ball past the K-State 17 with its drive ending in a Daniel Carlson 34-yard field goal.
- The Wildcats would bounce back with a strong drive, moving the ball 74 yards in 10 plays only to have the drive end with yet another turnover. On 2nd-and-goal from the 1-yard line, Waters looked to hit Lockett on a slant, but Lockett was unable to corral the pass, tipping the ball into the air for a Tigers' interception by cornerback Jonathan Jones.
- From there, action hit a short lull as K-State was unable to capitalize on a Dakorey Johnson interception off a deflected Nick Marshall pass. The Wildcats' defense would not relent, forcing a punt from Auburn on the ensuing drive that saw Lockett work his way 26 yards to the K-State 43-yard line.
- The return would kick start the Wildcats' first scoring drive of the evening -- a 6-play, 57-yard drive that ended with a 3-yard plunge by DeMarcus Robinson.
- Auburn responded quickly with a touchdown of their own, driving the ball 75 yards down the field in 3:22 to make it 10-7. Evading a blitz from cornerback Randall Evans, Marshall connected with Ricardo Louis from 40 yards out for the score.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- Trading punts to open the half, K-State would be the first team with an opportunity to score, but were unable to convert yet again as the Wildcats missed another field goal.
- Auburn extended its lead to 17-7, when a Marshall fade to D'haquille Williams in the corner of the end zone, scoring from 9 yards out.
- Auburn added another three in the fourth to push its advantage to 20-7, but the Wildcats would make the game interesting late, cutting the lead to 20-14 with 3:49 remaining on a Charles Jones 1-yard score. Sexton played a major role in the drive, snagging four passes for 47 yards including three for first downs. K-State's offense did not see the field again though, as Auburn converted on a 3rd-and-9 on the following drive to run out the clock for its third victory of the season.

Game Notes

• The K-State defense held the nation's seventh-best rushing attack to 59 yards on 31 attempts (1.9 per carry)... Since 2011, the Wildcat defense has held 17 of its 43 opponents to under 100 yards, including two this season (SFA: 69 yards).

• Deante Burton blocked UTEP's first punt attempt of the day... It was the Wildcats' first blocked kick of the season and first blocked punt since Weston Hiebert last season against Baylor.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in four receptions for 84 yards... Lockett now has 2,469 career receiving yards as he jumped from fifth to third place in school history on Saturday... He passed his uncle, Aaron (2,400; 1998-2001) for fourth and Michael Smith (2,457; 1988-91) for third.

• Lockett also tallied 143 punt-return yards, the second-most in school history and 29 yards short of tying the school record of 172 held by David Allen against Texas in 1998... His yardage included a 58-yard touchdown, which was the Wildcats' nation-leading 92nd non-offensive touchdown since 1999... It was the Wildcats' first punt-return touchdown since Tramaine Thompson went 89 yards last year against Louisiana.

• Charles Jones rushed 12 times for 76 yards and three touchdowns... His three rushing touchdowns today are tied for 11th in school history, one shy of a tie for third and two shy of the school record... Of his eight rushing touchdowns this year, six have been out of the Wildcat formation.

NO. 25 K-STATE CRUISES PAST UTEP, 58-28

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- K-State (3-1, 1-0) closed out its non-conference slate with a bang, romping the UTEP Miners (2-2, 0-0), 58-28, in front of 52,899 faithful at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. The No. 25-ranked Wildcats dominated play, scoring 42 unanswered points on six consecutive drives at one point en route to their third win of the season. For K-State, it was a complete effort that saw the offense, defense and special teams all excel in their respective areas.

On the offensive side, the scoring was backed by an exceptional performance from the Wildcat rushing attack, which combined for 188 yards and six scores on 37 attempts. Running backs Charles Jones and DeMarcus Robinson, who each averaged over six yards per carry, accounted for 132 of those yards with the former crossing the plane on three occasions and the latter once.

The Wildcat defense was just as dominant, allowing only one first Miner first down in the entire first half that saw K-State take a commanding 31-0 lead into the break. The Miners, who entered the game averaging a gaudy 314 yards per game on the ground, were held to 59 yards total on 31 attempts with almost all their scoring coming in the late stages of the game.

On special teams, wideout Tyler Lockett led a special teams unit that, along with a punt block on defense, totaled 150 yards on five punt returns with 143 of those yards coming from Lockett himself, including two returns of 50-plus yards that was highlighted by a 58-yard return for a score.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- After a 25-yard Matthew McCrane field goal and a 1-yard Jake Waters run, the Wildcats' offense closed out the second quarter with three-straight scoring drives. Jones, first, pushed the lead to 17-0 as he took it to the house from three yards out in the Wildcat formation -- his first of three rushing touchdowns on the day. Not even three minutes later, the Wildcats went up 24-0, as this time there was no doubt about a Lockett punt return as he scampered down the field for a 58-yard score.
- After UTEP picked up its first and only first down of the half, the Wildcats forced another punt that nearly was returned by Lockett again -- this one returned 54 yards. Starting the drive on the UTEP 20-yard line, Jones scored from nine yards out, which included being carried the last three yards by left tackle Cody Whitehair, on K-State's fifth play of the drive to make the score 31-0.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- The Wildcat offense continued its scoring rampage, opening the half with another set of three-straight scoring drives. First, Jones capped off a strong performance with his third rushing scoring of the day, this one a four-yard plunge to make the score 38-0.
- Waters would get a score of his own on the next Wildcat drive, connecting with Zach Trujillo for a 44-yard touchdown to push the score to 45-0 with a little under 10 minutes to play in the third quarter.
- Following UTEP's first touchdown of the afternoon, K-State's response came on the ground via DeMarcus Robinson, who exploded from 40 yards out to give the Wildcats a 52-7 lead.
- Lastly, backup quarterback Joe Hubener led K-State 74 yards down the field in eight plays, concluding the drive himself with a 2-yard score on the ground and a 58-14 Wildcat advantage.

► Game Notes

• Jake Waters threw for four touchdowns to tie the school record, one that has been accomplished 13 times... He now has 25 in his career to move into a tie for eighth place in school history... He also moved into 11th place in school history in career passing yards.

• Waters also rushed 17 times for a game-high 105 yards and a score... It was his second-career 100-yard game as he had 138 yards earlier this season at Iowa State... His total included a career-long 50-yarder.

• Tyler Lockett grabbed 12 receptions to tie for fifth in school history... It was his 11th 100-yard receiving game, which broke the school record... His two scores gave him 21 for his career, which moved him into third place in school history.

• Lockett also moved into 10th place in Big 12 history in career kickoff-return yards.

• Curry Sexton recorded a career-high 128 yards and two touchdowns... He bettered his 121-yard output against Auburn earlier this season.

• Lockett and Sexton paired up for the 10th double 100-yard receiving game in school history... The same duo recorded a double 100-yard game against West Virginia last season... Lockett and Sexton had 253 combined yards, which were the fifth most in school history.

• Morgan Burns and Travis Green each came up with two interceptions... It was the first time two Wildcats had two interceptions in the same game since Tysyn Hartman and Ty Zimmerman each had two against Texas in 2010.

WATERS LEADS NO. 22 K-STATE PAST TECH

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- K-State (4-1, 2-2) continued its hot start to the season, steamrolling Texas Tech (2-3, 0-2), 45-13, in front of 52,726 faithful at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. The Wildcats put in a near flawless effort that saw K-State dominate on both sides of the ball, including a season-high 535 total yards on offense -- 290 through the air and 245 on the ground.

As has been the case for most of the season, the Wildcats were ignited by an impressive performance from quarterback Jake Waters. The senior signal-caller was unstoppable, racking up 395 total yards and five total touchdowns on 24-of-31 passing for 290 yards and 105 yards rushing on 17 carries. Waters, in the process, tied a school record with four passing touchdowns and his total offense was the most by a K-State quarterback since Josh Freeman gained a school-record 501 yards on Oct. 25, 2008 against Oklahoma.

The strong effort from Waters opened up the way for highlight reel showings from several Wildcats. Tyler Lockett and Curry Sexton both eclipsed the century mark as well as hauled in two scores. Lockett nabbed a game-high 12 receptions for 125 yards, while Sexton racked up a career-best 128 yards receiving on nine receptions. On the ground, Charles Jones and DeMarcus Robinson complemented Waters with a combined 122 yards rushing.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- Texas Tech looked primed to take the lead on its opening drive, but saw its drive end with a Morgan Burns interception in the end zone to end an 11-play, 63-yard drive.
- On the subsequent drive, K-State wasted little time taking advantage as Waters connected with Sexton on a 48-yard strike to give the Wildcats a 7-0 lead.
- The Wildcat defense took over from there, throttling Texas Tech to 13 total yards on nine plays in its next two drives. The effort allowed Waters to lead K-State down the field for a score and a 14-0 advantage early in the second quarter on his own 4-yard score, which included a career-long 50-yard run.
- Not even a minute later, K-State's offense was given the ball back thanks to a tipped Webb pass landing in the arms of defensive back Travis Green. K-State would tack on another three points for a 17-0 lead via a 27-yard Matt McCrane field goal.
- Texas Tech responded with a score of its own, making it a 17-7 game, as Webb hit Jakeem Grant from 22 yards out, but the Wildcat offense would close out the half on a 15-yard pass from Waters to Lockett to extend their lead to 24-7.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- Action in the third quarter hit a lull until Waters and Lockett connected for the second time on the night to balloon the K-State lead to 31-7. Scoring from 14 yards out, the 8-play, 66-yard drive saw Waters and Lockett hook up three times for 25 yards.
- K-State's defensive unit was relentless all night, forcing another turnover in the third -- this time Webb misfired deep, giving Green his second interception of the night.
- Unable to turn the turnover into points, Texas Tech responded with a touchdown and a failed 2-point conversion to make the score 31-13 at the start of the fourth quarter.
- Bouncing back from the turnover, Waters and Sexton led K-State to a 38-13 lead thanks to a circus one-handed catch by the latter from 3 yards out.
- K-State would close out the game with yet another score, a 2-yard plunge by Robinson.

Game Notes

• With the win, K-State has won two of the last three meetings against OU, including two-straight in Norman... It is the first time the Wildcats have won two-straight games at Oklahoma since 1994 and 1997... K-State has started 3-0 in conference play for the third time in the last four seasons and the fifth overall under head coach Bill Snyder.

• The Cats took a 21-17 advantage into the locker room at halftime as they extended their streak of consecutive games won when leading at the half to 42... It is the second-longest active streak in the nation behind Oklahoma (46).

• Jake Waters moved into K-State's career top-10 list for completions and total offense... He passed Jonathan Beasley (1996-97, 99-2000) for 10th place in school history in career completions, a mark that now stands at 267... He passed Darrell Dickey (1979-82) for 10th place in school history in career passing yards, a mark that now stands at 4,583.

• Glenn Gronkowski hauled in a 62-yard TD reception... Of his four career scores, three have gone for 50 or more yards.

• Danzel McDaniel came up with his first-career interception and scored on a 5-yard touchdown return to put K-State ahead, 14-7, in the second quarter... It was K-State's first pick-six of the season, while it was K-State's nation-leading 93rd non-offensive touchdown since 1999.

• Jonathan Truman had a career-high 17 tackles, the most by a Wildcat since Josh Buhl had 18 vs. Marshall in 2003.

NO. 14 K-STATE HOLDS OFF NO. 11 OU, 31-30

NORMAN, Okla. -- Despite being out-gained by nearly 150 total yards, No. 14 Kansas State took advantage of several mistakes by No. 11 Oklahoma to pull off a 31-30 victory before 85,019 at Memorial Stadium. The win gave the Wildcats' back-to-back wins in Norman for the first time since 1994 and 1997.

The Sooners threw two interceptions, including one returned five yards for a touchdown by defensive back Danzel McDaniel in the first quarter, and place kicker Michael Hunnicutt missed two field goals, including a 19-yard attempt with just 3:53 remaining, and had an extra point blocked by junior defensive lineman Travis Britz. The block, the fifth of Britz's career to tie him with Raphael Guidry (2011) for the most in school history, proved to be the difference.

On the other hand, the Wildcats did not turn the ball over and converted on all three scoring chances in the red zone. The team also made its lone field goal -- a 27-yard attempt by Matthew McCrane in the third quarter -- and knocked through all four extra point attempts. The squad had just two penalties for 20 yards.

K-State (5-1, 3-0 Big 12) is now 3-0 in Big 12 play for the third time in four seasons and the fifth time overall under head coach Bill Snyder, while Oklahoma (5-2, 2-2 Big 12) lost for the second time in three games and the first time at home this season. It marked just the sixth defeat in 95 home games under head coach Bob Stoops. The Sooners are now 14-2 at home under Stoops versus ranked Big 12 foes with both losses coming to the Wildcats (2012 and 2014).

The Wildcats were once again led by a gritty effort by senior quarterback Jake Waters, who accounted for all three offensive touchdowns (two passing and one rushing). He finished the day with 225 yards through the air on 15-of-23 attempts with two scores, while he added 51 yards and a touchdown on the ground. He moved into the record book in two categories, as he is now 10th in both total yards (4,583) and completions (267) in school history.

Waters' 15 completions went to just three receivers, as seniors Tyler Lockett and Curry Sexton each had tremendous days, while sophomore fullback Glenn Gronkowski took advantage of his one reception rumbling 62 yards for the Wildcats' first score in the first quarter. Sexton led all wide outs with eight catches for 77 yards, while Lockett added six receptions for a team-high 86 yards. On the ground, running backs DeMarcus Robinson and Charles Jones complemented Waters' effort with a combined 112 yards rushing with Robinson averaging 8.2 yards on eight carries.

Defensively, K-State was led by senior linebacker Jonathan Truman's career-best 17 tackles. It was the most tackles by a Wildcat since Josh Buhl had 18 against Marshall in 2003. Truman now has 30 tackles in his last two meetings with the Sooners. McDaniel and fellow defensive back Morgan Burns each recorded interceptions with McDaniel returning his pick five yards for a touchdown. It marked the 93rd non-offensive touchdown by K-State since 1999, which leads the nation.

Oklahoma out-gained K-State, 533-385, including 335 through the air. Quarterback Trevor Knight completed 26-of-32 attempts for 318 yards passing and three touchdowns, while receiver Sterling Shepard had 15 catches for 197 yards with a score. Running back Samaje Perine paced the Sooner ground attack with 89 yards and a touchdown.

► Game Notes

• The victory was the 500th in program history... In the first 93 years of the program (prior to 1989), K-State won 299 games, an average of 3.2 wins per year... In the last 26 years, K-State has totaled 201 victories (7.7 wins per year).

• This was K-State's first shut out since Sept. 17, 2011 vs. Kent State (37-0)... The last time K-State shut out a conference opponent was Nov. 8, 2003, at Iowa State (45-0), while the last time it shut out a conference opponent at home was Nov. 20, 1999, against Missouri (66-0).

• Jake Waters made his 20th career start under center for the Wildcats, going 19-of-30 through the air for 224 yards... He moved into ninth place in K-State history in career passing yards, passing both Paul Watson (3,963; 1988-91) and Darrell Dickey (4,098; 1979-82) as he now has 4,124 yards.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in eight receptions for 103 yards... He moved into third place in school history in career receptions, a mark that now stands at 186, as he passed his former position coach Michael Smith, who had 179 receptions from 1988-91... He also moved into the Big 12 career top 10 for all-purpose yards with 5,214 as he passed Texas Tech's Taurean Henderson (5,121; 2002-05) for 10th.

• Elijah Lee recorded three tackles, including a sack... He now has 3.5 sacks this season to tie for second place in school history among all freshmen (true and redshirt).

• Matthew McCrane was true on all three field goals, which set a new career high.

CATS EARN WIN NO. 500 IN SHUTOUT OF TEXAS

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- K-State notched its fourth-straight victory, shutting out Texas 23-0 in front of 52,879 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. Held to only 196 total yards of offense, the Longhorns were handed their first shutout since 2004 by the No. 11-ranked Wildcats, who notched their 500th victory in program history with the win.

A defensive affair that saw K-State lead 13-0 at the half, the Wildcats stymied a Texas offensive unit that came into the contest averaging 370 yards of total offense per game. Highlighted by strong efforts from Jonathan Truman and Dante Barnett, who had eight and seven tackles, respectively, with the latter also pitching in four pass break ups, K-State allowed 90 yards rushing on 27 attempts en route to its first shutout since Sept. 17, 2011, and first conference shutout since Nov. 8, 2003.

The Wildcats, 6-1 overall, are now 4-0 Big 12 play for the third time in the past four seasons under head coach Bill Snyder, while Texas fell to 3-5 overall and 2-3 in Big 12 play.

Disciplined play once again played a major role in the Cats remaining unbeaten in Big 12 play, as they committed zero turnovers and committed only 3 penalties for 25 yards. On the other hand, Texas coughed up a fumble, as well as failed to convert from fourth-and-one at K-State's 14, and racked up 66 yards on seven penalties. The Longhorns were out-possessed 39:14 to 20:46, and were also unable to convert their two red zone possessions to points, while allowing K-State to go 4-for-4 inside the 20.

Jake Waters once again put in a spirited effort, leading the K-State offense with 224 yards through the air on 19-of-30 passing, including connecting with Tyler Lockett eight times for 103 yards, who moved into third in school history in career receptions (186), and Deante Burton and Curry Sexton four times each. K-State's scoring came via a perfect and career-best three-for-three day by kicker Matt McCrane, as well as short scores on the ground by DeMarcus Robinson and Charles Jones.

The Wildcats, who averaged 3.3 yards on the ground, battled to outgain the Texas offense 367-to-196 in total yards. Longhorn signal-caller Tyrone Swoopes, fresh off of racking up 416 yards of total offense versus Iowa State, was contained to 137 total yards, while halfbacks Johnathan Gray and Malcolm Brown were held to 24 and 21 yards rushing, respectively.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- Forcing a three-and-out on the game's opening drive that included two Texas false start penalties, K-State took advantage of decent field position at its own 31-yard line to grab a 3-0 lead. The 11-play, 67-yard drive chewed up 6:13 off the clock, as McCrane hit a 19-yard field goal.
- Despite consecutive three-and-outs from its offense, the Texas defense limited the damage to another K-State field goal, as McCrane was good from 30 yards.
- The Longhorns' first drive of the second quarter saw them enter the red zone for the first time all game, but a costly holding penalty made it second-and-19, and followed by sack Elijah Lee.
- After another Longhorn three-and-out, the Wildcats pushed their advantage to 13-0, as Robinson cashed in from three yards out.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- Texas saw its first drive of the second half end after a botched reverse resulted in a K-State fumble recovery by Valentino Coleman. The Wildcats would capitalize by tacking on another three points, as McCrane converted from 38 yards out.
- Texas responded with its best drive of the afternoon, pushing the Wildcat defense back to its own 14-yard line. The Longhorns though were unable to come away with points after Jonathan Gray was held to no gain by Jonathan Truman and Dante Barnett on fourth-and-one.
- Capitalizing for a second-straight drive, K-State put the contest out of reach with a Jones one-yard plunge to make the score 23-0.

Game Notes

• Morgan Burns' kickoff-return score extended the Wildcats' nation-leading streak to 10 straight years they have returned a kickoff for a touchdown... It was also the second-straight home game vs. OSU that K-State has returned a kickoff for a score as Tyler Lockett returned one 100 yards vs. the Cowboys in 2012.

• The Cats took a 21-7 advantage into the locker room at halftime... The Wildcats pushed their streak of consecutive games won when leading at the half to 45, which is the second-longest active streak in the nation entering play on Saturday behind Oklahoma (46).

• Jake Waters made his 21st career start under center for the Wildcats, improving to 15-6 as K-State's starter... He moved into eighth place in school history in career completions - a mark that now stands at 305 - as he passed Dennis Morrison (294; 1970-72) and Paul Watson (301; 1988-91)... Waters He also improved his ranking in career total offensive yards as he is now eighth with 5,060.

• Tyler Lockett moved into second place in school history in career receiving yards at 2,877 as he passed Jordy Nelson (2,822; 2005-07)... Lockett's touchdown moved him into a tie for second place in school history with 23.

• Curry Sexton hauled in nine receptions for a career-high 159 yards and a touchdown... Sexton has four career 100-yard receiving games, including three this season... Sexton's previous career high in yards was 128 earlier this season against Texas Tech.

BALANCE KEY IN K-STATE'S WIN OVER OSU

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Kansas State coach Bill Snyder had watched Oklahoma State slice so effortlessly through his defense on the game's opening drive that he wondered whether the tone had been set.

Morgan Burns didn't give him a chance to think anything more of it.

The speedy cornerback returned the ensuing kickoff 86 yards for a touchdown, and that set the No. 11 Wildcats off and running. Jake Waters threw two TD passes, Charles Jones ran for two more scores and Kansas State routed the Cowboys 48-14 on Saturday night.

Curry Sexton had nine catches for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Tyler Lockett had six receptions for 94 yards and a score, helping Kansas State (7-1, 5-0, No. 9 CFP) remain the lone unbeaten team in the Big 12 heading into next week's showdown at 10th-ranked TCU.

After its opening touchdown drive Oklahoma State (5-4, 3-3) never threatened on offense again. The Cowboys managed only a pick-six by Ramon Richards in the fourth quarter in losing their third straight game for the first time since the 2005 season.

Tyreek Hill had 102 yards rushing and a touchdown in place of leading rusher Desmond Roland, who missed the trip following a death in his family. Daxx Garman threw for 148 yards and was picked off twice, one of them when the Cowboys were deep in Kansas State territory.

Oklahoma State had only 48 yards of offense in the second half.

The Wildcats have won five straight since a narrow loss to fourth-ranked Auburn, but the schedule is about to get a lot tougher. After visiting the Horned Frogs, Kansas State must travel to No. 20 West Virginia, with a game at No. 12 Baylor looming at the end of the season.

In other words, the road to college football's inaugural playoff is a bumpy one.

After the Cowboys and Wildcats traded touchdowns in the opening minutes of the game, Kansas State put things away with 38 unanswered points spanning halftime.

Jones started the onslaught with his first touchdown run, and Waters connected with Sexton for a 17-yard score early in the second quarter. Waters then hit Lockett from 20 yards out in the third quarter, giving Kansas State a 28-7 advantage.

On that drive, Lockett passed current Packers star Jordy Nelson for second in school history in yards receiving, and tied Quincy Morgan in career touchdown catches. Lockett has 2,877 yards and 23 TD grabs, trailing only father Kevin Lockett (3,032 yards, 26 TDs) in both categories.

The game truly got out of hand when the Cowboys fumbled on their next possession, and Kansas State needed three plays to go 37 yards for a score. Backup quarterback Joe Hubener added a sneak with 9 1/2 minutes to go make it 45-7, and Matt McCrane's career-long 53-yard field goal in the final minutes gave the few fans left one last reason to cheer.

► Game Notes

• Saturday evening's contest between K-State and TCU was the eighth in series history as each team has won four games apiece... The Horned Frogs defeated the Wildcats for the first time since joining the Big 12 three years ago.

• The 41 points allowed by K-State were a season high and the most since surrendering 41 to Oklahoma last season... The Wildcats surrendered 334 rushing yards, the most since allowing 342 at Baylor in 2012, a span of 24 games.

• K-State extended its scoring streak to 225 consecutive games on a 70-yard touchdown pass from Jake Waters to Tyler Lockett... It is the 11th-longest active streak in the nation and the second-longest in the Big 12.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in 11 receptions for 196 yards and one touchdown... He broke the school's career receiving yardage record with 3,073, breaking the record held by his father, Kevin, who had 3,032 yards from 1993-96... His total yardage this evening ranked as the seventh most in a game in school history and his third highest career total... He carded his 13th career 100-yard receiving game, extending his own school record.

• Lockett and Curry Sexton (114 yards) teamed for the 12th double 100-yard receiving game in school history - including the second this year - while their 310 combined yards are the second most by two receivers in school history (321 by Brandon Banks and Ernie Pierce vs. Oklahoma in 2008).

K-STATE DROPS TOP-10 MATCHUP AT TCU

FORT WORTH, Texas -- Quarterback Trevone Boykin accounted for four touchdowns to help sixth-ranked TCU to a 41-20 win over No. 7 K-State before a crowd of 48,012 at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

The Wildcats (7-2, 5-1 Big 12) saw their five-game winning streak end with the loss, while the Horned Frogs improved to 8-1 overall and 5-1 in Big 12 play.

The setback overshadowed a record-setting night for senior wide receiver Tyler Lockett, who became the school's all-time leading receiver, surpassing his father, Kevin, with his 11-catch, 196-yard performance. Lockett now has 3,073 yards receiving in his career, which breaks the school record of 3,032 yards held by the elder Lockett from 1993-96.

For TCU, Boykin was equally lethal on the ground as through the air, accounting for 342 total yards and four total touchdowns on the night. He rushed for 123 yards on 17 carries with three scores, while he completed 23-of-34 passes for 219 yards and a touchdown. Running back Aaron Green gave the Horned Frogs two 100-yard rushers, as he posted 171 yards rushing on just 18 carries. Overall, TCU out-gained K-State, 553-410, including 334 on the ground.

In addition to Lockett's record-breaking evening, wide out Curry Sexton also enjoyed a solid night with four receptions for 114 yards and a touchdown. He teamed with Lockett for the 12th double 100-yard receiving game in school history, including the second this season, while their 310 combined yards are the second-most by a Wildcat receiving tandem 2008.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- After three straight punts to start the game, TCU opened the scoring with a 2-yard run by Boykin that capped a 6-play, 65-yard drive with a 6:06 left in the first quarter. The score was set up by a 20-yard reception by Josh Doctson and a 34-yard catch by David Porter to the K-State 2.
- TCU quickly made it 14-0 after forcing another Wildcat punt, as Boykin guided a 7-play, 58-yard drive that concluded with a 10-yard touchdown reception by Porter with 1:11 left in the quarter.
- K-State offense finally got on track just before the end of the first quarter, as Jake Waters hooked up with Lockett for a 70-yard catch with just 42 seconds remaining to cap a 3-play, 70-yard drive.
- The teams traded punts until place-kicker Jaden Oberkrom gave TCU a 17-7 lead with 50 seconds before halftime to finish a 10-play drive.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- TCU quickly extended the lead to 24-7 start the second half, as Boykin capped a 5-play, 60-yard drive with a 19-yard touchdown run with 13:36 left in the third quarter.
- K-State stayed within striking distance at 24-14, as Waters hit Sexton for a 15-yard touchdown strike to finish off an 8-play, 67-yard drive with 9:30 remaining in the third quarter. The drive was highlighted by a 21-yard reception by Lockett on second-and-12 from the K-State 31.
- TCU again answered with a quick score, as Green had a 65-yard scoring run on just the drive's third play for a 31-14 lead with 8:39 in the third quarter.
- Oberkrom converted on his second field goal of the game -- a 26-yard attempt -- to give the Horned Frogs a 34-14 advantage just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter before TCU pushed the lead to 41-14 on a Boykin 23-yard touchdown run with 8:39 left in the game.
- The Wildcats finished off the scoring with 1:36 remaining as back-up quarterback Joe Hubener scored on a 6-yard run. The play was set up by a 74-yard pass play from Hubener to Sexton.

Game Notes

• The win marked K-State's 16th season with eight or more victories, including four straight and 14 in head coach Bill Snyder's 23 seasons.

• Tyler Lockett returned a punt 48 yards for a touchdown... It was his second punt-return score this season as he is tied for third in school history... It was also K-State's nation-leading 95th non-offensive touchdown since 1999.

• Jake Waters finished the contest with a career high 400 passing yards... His total ranks sixth in school history, while it was the first 400-yard game by a Wildcat since Josh Freeman in 2008... He has thrown for at least 200 yards in each of the last 11 games, the longest streak by a Bill Snyder-coached quarterback.

• Tyler Lockett recorded his second-straight game with 196 yards, which is tied for the seventh most in school history... He extended his own school record for career receiving yards, a mark that now stands at 3,269, while he moved into second place in career receptions at 213, passing current Green Bay Packer Jordy Nelson (206; 2005-07) and now sitting four shy of the record set by his father, Kevin (1993-96)... He also topped the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the second-straight season, becoming the second Wildcat to accomplish the feat (Quincy Morgan, 1999-2000).

• Matthew McCrane made four field goals to tie for the second most in school history... He broke the school record for points by a freshman with 66, topping Martin Gramatica's 56-point output in 1994.

NO. 11 K-STATE HOLDS OFF WEST VIRGINIA

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. -- Jake Waters threw for a career-high 400 yards and a touchdown, Tyler Lockett returned a punt for a score and No. 12 Kansas State held on to beat sloppy West Virginia, 26-20.

Kansas State rebounded from a loss at TCU to move into a first-place tie with the idle Horned Frogs with two weeks left in the regular season.

Waters was 22-of-34 passing. Lockett caught 10 passes for 196 yards, and Matthew McCrane kicked four field goals.

The Mountaineers have lost three straight after winning four in a row. West Virginia committed four turnovers, with two of them occurring inside the Kansas State 30, and Josh Lambert missed a 40-yard field goal try.

West Virginia's Skyler Howard threw two touchdown passes after Clint Trickett left with what coach Dana Holgorsen said was a concussion. Trickett didn't return after throwing his second interception in the third quarter. Trickett has now gone 10 consecutive quarters without a TD pass.

Lockett returned a punt 43 yards just before halftime to put the Wildcats ahead 17-3. West Virginia punter Nick O'Toole was supposed to kick the ball to the right, but Lockett fielded the ball on the other side of the field and scored untouched.

Howard rallied the Mountaineers on his first series, running 16 yards to set up his 7-yard TD toss to Kevin White that trimmed the Wildcats' lead to 23-10 midway through the third quarter.

Howard engineered a 17-play drive on the next series, but West Virginia turned it over on downs at the Kansas State 26.

After McCrane missed a 22-yard field goal, Howard hit Mario Alford with a short pass, and he went 53 yards untouched to make it 23-17 with 7:23 left in the fourth quarter.

But Michael Molinari's ensuing kickoff went out of bounds. Waters hit Lockett across the middle for 28 yards to the West Virginia 25 and McCrane's fourth field goal made it a two-possession game.

Lambert made a 25-yard field goal with 53 seconds left. West Virginia then tried an onside kick that Kansas State's Glenn Gronkowski recovered.

Waters was Kansas State's only hope on offense. The Wildcats ran 29 times for 1 yard. Kansas State used a big pass play to set up its first two scores.

Kody Cook's 32-yard grab on Kansas State's first drive set up Waters' 7-yard scoring toss to DeMarcus Robinson, and tight end Zach Trujillo's 49-yard catch led to a 36-yard field goal early in the second quarter. It was Trujillo's longest reception of the season.

Before Lambert's miss, White appeared to score on a 22-yard reception that deflected off two other players, but the play was ruled an incompleteness because the ball touched the ground as Kansas State's Dante Barnett tried to come up with it.

The Wildcats also came up empty after Randall Evans' interception when West Virginia's Kyle Rose blocked McCrane's 34-yard field goal try as the first half expired.

Game Notes

• K-State has won 19 of the 23 matchups under Bill Snyder, including each of the last six since Snyder's return in 2009.

• A sold-out crowd of 53,439 fans attended Saturday's game, the third largest crowd in school history... It gave K-State its 20th consecutive sellout dating back to the 2012 season... In addition, the Wildcats' average home crowd of 53,081 fans broke the school record of 52,887 fans in 2013.

• Quarterback Jake Waters threw four passing touchdowns to tie a career high (two times) and a school record (15 times).

• Wide receiver Tyler Lockett broke the school career record for receptions at 222, passing his father, Kevin... His two touchdown catches gave him 26 for his career, which tied the school record, which was also held by Kevin... Lockett extended his own school record for career receiving yards, a mark that now stands at 3,388, while he moved up the Big 12 chart to sixth... Lockett now has 1,193 yards this season, a mark that ranks fourth... He carded his 15th career 100-yard receiving game, extending his own school record... He also improved to fifth in Big 12 history in career all-purpose yards (6,157), while he became the second player in school history to top the 6,000-yard mark in career all-purpose yards (Darren Sproles, 2001-04: 6,812).

• Wide receiver Curry Sexton teamed with Lockett for the third 100-yard game this season and the fourth time in their careers... Of the 12 double 100-yard games in school history, four have come from Lockett and Sexton.

K-STATE DOMINATES SUNFLOWER SHOWDOWN

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Kansas State continued its dominance over Kansas, posting its sixth consecutive win over its archrival with a 51-13 victory at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

With the win, the Wildcats tallied their 13th nine-win season under legendary head coach Bill Snyder, including the third since the start of his second tenure in 2009. The squad has now won 19 of the 23 matchups with the Jayhawks under Snyder, including 18 of the 19 meetings under his direction.

Quarterback Jake Waters accounted for five touchdowns, including four through the air, in just over three quarters of work, completing 21 of 27 passes for 294 yards. Senior receivers Tyler Lockett and Curry Sexton combined for 260 of the 294 yards through the air and three touchdowns.

The running game also redeemed itself against the Jayhawks, netting 194 yards on the ground, including 64 by senior DeMarcus Robinson while Charles Jones had a touchdown.

Lockett, who hauled in nine receptions for 119 yards with two touchdowns, broke the school career record for receptions at 222, passing his father, Kevin, who had 217 catches from 1993-96. His two touchdown catches gave him 26 for his career, which ties the school record with the elder Lockett. He also extended his own school record for career receiving yards.

All told, the offense racked up 505 yards of total offense against Kansas, which marked the second time this season that the Wildcats have eclipsed 500 or more yards of offense.

The defense also did their part in the victory, holding Kansas to 196 total yards with just 57 on the ground and forcing two interceptions of quarterback Michael Cummings.

Place-kicker Matthew McCrane connected on two field goals from distances of 41 and 52. McCrane became the first K-State kicker to connect on two 50-yarders in a single season since Jeff Snodgrass in 2006, while he moved into the single season top 10 list with 14 field goals.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- Forcing a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, Kansas State immediately took control of the game with 6-play, 65-yard drive that was capped by a 1-yard touchdown run by Waters.
- Just three plays later, K-State was once again in the end zone, as Cummings threw an interception on the Jayhawks' second play of its second drive to Dante Barnett. Waters immediately took advantage, completing a 44-yard pass to Lockett to make it 14-0.
- After Randall Evans intercepted Cummings at the K-State 2, Waters orchestrated a 12-play, 74-yard drive that was capped by a 41-yard field goal by McCrane to make it 17-0.
- Kansas got on the board in the second quarter with a 6-play, 54-yard drive that was capped by 27-yard strike from Cummings to Nick Harwell to cut the lead to 17-6 with 8:42 before halftime.
- After Morgan Burns returned the kickoff 65 yards, Charles Jones ran in from 11 yards out to give the Wildcats a 24-6 lead.
- After another 3-and-out, Waters continued the offense's great start by leading an 11-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a Waters-to-Lockett 6-yard pass-and-catch.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- K-State started the second half like it left off, as Waters hit a 13-yard strike to Jones that made it 38-6 just four minutes into the third quarter.
- Kansas cut it to 38-13 at the 6:32 mark with a 19-yard touchdown catch by Trent Smiley.
- The Wildcats again responded with a 37-yard TD reception by Sexton from Waters.
- McCrane made it 48-13 early in the fourth quarter with a 52-yard field goal.
- After a KU drive stalled on its own 37, K-State concluded the scoring with a 39-yard field goal from Jack Cantele.

Game Notes

• The Wildcats finished the regular season third in the Big 12 with a 7-2 record... Over the last four years, Kansas State has finished in the top three of the Big 12 standings three times... Despite the loss, K-State is a Big 12-best 27-9 (.750) since round-robin play started in 2011.

• Jake Waters made his 25th career start under center for the Wildcats... He finished the contest going 22-of-27 through the air for 300 yards and two touchdowns... He has thrown for at least 200 yards in each of the last 12 games, the longest by a Bill Snyder-coached quarterback and the longest streak since Josh Freeman also had a 12-game streak split between the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

• Tyler Lockett broke the school's career receiving touchdown record as he now has 27 and passed his father, Kevin, who had 26 between 1993 and 1996... With the touchdown record, he now owns all three of the school's major career receiving records.

• Lockett's 14 receptions were a career high and tied for the third most in school history... He was one shy of tying the school record held by Jordy Nelson against Missouri State and Fresno State in 2007.

• Lockett carded his 16th career 100-yard receiving game, extending his own school record, while it was his seventh this season to tie his last year's total for second.

• Tight end Zach Trujillo hauled in three passes for a career-high 88 yards, which included a 36-yard touchdown.

NINTH-RANKED K-STATE FALLS AT NO. 5 BAYLOR

WACO, Texas -- Kansas State quarterback Jake Waters racked up over 300 yards of total offense and Tyler Lockett broke the school's career receiving touchdown record, but the ninth-ranked Wildcats came up short to No. 5 Baylor, 38-27, at McLane Stadium.

Waters went 22-of-27 through the air for 300 yards and two touchdowns, including one to Lockett, who finished with 14 receptions for 158 yards. His fourth-quarter score was the 27th receiving touchdown of his career as he broke the previous school record held by his father, Kevin. Additionally, his 14 receptions were one shy of Kansas State's single-game record.

Tight end Zach Trujillo hauled in three passes for a career-high 88 yards, including a 36-yard touchdown that capped off a 14-point second quarter.

Running backs Charles Jones and DeMarcus Robinson combined for 76 yards on 33 carries, including a one-yard run by the former that got the Wildcats on the board.

Senior linebacker Jonathan Truman recorded yet another double-digit tackle game as he came away with 13. Randall Evans had six tackles and picked off Baylor quarterback Bryce Petty in the end zone to halt a potential Bear scoring drive in the first quarter.

Petty led an offense that racked up 584 yards by throwing for 412 yards and one touchdown. Shock Linwood rushed for 91 yards and a score, while Johnny Jefferson rushed for two touchdowns.

HOW IT HAPPENED | First Half

- Baylor received the opening kickoff and marched 81 yards in eight plays on a drive that was capped by a Petty one-yard QB sneak to make the score 7-0.
- K-State managed just one first down on its opening drive and was forced to punt to Baylor, which drove to the Wildcat 9-yard line before Evans picked off a pass in the end zone.
- Kansas State got on the board on a one-yard rush by Jones out of the Wildcat formation which capped a 10-play drive. The Bears returned the favor with an 11-play drive of their own that was finished off by a two-yard run by Jefferson that made the score 21-7.
- The Wildcats pulled back to within a score when Waters found Trujillo on a perfect 36-yard pitch-and-catch late in the second quarter.
- K-State left too much time on the clock, however, as Baylor went 48 yards in 44 seconds before Chris Callahan hit a 46-yarder as time expired to send the Bears into the break, up 24-14.

HOW IT HAPPENED | Second Half

- K-State opened the second half on fire by driving all the way to the BU 7 on the opening possession, but the Wildcats had to settle for a 24-yard field goal by Matthew McCrane.
- Baylor made the Wildcats pay quickly as it was in the end zone two plays later following a 58-yard pass from Petty to Antwan Goodley to put Baylor on top 31-17.
- The Wildcats traded another three for seven as McCrane booted a 47-yarder midway through the third quarter before Jefferson tallied his second score of the game to make it 38-20.
- Lockett's record-breaking touchdown came on an 8-yard pass with 12:41 left in the game as K-State pulled to within 11, but the Wildcats did not get on the board again as a late interception in BU territory allowed Baylor to run out the clock.

Game Notes

• K-State broke the school record for single-season passing yards with 3,736... The previous record was 3,425 by the 2007 team... The Wildcats also broke the school record for single-season field goals with 23, topping the 2007 and 2008 squads (22).

• Tyler Lockett set an Alamo Bowl record in catches (13) and all-purpose yards (249), while those two numbers were also tops in K-State bowl history... It also marked the first time in Alamo Bowl history that two receivers had 10-plus catches and 100-plus yards (Lockett: 13 catches, 164 yards; Curry Sexton: 10 catches, 104 yards).

• Jake Waters' 31 completions were a career high, the most by a Wildcat in a bowl game in school history and tied for fourth in school history... His 338 yards were the most in K-State bowl history.

• Waters broke the school record for single-season passing yards (3,501) as well as season (65.99) and career (64.08) completion percentage.

• Tyler Lockett finished his career with 3,710 receiving yards to rank fifth in Big 12 history... He became the second player in school history with 100 receptions in a season following Jordy Nelson... He also finished second in K-State history in single-season receiving yards and tied for fourth in TDs.

• Curry Sexton recorded the eighth 1,000-yard receiving season in school history and teamed with Lockett to give K-State two players with 1,000 receiving yards in the same season in school history.

K-STATE COMEBACK FALLS SHORT TO UCLA

SAN ANTONIO, Texas -- Quarterback Brett Hundley led No. 14 UCLA to a 31-6 halftime lead and the Bruins held off No. 11 Kansas State 40-35 on Friday night in the Alamo Bowl.

Kansas State (9-4) scored 22 of the first 25 points in the second half, cutting it to 34-28 on quarterback Jake Waters' 1-yard run with 4:54 left.

Paul Perkins countered for UCLA (10-3) with a 67-yard run with 2:20 to go. Waters threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Lockett with 1:21 left, but UCLA recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Perkins ran for 194 yards on 20 carries.

Lockett had 13 catches for 164 yards for Kansas State.

Waters was 31 of 48 for 338 yards, but was sacked seven times -- twice by Butkus Award winner Eric Kendricks -- and threw two interceptions and lost a fumble.

Hundley ran for 96 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries and passed for 136 yards. UCLA coach Jim Mora has said Hundley is forgoing his senior season to enter the NFL draft.

UCLA raced to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter, with Hundley scoring on runs of 10 and 28 yards. The Bruins outgained Kansas State 218-4 and had a 9-1 edge in first downs in the quarter.

In the second quarter, Perkins had a 32-yard touchdown run and Hundley threw a 7-yard scoring pass to Dave Lucien. The Bruins sacked Waters five times in the half.

The Wildcats opened the second half with a 17-play drive, capped by Waters' 3-yard touchdown pass to Lockett and a successful 2-point conversion -- also from Waters to Lockett. After forcing a fumble by Perkins, K-State took over at UCLA's 21 and scored on DeMarcus Robinson's 2-yard run.

Hundley had a 40-yard run on a third-and-11 play to set up Ka'imi Fairbairn's 44-yard field goal that gave UCLA a 34-21 lead late in the third quarter.

1982 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

WISCONSIN 14, K-STATE 3
INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.
DECEMBER 11, 1982 • 49,523

Wisconsin quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes and the Badgers overcame an early Kansas State lead for a hard-earned 14-3 victory over the Wildcats in the seventh annual Independence Bowl before an announced crowd of 49,523.

The low-scoring game was played in cold and wet conditions as a 23 mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and made things difficult for both offenses.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The Wildcats' lead was short-lived, however. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones for a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter, when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions, but was unable to score. One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone while the other was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line when K-State could not convert on fourth down.

Darrell Ray Dickey completed just 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the game for 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year Jim Dickey's Wildcat squad.

1993 COPPER BOWL

[20] K-STATE 52, WYOMING 17
ARIZONA STADIUM • TUCSON, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 29, 1993 • 49,075

Kansas State put the finishing touches on one of the finest football seasons in school history with a 52-17 domination of Wyoming before 49,075 in the 1993 Copper Bowl.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run and Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal before K-State drove 76 yards on its third possession to take a 16-3 edge on a Chad May TD plunge.

All-American Andre Coleman closed out the first half with a 68-yard punt return to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the break then blew things open with a 61-yard touchdown catch just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception before reserve running back Leon Edwards added a 13-yard touchdown run and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a score.

1994 ALOHA BOWL

BOSTON COLLEGE 12, [11] K-STATE 7
ALOHA STADIUM • HONOLULU, HAWAII
DECEMBER 25, 1994 • 44,862

Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff in the 1994 Aloha Bowl, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 before 44,862 at Aloha Stadium.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

BC couldn't distance itself from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the game's second play. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be their only touchdown of the day.

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied, 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The Wildcats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the Wildcats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

1995 HOLIDAY BOWL

[10] K-STATE 54, [25] COLORADO STATE 21
JACK MURPHY STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
DECEMBER 29, 1995 • 51,051

For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of 51,051 fans in the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all K-State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

On the defensive side of the ball, Mario Smith's pair of interceptions earned him MVP honors.

1997 COTTON BOWL

[5] BYU 19, [14] K-STATE 15
COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1997 • 71,928

An estimated 45,000 K-State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard TD pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, BYU quarterback Steve Sarkisian tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh drove the Wildcats to the BYU 12-yard line with about one minute remaining. But Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, BYU scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final play of the first half when Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State's Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room, giving Wildcats a shot for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off giving K-State an 8-5 halftime lead.

1997 FIESTA BOWL

[9] K-STATE 35, [14] SYRACUSE 18
SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 31, 1997 • 69,367

Kansas State capped one of its best seasons in school history with a 35-18 win over No. 14 Syracuse in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Quarterback Michael Bishop stole the show by throwing for four TDs on 14-of-23 passing for 317 yards.

Darnell McDonald was on the receiving end of seven Bishop passes and turned them into a school-record 206 yards and three scores. His 77-yard reception in the fourth quarter was the longest in Fiesta Bowl history.

After allowing Syracuse to jump out to a 3-0 lead on the first of Nate Trout's three field goals, Bishop led the Wildcats to three consecutive TDs in the second quarter.

The first came following a failed fake field goal attempt by Syracuse, culminating in a 19-yard pass to McDonald. Bishop followed with a 12-yard TD dash on K-State's next possession, and wrapped up the first-half scoring with a 28-yard completion to Justin Swift on a tight end screen.

SU scored 12 points in the final 2:18 to close within 21-15 at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Bishop and the Wildcats put away the Orangemen behind 77-yard and 41-yard touchdowns to McDonald.

Bishop was named the Offensive Player of the Game, while Travis Ochs was Defensive Player of the Game.

1998 ALAMO BOWL

PURDUE 37, [4] K-STATE 34

ALAMODOME • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

DECEMBER 29, 1998 • 60,780

With more than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheering the Wildcats on, unranked Purdue shocked No. 4 K-State, 37-34, in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, the teams exploded for 71 points over the final three periods. Purdue was the first to get things going, taking a 17-7 halftime lead courtesy of a pair of Drew Brees TD passes and a 25-yard Travis Dorsch field goal.

Fumble recoveries in the end zone by both squads and another Dorsch field goal with four seconds to go in the third staked Purdue to a 27-13 lead heading into the final stanza.

But the Wildcats put together a furious rally over the final 15 minutes. David Allen scored from three yards out to get things going before Michael Bishop hit Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike that pulled the Cats within a field goal at 30-27. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop connected with Justin Swift for a 2-yard touchdown and a 34-30 K-State lead.

Brees then engineered an 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard pass to Isaac Jones to put the Boilermakers ahead for good at 37-34 with 30 seconds remaining.

1999 HOLIDAY BOWL

[7] K-STATE 24, WASHINGTON 20

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

DECEMBER 29, 1998 • 57,118

Kansas State used a stiff defense and three rushing touchdowns by quarterback Jonathan Beasley to defeat Washington, 24-20, in the 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Trailing 20-17 late in the third quarter, the Wildcats embarked on a 20-play, 92-yard drive that took 9 minutes, 54 seconds off the clock to score the eventual game-winning touchdown. The drive was set up after senior Lamar Chapman picked off Marques Tuiasosopo.

K-State took a 17-13 lead on its first possession of the second half, scoring on an 11-yard run by Beasley, the game's Offensive MVP. UW struck back with Maurice Shaw scoring on a 5-yard run to cap a 73-yard drive.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair that saw the Huskies take a 13-10 lead into the locker room.

Washington got on the board first when John Anderson booted his first of two first-half field goals just 3:32 into the contests. K-State quickly responded as Beasley drove the Cats 47 yards on the ensuing possession, calling his own number from one yard out to cap the eight-play drive.

A 41-yard Jamie Rheem field goal pushed K-State's lead to 10-6, but the Huskies would put the half's final points on the board on a Pat Conniff 3-yard TD run.

2001 COTTON BOWL

[11] K-STATE 35, [21] TENNESSEE 21

COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS

JANUARY 1, 2001 • 63,465

Jonathan Beasley threw two touchdowns and rushed for another as Kansas State rolled to a 35-21 win over Tennessee in the 65th annual Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Beasley, the game's Offensive MVP, had touchdown passes of 56 and 10 yards to Quincy Morgan to key a rally in the second quarter. The touchdown throws, which came three minutes apart, turned a 7-7 tie into a 21-7 Wildcat lead.

Tennessee pulled within seven points before halftime when Jabari Greer scored on a 78-yard interception return.

But Kansas State got two touchdown runs from Josh Scobey in the third quarter to regain its cushion. Scobey finished with 147 yards on a career-high 28 carries, the most yards ever by a Wildcat in a bowl game.

Travis Henry's 81-yard run late in the game was the final Volunteers score. Henry finished with 180 yards on 17 carries.

Beasley totaled 210 yards on a 13-for-27 passing. He also rushed for 98 yards on 17 carries and put the Wildcats on the scoreboard first with a 14-yard run late in the first quarter.

Senior defensive end Chris Johnson was the Defensive MVP after leading the Wildcats with four tackles, including two sacks of Tennessee QB Casey Clausen, who completed just seven passes while tossing three interceptions.

2001 INSIGHT.COM BOWL

[18] SYRACUSE 26, K-STATE 3

BANK ONE BALLPARK • PHOENIX, ARIZ.

DECEMBER 29, 2001 • 40,028

Syracuse running back James Munro rushed for 112 yards and three touchdowns to lead Syracuse to a 26-3 victory over Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl at Phoenix's Bank One Ballpark.

Munro scored on runs of 65, 1 and 1 yard to pace the Orange offense. SU added touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 52-yard pass from Robin Anderson to Johnnie Morant.

Junior Marc Dunn led the Wildcats with 151 yards passing in relief of starter Eli Roberson. Dunn completed 12-of-25 passes with one interception. Roberson was 2-for-15 for 70 yards for the Wildcats, who were sacked five times.

Munro opened the scoring on his 65-yard run midway through the first quarter.

Kansas State responded just two minutes later with a 29-yard field goal by freshman Joe Rheem. The drive was sparked by a 47-yard pass from Roberson to Aaron Lockett and a 27-yard carry by Scobey.

Syracuse took advantage of a fumble deep in Wildcat territory early in the second quarter. Munro scored from the 1-yard line to convert the turnover, but the extra-point was blocked by Josh Buhl.

On the next play from scrimmage, Willie Ford got the first of his two interceptions to set up the Orangemen again. Two plays later, Munro went over from the 1-yard line again, but Buhl again blocked the extra-point.

2002 HOLIDAY BOWL

[6] K-STATE 34, ARIZONA STATE 27

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

DECEMBER 27, 2002 • 58,717

Derrick Evans caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Eli Roberson with 1:15 left in the game to lift Kansas State to its first and only lead as the Wildcats defeated Arizona State, 34-27, in the 2002 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Evans' catch completed a K-State comeback from deficits of 10-0, 20-7 and 27-20. Roberson, voted the Offensive MVP of the game, rushed for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 32, 3 and 1 yards, and totaled 215 yards through the air on 11-for-28 passing.

Roberson's 32-yard sprint came with just 54 seconds left in the second half and pulled the Wildcats within 20-14. Just 31 seconds earlier, Mike Barth converted on a 39-yard field goal to give ASU its largest lead of the game at 20-7.

K-State tied the game at 20-20 early in the fourth quarter when Roberson went in from three yards out. But Sun Devil quarterback Andrew Walter, who threw for 293 yards on 28-for-57 passing, found Mike Williams for a 10-yard score to put ASU back ahead on its next possession.

The Wildcats responded with an 80-yard drive on its next opportunity, setting up Roberson's 1-yard touchdown dive that tied the game again at 27-27 with 6:41 left, then forced a Sun Devil punt that Terence Newman returned 27 yards. From there, K-State needed just seven plays to cover 59 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

2004 FIESTA BOWL

[7] OHIO STATE 35, [8] K-STATE 28

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.

JANUARY 2, 2004 • 73,425

Kansas State started slowly but finished with a fury in the 33rd Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. But it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-point third-quarter deficit as the Wildcats lost a hard fought 35-28 decision to Ohio State in their first ever BCS bowl game at Sun Devil Stadium.

Trailing 35-14 heading into the fourth quarter, Ayo Saba scored from three yards out and closed the game to 14 points. Eli Roberson's second rushing touchdown with just 2:47 to go then pulled K-State within a touchdown.

After recovering the ensuing on-sides kick, the Wildcats were flagged for being offside, forcing a re-kick. This time the Buckeyes recovered at the K-State 36.

But the Wildcats held and got the ball back at their own 10-yard line with 1:12 to play. A 21-yard completion to Davin Dennis moved the ball to the K-State 26. On the next play Roberson connected with Jermaine Moreira for 26 yards to the OSU 48 to get Kansas State within striking distance.

However, Roberson's desperation pass from midfield was batted down at the 2, allowing Ohio State to escape with its second straight Fiesta Bowl victory.

2006 TEXAS BOWL

[16] RUTGERS 37, K-STATE 10

RELIANT STADIUM • HOUSTON, TEXAS
DECEMBER 28, 2006 • 52,210

Kansas State hung with No. 16 Rutgers for 30 minutes, but the Scarlet Knights scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to hand the Wildcats a 37-10 loss in the inaugural Texas Bowl before 52,210 fans at Reliant Stadium.

Ray Rice, the Texas Bowl MVP, rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two TD passes, for the Scarlet Knights, who claimed their first bowl victory in 137 seasons of intercollegiate football.

Brown's two TD catches came in the opening period and staked Rutgers to a quick 14-0 lead.

Kansas State answered with a 44-yard field goal by Jeff Snodgrass and a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown by Yamon Figurs that was the longest in K-State bowl history to close the gap to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

But Jeremy Ito connected on a 37-yard field goal to close the half and linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a score on the first play from scrimmage of the second half to put RU ahead 24-10.

Rice sprinted 46-yards for his lone touchdown of the game on the Scarlet Knights' next possession before Ito closed out the scoring with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals for the final margin.

2010 PINSTRIPE BOWL

YANKEE STADIUM • BRONX, N.Y.
DECEMBER 30, 2010 • 38,274

The first Pinstripe Bowl turned into a home run derby.

Delone Carter ran for 198 yards and two touchdowns, Marcus Sales caught three long TD passes and Syracuse got some help from a celebration penalty on Kansas State to beat the Wildcats 36-34 on Thursday at Yankee Stadium.

Adrian Hilburn slipped a tackle and raced to a 30-yard touchdown catch with 1:13 remaining to pull Kansas State within two. Hilburn saluted the crowd behind the visitor's dugout and was flagged 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct, which pushed the 2-point conversion attempt back to the 17-yard line.

Carson Coffman overthrew Aubrey Quarles in the end zone, and when Kansas State (7-6) couldn't come up with the onside kick, Syracuse (8-5) only had to take a knee to win a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

Daniel Thomas ran for three touchdowns for Kansas State, which was making its first bowl appearance since 2006.

In a bowl season filled with blowouts, the first bowl game in New York in 48 years turned out to be a hit.

2012 COTTON BOWL

[6] ARKANSAS 29, [8] K-STATE 16

COWBOYS STADIUM • ARLINGTON, TEXAS
JANUARY 6, 2012 • 80,956

Junior Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein tied the Big 12 single-season for rushing touchdowns and the NCAA single season record by a quarterback but the No. 8 Wildcats came up short in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in a 29-16 loss to No. 6 Arkansas.

Kansas State (10-3) was trying to match its school record with 11 victories, but still finished a surprising season in Snyder's second Wildcats turnaround. K-State won 11 games six times during a seven-year span in Snyder's first tenure before his three-year retirement, and almost reached that mark again in his third season back.

The Cotton Bowl was the only non-BCS game with both teams in the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings -- Arkansas came in sixth, Kansas State eighth. It also is the only bowl featuring the SEC vs. the Big 12, the top two conferences in the BCS computer rankings.

2013 FIESTA BOWL

[7] OREGON 35, [5] K-STATE 17

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM • GLENDALE, ARIZ.
JANUARY 3, 2013 • 70,242

De'Anthony Thomas returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for the first of his two touchdowns, Marcus Mariota accounted for three scores, and No. 5 Oregon raced past No. 7 Kansas State 35-17 at the Fiesta Bowl.

Oregon (12-1) jumped out to a 15-0 lead behind Thomas' opening return and 23-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter.

Kansas State (11-2) tried to bull its way behind Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein, only to get overwhelmed by the speedy Ducks, who got some help with an obscure 1-point safety on a blocked extra-point kick.

Mariota added a 24-yard touchdown pass to Kenjon Barner in the second quarter and ran for a 2-yard score in the third to give Oregon its second straight BCS bowl win after beating Wisconsin in last year's Rose Bowl.

Klein threw two interceptions and had 30 yards rushing on 13 carries.

2013 BUFFALO WILD WINGS BOWL

K-STATE 31, MICHIGAN 14

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 28, 2013 • 53,284

Jake Waters threw for 271 yards and connected with Tyler Lockett on three touchdowns, leading Kansas State to its first bowl victory in 11 years, 31-14, over Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

K-State scored on its first three possessions, all passes from Waters to Lockett, and its defense dominated Michigan to end a five-game bowl losing streak. The Wildcats to their first bowl victory since the 2002 Holiday Bowl.

Michigan's defense had trouble stopping Kansas State most of the night, giving up 420 total yards.

Kansas State finished the season strong after some early difficulties by winning five of its final six games while scoring at least 31 points in each.

The Wildcats set the tone on their opening drive, grinding out 75 yards in 15 plays and 7:51 off the clock. Lockett capped it with a 6-yard touchdown catch after the Wildcats' line gave Waters just enough time to get the throw off against Michigan's blitz. Lockett set up the next drive with a 40-yard kickoff return and capped with a 29-yard touchdown catch, set up by Waters' pump fake that gave him separation behind Michigan's defense.

Kansas State raced down the field again on its next drive, setting up Lockett's third touchdown, an 8-yarder from Waters that put the Wildcats up 21-6 at halftime.

2015 ALAMO BOWL

[14] UCLA 40, [11] K-STATE 35

ALAMODOME • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
JANUARY 2, 2015 • 60,517

Kansas State faught back from a 31-6 halftime deficit by holding UCLA to just nine second-half points, but it wasn't enough as 14th-ranked Bruins held on for a 40-35 loss in the Alamo Bowl.

K-State scored 22 of the first 25 points in the second half, cutting it to 34-28 on quarterback Jake Waters' 1-yard run with 4:54 left.

Paul Perkins countered for UCLA with a 67-yard run with 2:20 to go. Waters threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Lockett with 1:21 left, but UCLA recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Perkins ran for 194 yards on 20 carries, while Lockett had 13 catches for 164 yards for Kansas State.

Waters was 31-of-48 for 338 yards, but was sacked seven times and threw two interceptions.

K-State opened the second half with a 17-play drive, capped by Waters' 3-yard pass to Lockett and a successful 2-point conversion. After forcing a fumble by Perkins, K-State took over at UCLA's 21 and scored on DeMarcus Robinson's 2-yard run.

BILL SNYDER

Class of 2015

Bill Snyder, the architect of the “greatest turnaround in the history of college football,” will become just the fourth person in the history of college football to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach as the legendary K-State coach is part of the National Football Foundation’s College Football Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2015.

A five-time national coach of the year honoree and seven-time conference coach of the year recipient, Snyder has compiled an amazing 187-94-1 record in his 23 years as the helm of the Wildcat program. He ranks 32nd all-time in victories among FBS coaches and continues to climb the ladder with each win. Called the “coach of the century” by hall of fame coach Barry Switzer, Snyder’s accomplishments at K-State are nearly unthinkable considering what he inherited during his first tour of duty beginning in 1989. The Wildcat program was in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired and had been just one bowl game in its first 93 seasons. During a the span of 11-straight bowl seasons (1993-2003), Snyder’s Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories - a staggering 10 wins per season - and making K-State the nation’s second winningest program over that period. His first tenure included a Big 12 Championship in 2003 in a 35-7 win over No. 1 Oklahoma, while his 1998 team held a No. 1 ranking.

Following a three-year hiatus, Snyder returned to the sidelines in 2009, and it has been more of the same as his teams have accumulated a 47-24 record through six seasons and currently lead the Big 12 in conference wins since 2011 with 27.

The Wildcats are in the midst of five-straight bowl seasons, including a pair of 10-win campaigns in 2011 (10-3) and 2012 (11-2). The 2012 Wildcats captured the program’s second Big 12 Championship and held another No. 1 national ranking. After turning 75 years old on Oct. 7, 2014 - which qualified him to be included on the 2015 ballot - Snyder’s team promptly traveled to No. 11 Oklahoma and pulled out a 31-30 victory, a key component of the Wildcats’ nine-win season in 2014.

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker • 1996-99 • Class of 2012

Former Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau became just the second Wildcat football player and first under head coach Bill Snyder to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He was enshrined as a member of the Class of 2012.

Simoneau was a Consensus All-American and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 1999 en route to being the runner-up for the Butkus Award that same season. A K-State Ring of Honor inductee and a four-year starter for Snyder, Simoneau led the Wildcats to a 42-7 record during his career while totaling 400 career tackles and a school-record 251 unassisted stops. K-State also collected a 28-4 Big 12 record during Simoneau’s career, won two Big 12 North titles and appeared in four straight bowl games.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker • 1974-77 • Class of 2002

Gary Spani became the first K-State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (2000) and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (2004), Spani was Kansas State’s first-ever consensus All-America in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles three straight season and was twice named the team’s most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the K-State career record book as the program’s all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110).

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons.

CHARLES BACHMAN

Head Coach • 1920-27 • Class of 1978

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Jan. 8, 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman’s eight-year won-loss record at K-State was 33-23-9.

LYNN “PAPPY” WALDORF

Head Coach • 1934 • Class of 1966

Lynn O. “Pappy” Waldorf coached K-State to its first football championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

The No. 11 jersey of quarterbacks Lynn Dickey and Steve Grogan was retired by Kansas State to honor the pair, who each donned the number while leading the Wildcats during some of the school's most successful football seasons. It is the only time in school history that a number has been retired in any sport.

11 • LYNN DICKEY

Quarterback • 1968-70

Lynn Dickey, a native of Osawatomie, Kansas, spent most of his NFL career with the Green Bay Packers but also played several seasons with the Houston Oilers. He threw for more than 21,000 yards with the Packers, including 4,458 yards in 1983 which at the time ranked second in NFL history.

Dickey still holds numerous K-State passing records and ranks third on the Big Eight's all-time list with 6,208 career passing yards. He is also fifth on K-State's all-time total offense chart.

Dickey was chosen as the first-team quarterback on the all-time Big Eight football team in 1995 and is a charter member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1990). He was inducted into the State of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

MO LATIMORE

The longest-tenured assistant coach in school history

DID YOU KNOW?

Of the top 18 crowds in school history, 15 have come over the last two seasons

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 48th season of Wildcat football this fall.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

Multi-million dollar upgrades to the Vanier Sports Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, including a 23' X 61' ProStar VideoPlus display in the south end zone in 2006, and a complete upgrade of the lower bowl seating for 2007 are some of the major additions to the facility over the last several years.

Bill Snyder Family Stadium's most recent changes include a new playing surface - AstroTurf's Gameday Grass 3D infill system - and new restroom additions to the east side view level in 2011, a $75 million project to construct the new West Stadium Center in 2013, while the most recent change is the new Vanier Football Complex, with substantial completion in time for the 2015 season.

The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 44-year history of the stadium:

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of AstroTurf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It houses all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result is one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure now carries the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kan.

1991: New AstroTurf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis messageboard.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface is installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and features an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and is the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that includes a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

2006: New video and message boards are installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium receives a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures a whopping 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium is completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminium benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase I of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC includes new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices will replace the current west side facilities. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor will be included on the main Concourse Level.

2013: Construction on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - West Stadium Center completed in time for the start of the season.

2014: Construction began on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - the new Vanier Football Complex - following the completion of the season.

2015: Construction on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - the new $65 million Vanier Football Complex - completed in time for the season.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

WILDCAT NICKNAME

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, Kansas State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats."

K-STATE COLORS

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver is also a common second or third color. Former head basketball coach Cotton Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time. The term "Purple Pride," which is often used in association with K-State athletics, was given rise during the tenure of head football coach Vince Gibson (1967-74).

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

FIRST GAME

History has forgotten the actual score of the first football game played at the school now called Kansas State University.

On Dec. 2, 1892, a team from Kansas State Agricultural College played its first game. At "quarter back" was a sophomore from Colfax, Ill., named A.D. Benson. Benson had introduced his schoolmates to football when he arrived at KSAC in 1891.

The sport, however, was quickly banned by the college. Five years later, the school's newspaper, the K-State Industrialist, remarked, "It is hoped that our students have the good sense to play even football without violence, but the game as sometimes played is next to barbarism."

In 1896, KSAC played the first game now recorded in K-State's list of all-time scores. A team coached by Ira Pratt traveled to Fort Riley on Thanksgiving Day and lost to a squad comprised of soldiers, 14-0. Later that fall, KSAC played Fort Riley again, and this time the game ended in a 6-6 tie. It was during the 1896 season that KSAC adopted the mascot "Aggies," and selected Royal Purple as the school's official color.

FIRST NIGHT GAME

On Oct. 7, 1932, Kansas State played its first night football game in school history. The team traveled to Salina, Kan., to play Kansas Wesleyan on a Friday evening and won 52-6, before a crowd of about 4,000. All-time great Ralph Graham, known as The Rammer, scored 28 points on four touchdowns and four extra points.

Fifteen years later, on Sept. 20, 1947, K-State played its first night game in Manhattan, losing 12-0 to Oklahoma State at Memorial Stadium.

K-STATE SLOGANS

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" are just a few. The slogan "Every Man A Wildcat" was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box.

Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State," which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

POWERCAT LOGO

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university changing.

Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the K-State football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

Previous logos used by the athletics department included a line drawing of a wildcat head and the "Willie the Wildcat" that is used today by the Alumni Association.

WILLIE WILDCAT

Willie, a student bedecked in an oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheerleading coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student portraying Willie is kept secret.

TOUCHDOWN I-XI

In 1922, Hall-of-Famer Charles Bachman asked alumni to consider donating an actual Wildcat to the school to serve as a mascot. KSAC alumni Herbert R. Groome and John E. McCoy, both veterinarians in Twin Falls, Idaho, donated "Touchdown I" to the school shortly after the animal was nursed back to health under their care. The bobcat had an encounter with a porcupine, and his face and throat were punctured by numerous quills. Unfortunately, Touchdown I never fully recovered from its fight, dying of pneumonia shortly after arriving in Manhattan.

Although several bobcats served as Kansas State's wildcat mascot since being introduced in 1922, the animals no longer attend K-State games. Touchdown XI, the 11th in the line, was kept at Manhattan's Sunset Zoo.

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of K-State athletics. In the fall of 1968, the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to KSU became a second fight song.

TROPHY GAME

The Governor's Trophy Game between Kansas State University and the University of Kansas was initiated in 1969 by Gov. Robert Docking. The original traveling trophy was retired following the 1996 K-State victory. A new trophy was introduced following the 48-16 win at Manhattan in 1997. The trophy is presented to the winning team and coaches in the winner's dressing room immediately following each year's game.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT... FIRST DOWN!

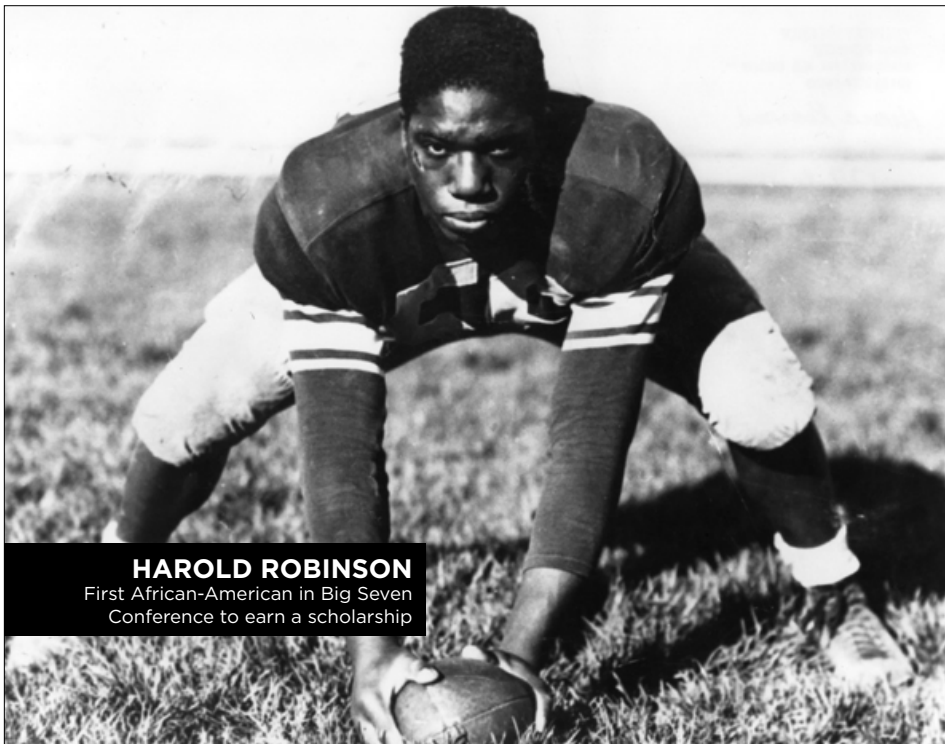

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

ROBINSON BREAKS COLOR BARRIER

In 1948, Harold Robinson graduated from Manhattan High and prepared to become K-State's first black student-athlete. After sitting out the 1948 season as all freshmen were required, K-State head coach Ralph Graham in 1949 made Robinson the first African-American to receive an athletic scholarship in the Big Seven Conference.

Robinson, who passed away in May 2006, was named an all-conference center in 1950, his junior season, despite playing for a 1-9-1 team. Robinson gained the considerable respect of opponents and fans despite the smoldering racism that was so pervasive during his playing days. He wasn't allowed to stay at the same hotel as his teammates on many road trips, instead staying in private residences. Hoyt Givens did not play in 1949, but joined Robinson on the varsity in 1950 as a non-scholarship player.

Following Robinson as a barrier breaker in Big Seven baseball in 1952 was Earl Woods, the father of golf superstar Tiger Woods. Other K-Staters instrumental in breaking down the color barrier were Gene Wilson in basketball in 1952, Veryl Switzer, Norman Mills, Clifford Bizek and Herman Wilson in track in 1953 and Don Harris in tennis in 1952. Switzer earned All-America honors in football and went on to be the fourth player selected in the NFL draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1954.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT...

RING OF HONOR

Kansas State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at K-State.

KEN OCHS COURAGE AWARD

Ken Ochs was a 6-foot, 208-pound long shot to make the K-State football team in 1966. The La Crosse, Kan., native made the K-State team but suffered a leg injury during that spring's drills. After his leg didn't respond to treatment, it was discovered that Ochs had a malignant bone tumor. His leg was amputated six inches above the knee. Ochs returned to K-State and earned his degree in the spring of 1969. By then, he was a manager for the football team, and the program had named an honor for personal courage in his name. Ochs died of cancer Oct. 3, 1969.

HARLEY DAY

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urlick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring, take the short ride around the playing surface of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, where they are greeted by a boisterous crowd.

GOLDEN CATS

One of the truly unique aspects of Kansas State football is the Golden Cats Program - a group of former K-State football players, managers, trainers, coaches and support staff who make contributions directly to the football program. The primary purpose is to bring together all of the past members of the football program, to provide opportunities for them to reunite and spend time with teammates of the past, support the student-athletes who presently represent their program and help unite Kansas State in a way never accomplished before.

The Golden Cat program was developed in 1990 with each Golden Cat making a financial contribution to help assist with capital improvements related to football. The Golden Cat Club is the strongest team-sport support group at K-State. The club has provided strong financial assistance through the purchase of such things as weight equipment, rehab equipment and computers for the Academic Learning Center.

For the Golden Cats, it's a great opportunity to give back to the program, plus they can witness first-hand how their contributions have enhanced the opportunities of football student-athletes. In turn, the Golden Cats truly remain a part of the program, while receiving various privileges such as the brass name plates, pregame tailgate parties, Golden Cat clothing, video tapes, game program recognition and other memorabilia.

It's a great time to be a K-Stater! From residence halls to athletics facilities to academic buildings, the Manhattan campus is in the midst of a building boom. K-State will soon look considerably different in many exciting ways.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

“Our next five years will be very busy, but we will gain great visibility and recognition within the state and nation, and we will be firmly on the path toward becoming a Top 50 public research university.”

-- K-State President Kirk Schulz

We're working toward becoming nationally recognized as a Top 50 public research university by 2025. To accomplish this, the university is working to boost total research and development expenditures, the total endowment, and the number of undergraduate students involved in research, among other goals. In many ways K-State is already well on its way to meeting this goal. Check out the progress at: k-state.edu/2025.

History and Location

Established in 1863, K-State was the nation's first operational land-grant university. As such, the university's mission has always been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond. K-State is governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Located in northern Manhattan, Kansas, the 644-acre main campus boasts historic limestone buildings. This classic college town of more than 50,000 residents is growing steadily, attracting local and national businesses. In fact, Forbes magazine rated K-State as No. 3 in the nation for best small places for businesses and careers in 2013.

Manhattan is 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus an hour west in Salina, offering master's, bachelor's and associate degrees.

K-State's newest campus in Olathe, a part of the Kansas City metro area, offers master's and doctoral degrees and research for professionals seeking career advancement in a variety of science-based fields. K-State also has numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in Kansas and Nebraska.

K-State is proud to host the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966, the series has featured more than 160 nationally prominent speakers. Past speakers include presidents Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, George W. Bush and Bill Clinton, as well as U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Sonia Sotomayor.

Student Achievement

K-State students have an outstanding record when it comes to winning national competitions. K-Staters have placed in the top five in areas like robotics, debate, forensics, aviation, construction science, architecture, engineering, leadership and more.

The university also ranks highly in its total of prestigious scholarship winners, including Goldwater and Truman scholarships.

Academic Recognition

- The College of Engineering offers the only engineering graduate program in Kansas to be included in U.S. News & World Report's 2014 Best Graduate School rankings.
- Kansas State University is a program site for First Scholars, a national program aimed at increasing graduation rates among first-generation students. The Suder Foundation awarded the university $850,000 to cover student scholarships and start-up costs to launch the program.
- For the fourth year in a row, the College of Business Administration's sales program was named one of the top programs in the country by the Sales Education Foundation. The program is offered through the college's National Strategic Sales Institute.
- The College of Human Ecology offers the only graduate certificate in financial therapy in the nation. The personal financial planning program provides training for both financial and mental health professionals.
- For the 17th time in the last 18 years, the quarter-scale tractor design team won or placed in the top three at the American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers International Quarter-Scale Tractor Student Design Competition.
- Two programs offered by the College of Architecture, Planning & Design are rated among the Top 10 in the nation in a survey by DesignIntelligence magazine. The graduate program in landscape architecture is No. 8 in the nation. The graduate interior architecture and product design program ranks No. 7 in the nation.

HOLTON HALL

- The Princeton Review, Forbes magazine and U.S. News & World Report all rank Kansas State University as one of America's best public universities.

- The university's Hale Library ranks as the No. 4 most amazing college library in the nation, according to the Collegerank.net.

- Kansas State received $140.5 million in research funding during the 2014 fiscal year, and was granted a record 14 patents.

- K-State is home to more than 90 centers and institutes that produce groundbreaking research. This includes four Feed the Future Innovation Labs funded by the U.S. Agency for International Development.

- More than $230 million in financial assistance is distributed to students each year, and $26 million in scholarships.

Building the Future

- The Chester E. Peters Recreation Complex underwent a $23 million renovation that includes more workout space, a 40-foot indoor rock climbing wall and relaxation lounges.

- A new residence hall on the west side of campus will hold 540 beds, while a connecting dining center will serve 1,850 students.

- A 14,000-square-foot College of Business Administration building will feature classroom space, financial trading rooms and areas for professional development.

- A $40 million wing is being added to the existing Durland Hall, part of the College of Engineering complex.

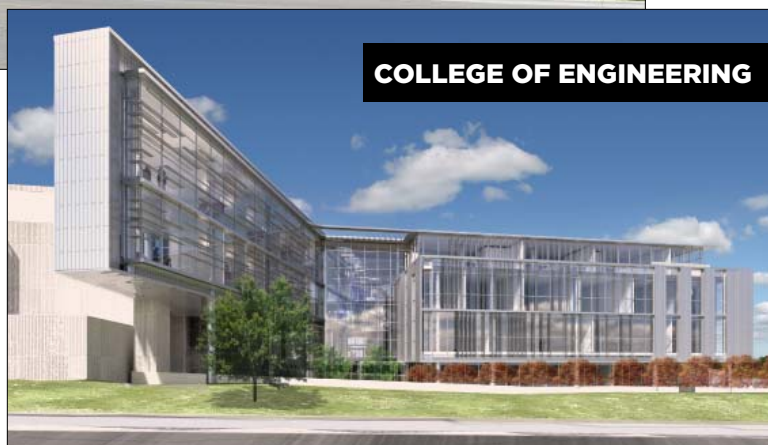

- The K-State Student Union is undergoing a $25 million renovation and expansion.

- The new K-State Welcome Center at Memorial Stadium will centralize services for incoming students, serve as a campus gateway, and feature interactive technology and customized information for visitors.

- Manhattan is becoming the world's global food systems center with Kansas State University's expertise. The state Department of Agriculture offices co-located at the university's research park, and the National Bio and Agro-defense Facility is being constructed adjacent to K-State.

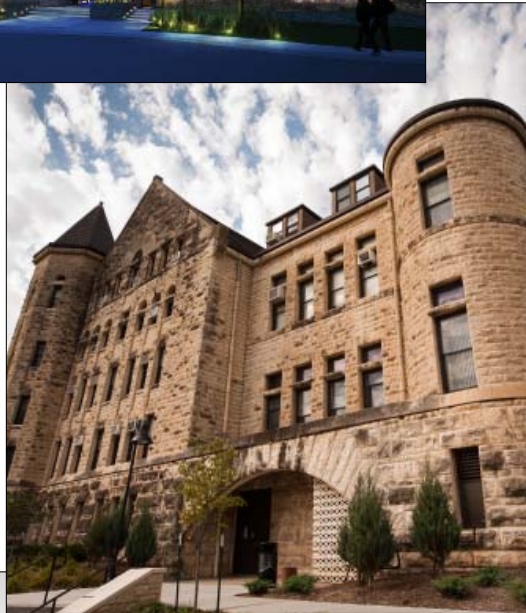

- K-State is the No. 1 choice for Kansas high school seniors, and it pays off. Recently, 94 percent of recent bachelor's degree graduates indicated they were employed or continuing education.

Student Life

- The diversity of Kansas State students continues to increase. Students come from all 50 states and more than 100 countries.
- The university offers more than 475 student clubs and organizations, including honor, academic and multicultural organizations.
- The newly established Confucius Institute at Kansas State University is the 102nd Confucius Institute in the U.S. and the second in Kansas. These institutes promote, enhance and elevate understanding of Chinese language and culture, as well as pave the way for academic exchange.
- The Princeton Review ranks Kansas State University No. 3 in the nation for best quality of life, No. 5 for excellent campus and community relations, and No. 7 for happiest students.
- Seven times in the last 10 years, Kansas State University's Black Student Union has been named the most outstanding black student government council in the Big 12 Conference.
- Twenty percent of K-State's undergraduate population is involved in the university's sororities and fraternities, which provide academic, philanthropic and leadership opportunities.
- The student-run, nationally recognized K-State Proud philanthropy has raised more than $833,000 in eight years to help fellow students in need.

DR. KIRK SCHULZ

SEVENTH YEAR

University President

CHAIR OF THE NCAA BOARD OF GOVERNORS

2012 CASE EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR

Virginia Tech, 1986

Kirk H. Schulz was selected as the 13th president of Kansas State University in February 2009 by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Schulz has spearheaded visionary campuswide goal-setting to move K-State forward — to be recognized as a Top 50 public research university by 2025. At the end of the K-State 2025 planning process the goal is to have a visionary plan that is inclusive of the K-State family, is exciting and innovative, and most importantly, is a plan that has enjoyed campuswide involvement and participation. For more on K-State 2025, please visit www.k-state.edu/2025.

Other recent highlights include:

- Fundraising and Development

This past year, fundraising by the Kansas State University Foundation hit a record $211 million.

- Research and Scholarship

Faculty researchers brought in more than $151.3 million in extramural funding, a university record.

- Athletics

Athletics completed more than $192 million in facility improvements, which includes the Vanier Football Complex, West Stadium Center, Basketball Training Facility, Intercollegiate Rowing Center, Mike Goss Tennis Stadium and soccer competition/football practice fields.

- Alumni

With more than 40,000 members, K-State continues to be ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for the 18th consecutive year for percentage of graduates who are members.

- Awards

Schulz received the 2012 Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

- Government Relations

Worked with the Kansas Congressional delegation, the Office of the Governor and the Kansas Legislature to secure funding for the construction of the National Bio and Agro-defense Facility, or NBAF.

- Communications and Marketing

Combined Web, video, publications, design, news services, photography and marketing into a one-stop shop to provide free services to campus; and launched a new university website.

- Student Life

Enrollment set a record in fall 2014 with 24,766 students. Maintained K-State's longtime status as the top choice among Kansas high school graduating seniors for fall 2014.

In addition, he is the chair of the NCAA board of governors, the association's highest-ranking committees. As chair, he helps oversee issues across the association. His term runs to January 2017.

Under Schulz's leadership, Kansas State University was selected a Friend of the Flint Hills by the Flint Hills Discovery Center Foundation in spring 2014. The award recognizes the university's contributions to the Konza Prairie, one of the last remaining tallgrass prairies in North America.

Before his appointment as president, Schulz served as vice president for research and economic development at Mississippi State University. He has also served on the faculty at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

Schulz is active in several professional societies including the American Institute for Chemical Engineers and the American Society for Engineering Education. In recognition of achievements in the field of Chemical Engineering, he was selected as a fellow in both the American Society of Engineering Education and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He is active in the Boy Scouts of America and served as president of the Coronado Council. In 2013, he was recognized with the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award from the National Eagle Scout Association. Kirk also serves various roles on the boards of Cereal Food Processors, the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, the Kansas Bioscience Authority, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology. In 2015, he was recognized for his service and patriotism by the Topeka Military Order of World Wars.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz, who serves as the associate dean for research and graduate programs in the College of Engineering and the Paslay Professor of Electrical Engineering at Kansas State University. They have two sons, Tim and Andrew. President Schulz's parents are Carl and Judy Schulz, Norfolk, Virginia.

JOHN CURRIE

Director of Athletics

SEVENTH YEAR

2013 UNDER ARMOUR AD OF THE YEAR
AND BOBBY DODD AWARD RECIPIENT

Wake Forest, 1993

Since John Currie's introduction as director of athletics in May 2009, Kansas State has experienced a tremendous turnaround and unprecedented athletic and academic accomplishments. Driving toward the vision of a Model Intercollegiate Athletics Program, Currie's rebuilt senior leadership team turned an inherited deficit in 2009 into national acclaim as one of the NCAA's most financially solvent programs, while initiating $192 million in comprehensive facility improvements – $185 million of which have been completed in the last 36 months including the Vanier Football Complex, West Stadium Center, Basketball Training Facility, Intercollegiate Rowing Facility, Mike Goss Tennis Stadium and soccer competition/football practice fields.

Athletically Currie's tenure has been marked by across the board success including a 2014-15 year that saw K-State win nine football games and participate in its fifth straight bowl game en route to a No. 18 final national ranking and advance to the NCAA Tournament in volleyball for the third time in four years. Highlighted by Akela Jones' national title run in the heptathlon, the women's track and field team went on to finish tied for ninth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, its highest team finish since 2002, while also earning Big 12 runner-up finishes in both indoor and outdoor season. Also, a total of eight track and field student-athletes claimed individual Big 12 Championships in 2014-15, while Jeff Mittie's first year at the helm of the women's basketball program saw an eight-win improvement from the 2013-14 season en route to the WNIT. The 2012-13 campaign was also one for the ages as K-State became just the fourth BCS school since 1998 to win league titles in football, men's basketball and baseball the same year, while K-State has held a 47-32 record since 2009 in head-to-head competition against in-state rival KU.

Academically, all Wildcat programs boast multi-year APR marks of at least .948, with the football, men's golf, men's cross country, women's cross country and volleyball teams sporting Big 12-leading scores. Approximately one-half of all student-athletes (260) achieved a 3.0 GPA or higher this past academic year, while a total of 125 earned Academic All-Big 12 recognition in 2014-15.

With the tag line of "Welcome to K-State" symbolizing the goal of providing The Best Fan Experience in the Big 12, K-State's marketing and fundraising efforts have been completely overhauled in Currie's tenure. Responding to a new emphasis on personal interaction and communication, K-State supporters have pushed attendance to new heights, while more than $195 million in total gifts have been raised for K-State Athletics in Currie's six years including FY14's cash total exceeding $46 million – almost quadrupling the annual amount prior to his arrival. Meanwhile, history was made as Currie and his staff worked hand in hand with President Kirk Schulz and the KSU Foundation to secure the largest individual donation in university history, a $60 million gift benefitting various academic and athletic initiatives, while the department reached its $50 million private gifts goal for the new Vanier Football Complex in just 13 months. Currie's award-winning Fan Experience staff, which was named the national 2014 NACMA Marketing Team of the Year, has created new ticket initiatives that have led to 29 sellout crowds at Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2009, including a current streak of 20 straight, while the last two football seasons have seen K-State set new school records for total (2013) and average (2014) attendance.

K-State also navigated its way through the tumultuous waters of conference realignment and capitalized on the Big 12's unique retained rights opportunities when it launched K-StateHD.TV, which has remained the nation's most-watched institutional premium digital network for the past four years and provides all student-athletes unprecedented live coverage.

The recipient of the 2013 Bobby Dodd AD Award and a 2013 Under Armour AD of the Year, Currie served as chair of the Big 12 ADs in 2013-14 and is a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Cabinet. He was one of only two intercollegiate ADs named to SportsBusiness Journal's 2011 prestigious Forty Under 40 list of national sports leaders.

A Model Intercollegiate Athletics Program

- A world-class student-athlete experience.
- Value to our University, community and state.
- Integrity and transparency in matters of ethics, finance and NCAA compliance.
- Championship athletic performances.
- The best fan experience in the Big 12 Conference.

THE CURRIE FAMILY

K-STATE'S HIGHLIGHTS UNDER CURRIE

- All programs have remained well above the NCAA .930 APR standard with five teams currently leading the Big 12.
- In the past six years, 121 student-athletes have earned All-American distinction, while Wildcats have won six NCAA individual titles and 38 Big 12 titles.
- Brand new facilities include the Vanier Football Complex and West Stadium Center, Basketball Training Facility, Intercollegiate Rowing Center, Mike Goss Tennis Stadium and the soccer competition/football practice facility.
- Fundraising has been completely overhauled with more than $195 million in cash contributions raised for athletics in six years as the department has raised more money over that period than it had in the previous 48 years combined.
- FY14's cash total of $46 million almost quadrupled the annual total prior to Currie's arrival and was the third highest nationally behind Texas A&M and Michigan.
- Operated with a budget surplus in each of the last six years, allowing for annual investments and budget growth from $44 million to $70 million.
- K-State donors have stepped up with 22 private gifts in excess of $1 million since fall 2009, while grassroots Ahearn Fund membership has reached all 50 states and soared past the 10,000 member mark for the first time in history.
- Implemented a complete phase-out of direct university funding as a source of revenue, enabling K-State to redirect those funds to critical academic needs.
- New ticket initiatives have led to 29 football sellouts since 2009, including a streak of 20 straight heading into 2015.
- Also set new season total and average attendance records in baseball while selling a record number of season tickets for volleyball and baseball.
- Hired 300-game winner Bruce Weber as the head MBB coach, who captured Big 12 Coach of the Year honors in his first season while leading the Cats to their first conference title in 20 years, while recent hires of veteran head coaches Jeff Mittie (WBB), Grant Robbins (MGolf), Ryan Godfrey (CC) and Danielle Steinberg (WTEN) have brought instant credibility and national recognition.

OFFICIAL WEBSITE - K-STATESPORTS.COM

K-State Athletics and SportsLabs – one of the nation's leading sports technology providers – have partnered on a new k-statesports.com, mobile/tablet applications and full digital platform. Providing Wildcat fans with industry-leading features and enhanced mobile and video experiences, the new platform launched July 1.

The revamped site at k-statesports.com will continue to provide unsurpassed content for fans, while utilizing the latest internet technology to provide a seamless, robust experience for fans that is unique to K-State. SportsLabs, in cooperation with K-State's athletic internet services and communications staff, worked throughout the spring and summer in preparing both the site's and applications new look/feel and features for the launch.

DEV NELSON PRESS LEVEL

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2015 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2015 season.

COVERING K-STATE

Weekly News Conference

Head football coach Bill Snyder hosts a weekly news conference each Tuesday at the Vanier Football Complex beginning with lunch at 12 p.m. Snyder will address the media at 12:30 p.m., with requested players available from 1 to 2 p.m. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact either Assistant AD for Communications Kenny Lannou (klannou@kstatesports.com) or Assistant Director of Athletics Communications Ryan Lackey (rlackey@kstatesports.com) each Sunday. Quotes from the news conference are available on www.k-statesports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

News Conference Video

Broadcast-quality video files for television newscasts of each weekly news conference are available for download on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications for FTP access instructions.

Other Availability

Bill Snyder: In addition to Kansas State's Tuesday news conference, head coach Bill Snyder is available to the media each Monday morning on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference. Coach Snyder is also available via telephone for out-of-town media outlets on Wednesday evenings. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office for those opportunities.

Assistant Coaches: Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office for information relating to assistant coach media opportunities.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media at Tuesday news conferences. No player interviews will be arranged after Tuesday on the week of a game.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website. To access the website, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies on page 209 as new restrictions were put in place prior to the 2013 season.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes may not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at the Will Call window located on the west side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions to press parking areas.

Photographers

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. All photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16 years old are not permitted on the sideline.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at 785.532.2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on the photo deck on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

Kansas State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization or publication. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to "free-lance" or "fan-based" sites that are not affiliated with a legitimate news gathering organization or publication.

Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID telephone numbers are listed on pages 54-55.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The K-State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via email. Updated notes and statistics are posted on www.k-statesports.com Monday morning in both text and PDF (Adobe Acrobat) formats. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via email, please either contact Kenny Lannou (klannou@kstate-sports.com) or Ryan Lackey (rlackey@kstatesports.com).

Working Space

Kansas State provides work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office following each Tuesday news conference. The office is located on the sixth level of the West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and is fully equipped with wireless internet access. Telephone lines, a copier and archived materials are also available to working media members.

Dev Nelson Press Level

The Dev Nelson Press Level includes a working area for print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth, TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video and a photo deck.

Press Box Services

Packets including statistics, pregame notes, flipcards and programs will be available for media in the press box prior to each game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams also will be provided. Live running statistics are also available on TVs throughout the press box and on the Internet at kstate.statebroadcast.com during the game. Final statistics, notes and quotes will be made available to the media following the game and are posted on the official K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Level is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to file stories electronically as well as photographers may access the network with a wireless internet card. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Kenny Lannou at the start of the fourth quarter. Coach Snyder and requested players will be available in the team theater on the third floor of the new Vanier Football Complex following a brief cooling off period.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will take place inside the Vanier

Football Complex Strength and Performance Center adjacent to the visiting locker room.

Postgame Highlights

The Kansas State Athletics Department produces broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all non-televized home games. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office or K-StateHD.TV staff for FTP access instructions and information.

Telephones

All media or broadcast crews wishing to have phone lines installed in the press box are responsible for making their own arrangements. Phones may be ordered through KSU Telecommunications at 785.532.7001. Please provide the following address to telephone service personnel when requesting phone line installation: Bill Snyder Family Stadium Press Level, 1800 Kimball Avenue, Manhattan, KS 66502. The stadium press row phone number is 785.539.3423.

Media Meals

A pregame meal is served in the Dev Nelson Press Level 90 minutes prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials. Milk and ice cream are also provided for all games courtesy of Hiland Dairy of Manhattan.

K-STATE CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers regularly covering Kansas State University, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration.
4. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

1. With the exception of beat writers covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of organizations that regularly publish gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
4. Websites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
5. If a news-gathering medium has an online website that sponsors anonymous forums, it may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.
6. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
7. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
8. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
9. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.
10. Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "on-field" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use. These two passes MUST be utilized in a working fashion and each user must check out a PHOTO VEST from the press level (which must be worn on the field at all times).

2015 BIG 12 MEDIA TELECONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference hosts individual media teleconferences with each Big 12 head coach throughout each football season. The briefings are conducted between 9:50 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. each Monday from the league's headquarters in Irving, Texas, and are available to local and national media outlets. To participate in the teleconference, please contact Bob Burda or Joni Lehmann in the Big 12 Communications Office at 469.524.1000 for details on how to join the weekly call. The weekly call-in schedule for 2015 season is as follows:

9:50 a.m. - Charlie Strong, Texas
 10:00 a.m. - David Beaty, Kansas
 10:10 a.m. - Bob Stoops, Oklahoma

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

The 2014 and 2012 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year and 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 14th season behind the mic as "Voice of the Wildcats."

K-State's Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Bill Snyder and Bruce Weber shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the "Countdown to Kickoff" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the "Zone Sports Insiders" show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. He and his wife Karen reside in Manhattan.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 29th year in the booth, Weber has passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as FOX Sports Kansas City. He is also a host of a college football show on network affiliate Sports Radio 810 WHB in Kansas City.

A native of Goddard, Kansas, he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as Vice President-COO & CFO of Tower Properties, in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame and a 2014 inductee to the Kansas Shrine Bowl Hall of Fame.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnack), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children - Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry. Stanton is a current Wildcat wide receiver and serves as the 2015 special teams captain. The Webers reside in Lenexa, Kansas.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter and Postgame Host

Matt Walters is in his 11th year as the Wildcats' sideline reporter and host of the network's postgame show. The 2013 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year is also a 21-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts and host of the popular 'Powercat Gameday' football pre-game show on KMAN and KMKF. Walters also serves as an analyst for a portion of the men's basketball broadcasts on the K-State Sports Network as well as some play-by-play duties for women's basketball.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kansas, Walters spent 20 years at KMAN before being named Vice President/Business Developer at Manhattan's Commerce Bank in July 2014.

In addition to being named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2013, Walters also received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year in 2005.

K-STATE FOOTBALL IS ON THE AIR

Wildcat football is on the air! The 2015 football season marks the 11th year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield Communications. Learfield Communications is a national leader in collegiate sports broadcasting and marketing, owning the rights to more than 100 of the nation's top collegiate programs.

Bill Snyder Radio Show

Affiliates on the K-State Sports Network carry the Bill Snyder Show each Thursday night during the season. The show originates from the Vanier Football Complex from 7-8 p.m., during the season and is open to the public.
